The accompanying notes are an integral part of this financial statement.

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Revere Merchant Securities, LLC (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The Company was organized as a limited liability company in New York on March 20, 2014 and is headquartered in New York City. The Company became a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") on July 23, 2015. The company has approved business lines with FINRA to engage investment advisory services and private placements of securities.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statement has been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statement in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on management's knowledge of current events and actions it may undertake in the future, they may ultimately differ from actual results.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash held at financial institutions. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to significant concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents. The Company places its cash with high credit quality financial institutions, which at times may be in excess of the FDIC insurance limits.

Revenue Recognition

On January 1, 2018, the Company adopted the new accounting standard from contracts with customers on a modified retrospective basis. This change affects the Company's recognition of revenue earned based on success fees of private placements. Previously, any retainers received would be recorded when received. Under the accounting standard, revenue is earned when all material milestones of the contract have been fulfilled and the entire success fee has been earned. There are no changes to revenue previously recorded and no contract balances as of December 31 2017-2019.

REVERE MERCHANT SECURITIES, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT
DECEMBER 31, 2019

In summary, the Company earns revenue based on success fees of private placements. Revenue, including a retainer, is recorded when private placements successfully close and fees received is imminent.

Income Taxes

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Revere Capital Advisors LLC ("RCA"), and as a single member LLC it is a disregarded entity for tax purposes. All taxable amounts flow through into RCA for the tax year 2019. The Company will be included in RCA's consolidated tax return. RCA has elected to be treated as a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes. All income, gains, losses and credits retain their character and pass through directly to the individual members. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been reflected in the accompanying financial statement.

FASB ASC 740 clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in a company's financial statement by prescribing a minimum recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statement. As of December 31, 2019, management has determined that it has no uncertain tax positions that require either recognition or disclosure in the financial statement.

RCA's income tax returns for 2016-2018 are open for examination by federal, state and local income tax authorities.

3. Related Parties

The Company has an expense sharing agreement with RCA whereby RCA pays and records all indirect costs of the Company. Expenses are only required to be paid if it has sufficient revenue to do so. Expenses and excess revenue over 200% of the minimum required net cap are paid in the form of a management fee to RCA when applicable.

The Company paid $0 under the expense sharing agreement in 2019. The Company will continue to follow the terms of the expense sharing agreement on unpaid expenses and excess revenue when future revenue is earned. RCA advanced and the Company returned $25,000 in Q1 2019.

4. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the FASB issued an accounting update to clarify the principles of revenue recognition, to develop a common revenue recognition standard across all industries for U.S. GAAP and International Financial Reporting Standards and to provide enhanced disclosures for users of the financial statements. The core principle of this guidance is that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. This guidance is effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2018. The Company has adopted this accounting standard update.

5. Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1.

As of December 31, 2019 the Company had net capital of $9,129, which was $4,129 in excess of its minimum net capital of $5,000 under both computations.

In addition, the Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was 0.00 to 1.

6. Indemnifications, Commitments and other Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Company may enter into contracts and agreements that contain a variety of representations, warranties and general indemnifications. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements cannot be quantified, as this could involve future claims that may be made against the Company that have not yet occurred.

Management believes that the likelihood of any material liability arising under these arrangements is remote. No contingent liability has been recorded on the Statement of Financial Condition. In the normal course of business, the Company may be named as a defendant in various lawsuits and may be involved in certain regulatory investigations and proceedings. It is in the opinion of management after consultation with legal counsel, that there are no matters pending against the Company that would have a material effect on this financial statement of the Company as of December 31, 2019.

7. Subsequent Events

Subsequent events for the Company have been evaluated through the date of the Auditor's report. No events or transactions have occurred or are pending that would have a material effect on this financial statement at December 31, 2019.
