REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors of FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc.
Riverwoods, Illinois

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2019, the related statements of operations, changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2019, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplemental Information

The supplemental information has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a5. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2019

Note 1 - Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization and Operations

FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc. (the Company) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Federal Life Insurance Company (Federal Life) and part of Federal Life Group. The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and acts as underwriter and distributor for variable annuity contracts sponsored by Federal Life. The Company is also licensed as a general insurance agency and brokers insurance business written by Federal Life.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) as promulgated by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC or the guidance).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized when, or as, the Company satisfies its performance obligations by transferring promised goods or services to customers. A good or service is transferred to a customer when, or as, the customer obtains control of that good or service. A performance obligation may be satisfied over time or at a point in time. Revenue from a performance obligation satisfied at a point in time is recognized at the point in time that the Company determines the customer obtains control over the promised good or service. The amount of revenue recognized reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for those promised goods or services.

Insurance commissions are derived from the sale of insurance products to clients. The insurance company pays an asset-based commission. Revenue is recognized on the renewal date if the policy is in force. No revenue is earned on policies not in force at the renewal date. Commission revenue is recorded when earned. Commissions are earned and related expenses are recorded when premiums are received on the underlying policy.

FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended December 31, 2019

Related Party Transactions

All of the Company's commission income is derived from the sale of insurance products of Federal Life.

Federal Life incurs various expenses on behalf of the Company, principally rent and the salaries of personnel who conduct the operations of the Company. The Company recorded $6,000 in 2019 to reimburse Federal Life for these expenses.

If expenses were incurred as a stand alone entity they would differ from the allocated amount. In 2019, the Company received a $25,000 capital contribution from its parent, Federal Life Insurance Company.

Investments

The Company, through a private offering, has purchased NASDAQ common stock. The common stock is carried at fair value with any change in fair value reported as unrealized gain (loss) in operations.

Income Taxes

The operations of the Company have been included in the life-nonlife consolidated federal income tax return of Federal Life Mutual Holding Company and will be part of the 2019 Federal Life Group consolidated filing. In accordance with the intercompany policy, the Company provides taxes on taxable income or loss based principally on a separate company tax calculation. As of December 31, 2019, the Company had a deferred tax liability of $6,056 related to the unrealized gain on investment - common stock. For the year ended December 31, 2019, the Company's federal income tax benefit was comprised of $5,314 of current income tax benefit and $1,608 of deferred income tax expense.

The Company records any interest and penalties assessed by taxing authorities as incurred to federal income taxes incurred on the accompanying statement of operations. No interest or penalties were recognized in 2019.

The Company recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax benefit in accordance with FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under that guidance the Company assesses the likelihood, based on the technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination of facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available or when an event occurs that requires a change. The Company believes that its federal income tax filing position and deductions will be sustained and does not anticipate an adjustment that will result in a material change to its financial position. No reserves for uncertain federal income tax positions have been recorded.

FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc.

Year Ended December 31, 2019

Tax years 2016 through 2018 are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 26, 2020, the date the financial statements were issued, and has not noted any events or transactions requiring recognition or disclosure.

Going Concern

The Company does not have meaningful revenues and does not have the ability to continue as a going concern without financial support from its parent company. Federal Life has assured management that such support will continue.

Note 2 - Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum amount of net capital as defined under such provisions. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. As of December 31, 2019, the Company had net capital of $38,111, minimum net capital requirements of $5,000 and a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital of 0.13 to 1. Aggregate indebtedness to net capital shall not exceed 15 to 1 and capital rules may effectively restrict the payment of cash dividends. The Company has not paid any cash dividends to date.

Contingent Liabilities

In the normal course of business, the Company has entered into agreements that include indemnification provisions. The Company has also agreed to indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and agents in certain situations. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against us that have not yet occurred. However, the Company believes the risk of loss related to the agreements is remote.

Note 3 – Fair Value Measurements

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (ASC 820), establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and establishes a hierarchy of fair value inputs. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. ASC 820 describes three approaches to measuring the fair value of assets and liabilities: the market approach, the income approach and the cost approach. Each approach includes multiple valuation techniques. The standard does not prescribe which valuation technique should be used when measuring fair value, but does establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used in applying the various techniques. Inputs broadly refer to the assumptions that market participants use to make pricing decisions, including assumptions about risk. The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc.

- Level 1 - Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company can access at the measurement date.
- Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such case, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

The following table sets forth by level within the fair value hierarchy the Company's only financial asset that was accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2019. As required by ASC 820, the asset is classified in its entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Company's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement requires judgment, and may affect their placement within the fair value hierarchy levels.

Statement Relating to Certain Determinations Required under Rule 15c3-3

Year Ended December 31, 2019

FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc. ("The Company") is a registered broker-dealer subject to Rule 17a-5 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (17 C.F.R. 240.17a-5, "Reports to be made by certain brokers and dealers"). This Exemption Report was prepared as required by 17 C.F.R. 240.17a-S(d)(1) and (4). To the best of its knowledge and belief, the Company states the following:

- (1) The Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. 240.15c3-3 under the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. 240.15c3-3(k): (1)
- (2) The Company met the identified exemption provisions in 17 C.F.R. 240.15c3-3(k) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

I, Anders Raam, affirm that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, this Exemption Report is true and correct.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors
FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc.
Riverwoods, Illinois

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc. identified the following provision of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc. claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (1) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc. stated that FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc.'s management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about FED Mutual Financial Services, Inc.'s compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the conditions set forth in paragraph (k)(1) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
