GREAT AMERICAN ADVISORS, INC.
Notes to the Financial Statements
As of and for the Year Ended December 31, 2019

A. Description of Company

Great American Advisors, Inc. (“GAA” or the “Company”), an Ohio corporation, was formed on December 10, 1993, as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Great American Financial Resources, Inc. (“GAFRI”), which is wholly owned by American Financial Group, Inc. (“AFG”).

GAA was initially capitalized in March 1994. The Company registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as a broker/dealer and was admitted to the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) in July 1994. GAA became a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”) in 1995. GAA engaged Pershing LLC to serve as its clearing broker/dealer on a fully disclosed basis from December 1995 through August 2010. GAA exited retail brokerage operations in August 2010.

The Company serves as Principal Underwriter and Distributor for the registered annuity contracts issued by GAFRI’s wholly-owned insurance subsidiaries, Annuity Investors Life Insurance Company (“AILIC”) and Great American Life Insurance Company (“GALIC”). The Company is also registered as an investment advisor in Ohio and several other states serving institutional clients, such as employers that offer defined contribution retirement plans to their employees. The Company’s management reviews all financial performance on an aggregate level and therefore reports all financial activity under one operating segment.

B. Significant Accounting Policies

Short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less when purchased are considered to be cash equivalents for purposes of the financial statements.

The Company has an intercompany tax allocation agreement with AFG. Pursuant to the agreement, the Company’s tax expense or benefit is determined based upon its inclusion in the consolidated tax return of AFG and its includable subsidiaries. Estimated payments are made or received quarterly during the year. Following year-end, additional settlements are made on the original due date of the return and, when extended, at the time the return is filed. The method of allocation among the companies under the agreement is based upon separate return calculations with current credit for losses to the extent the losses provide a benefit in the consolidated return.

Deferred income taxes are calculated using the liability method. Under this method, deferred income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on differences between financial reporting and tax bases and are measured using enacted tax rates. A valuation allowance is established to reduce total deferred tax assets to an amount that will more likely than not be realized. No valuation allowance was deemed necessary as a result of the intercompany tax allocation agreement.

The Company recognizes the tax benefits of uncertain tax positions only when the position is more likely than not to be sustained under examination by the appropriate taxing authority. Interest and penalties, if any, on the Company’s reserve for uncertain tax positions are recognized as a component of tax expense on the Statement of Operations. The Company has reviewed its tax positions taken on federal income tax returns for all open tax years (tax years ended December 31, 2013 through 2019) and has determined that no provisions for uncertain tax positions is required in the Company’s financial statements.

The Company sponsored a deferred compensation plan for certain past registered representatives. The Company purchased mutual funds and money market funds as directed by the plan participants to fund its related obligations. Such securities are held in a custodial account for the participants and are recorded in the Statement of Financial Condition at fair value. These securities are the property of the Company; however, the investment risk related to these securities is borne by the participants. Changes in the Company's associated liability include distributions to participants, interest income, realized gains or losses and changes in fair value. Realized gains or losses on securities are determined on a specific identification basis.

Management has evaluated the impact of subsequent events on the Company through the date the financial statements were issued and has determined that there were no subsequent events requiring recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Changes in circumstances could cause actual results to differ materially from those estimates.

Commission income and commission expense are recorded on a trade-date basis as variable annuity product transactions occur. The performance obligation is satisfied on the trade date because this is when the underlying financial instrument or purchaser is identified, the pricing is agreed upon and the risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to/from the customer.

Management fee income is received quarterly but is recognized as earned on a pro rata basis over the term of the contract. The performance obligation for providing the services is satisfied over time because the customer is receiving and consuming the benefits as they are provided by the Company. Fee arrangements are based on a percentage applied to the customer's assets under management. Fees are received quarterly and are recognized as revenue at that time as they relate specifically to the services provided in that period which are distinct from the services provided in other periods. Fees paid to solicitor firms are paid quarterly and are recognized as incurred on a pro rata basis over the term of the contract.

The Company has a Funding and Expense Administration Agreement with GAFRI pertaining to its salary, benefit and other expenses. Pursuant to the agreement, expenses are paid by GAFRI and reimbursed by the Company.

