To the Board of Directors of:
D&D Securities, Inc.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of D&D Securities, Inc.(the "Company"), as of December 31, 2019, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes and supplementary information (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2019, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2019, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Change in Accounting Principle

As discussed in Note 3 to the financial statements, D&D Securities, INC. has changed its method of accounting for leases due to the adoption of Accounting Standards Update 2016-02, Leases.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Auditor's Report on Supplementary Information

The supplementary information, the Computation of Net Capital under Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements and Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission OR contained in schedules I and II, has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements. The supplementary information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplementary information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplementary information. In forming our opinion on the supplementary information, we evaluated whether the supplementary information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplementary information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2019.

D&D SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2019

NOTE 1 - Organization and Nature of Business

The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the NASDAQ OMX PHLX ("PHLX"). The Company is a Pennsylvania Corporation that provides brokerage services to its customers located throughout the United States.

NOTE 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

The Company maintains cash balances at a financial institution. Both interest and non-interest bearing accounts with the same depository institution will be insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation for a combined total of $250,000. In the normal course of business, the Company may have deposits that exceed the insured balance in its interest and non-interest bearing accounts.

Commissions and Fees Receivable – Commissions and Fees receivables are carried at cost. The Company extends credit to its customers based upon an evaluation of customers' financial condition and credit history and generally does not require collateral to support customer receivables. The Company does not accrue finance or interest charges. The Company uses the direct write-off method for uncollectible receivables, which is not considered a material departure from generally accepted accounting principles. On a periodic basis, management evaluates its accounts receivable balances and writes off amounts when it is determined that all collection efforts have been exhausted. At December 31, 2019, bad debt expense was $30,368.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided on the modified accelerated method. Maintenance and minor repairs are charged to operations when incurred. When assets are retired or sold, the related costs and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and the resulting gain or loss is reflected in current operations.

The estimated useful lives for depreciation are:

Equipment	5 Years
Furniture	5 Years
Leasehold Improvements	7 Years

D&D SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements

Long-Lived Assets - As required by the Property, Plant, and Equipment Topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification No. 360 ("FASB ASC 360"), long-lived assets are required to be reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. When required, impairment losses on