GREAT AMERICAN ADVISORS, INC.
As of and for the Year Ended December 31, 2019

C. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which includes minimum net capital requirements, limits on aggregate indebtedness, and limits on the amount of debt a broker/dealer may have as a percentage of its total capital.

Currently, the minimum net capital required is 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness or $100,000, whichever is greater. A broker/dealer must not allow its aggregate indebtedness to exceed 1,500% of its net capital. At December 31, 2019, the Company had defined net capital of $344,955 which was $244,955 in excess of its required minimum net capital of $100,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 318%.

D. Transactions with Affiliates and Other Related Parties

The Company serves as the sole underwriter for variable-indexed annuities sold by GALIC and variable annuity contracts sold by AILIC. Commissions received in 2019 from GALIC and AILIC for their sales were $4,352,379 and $2,926,109, respectively. The Company paid 100% of AILIC commissions and 94% of GALIC commissions to other broker/dealers as commissions. The remaining 6% of GALIC commissions were paid to registered representatives of GAA.

Pursuant to the Funding and Expense Administration Agreement, the Company was allocated $616,833 and these charges are included in Salary and benefits expense and General and administrative expenses.

GAFRI has committed to continue to fund normal business operations of the Company to the extent necessary for the Company to continue as a going concern and to remain in compliance with regulatory capital requirements.

E. Income Taxes

For its calculation of income taxes, the Company uses the statutory rate of 21%. The Company's effective tax rate is 20.5%. The net tax refund received from AFG amounted to $144,931 in 2019. The current tax payable of $11,991 is due to AFG as of December 31, 2019 and represents tax refunds received in 2019 in excess of the actual current tax benefit.

GAA's 2013-2019 tax years remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. For financial reporting purposes, net deferred tax assets are reflected without reduction for a valuation allowance. The deferred tax asset of $165,707 at December 31, 2019 relates principally to deferred compensation.

As of and for the Year Ended December 31, 2019

F. Employee Benefit Plans

The Company participates with affiliates in a defined contribution 401(k) plan that covers substantially all of its full-time employees. The plan includes employee contributions and matching contributions by the Company subject to certain limitations. In addition, the Company may contribute additional amounts to the plans at its discretion. The aggregate contributions to the plan for the year ended December 31, 2019 were $22,925 and are included in Salary and benefits expense.

G. Contingencies

The Company is involved in litigation from time to time, generally arising in the ordinary course of business. The outcome of such legal actions is inherently uncertain. None of these matters are expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations or financial condition.

H. Fair Value Measurements

Accounting standards define fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. The standards establish a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on whether the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability ("inputs") are observable or unobservable. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect the Company's assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. The Company did not have any nonrecurring fair value measurements of nonfinancial assets and liabilities in 2019.

Accounting standards for measuring fair value are based on inputs used in estimating fair value. The three levels of the hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1 – Quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets (markets in which transactions occur with sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis).

Level 2 – Quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets (markets in which there are few transactions, the prices are not current, price quotations vary substantially over time or among market makers, or in which little information is released publicly); and valuations based on other significant inputs that are observable in active markets.

Level 3 – Valuations derived from valuation techniques generally consistent with those used to estimate fair values of Level 2 financial instruments in which one or more significant inputs are unobservable or when the market for a security exhibits significantly less liquidity relative to markets supporting Level 2 fair value measurements. The unobservable inputs may include management's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use based on the best information available at the valuation date.

The Company's financial instruments consist exclusively of institutional mutual funds held in the deferred compensation plan for which quoted market prices in active markets are available. Accordingly, these investments are classified as Level 1. With the exception of the Company's investments held under the deferred compensation plan, the Company did not have any assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring or nonrecurring basis as of December 31, 2019.

I. Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update 2016-13, Financial Instruments-Credit Losses: Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which provides a new loss model for determining credit-related impairments for financial instruments measured at amortized cost and requires an entity to estimate the credit losses expected over the life of an exposure. The Company will adopt this guidance effective January 1, 2020. The new guidance is not expected to have a material impact on GAA's results of operations or financial condition.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Management of Great American Advisors, Inc.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Great American Advisors, Inc. (the Company) identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 (k)(2)(i) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) the Company stated that it met the identified exemption provisions in 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 (k) throughout the most recent fiscal year ended December 31, 2019 without exception. Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, FINRA, other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and other recipients specified by Rule 17a-5(d)(6) and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
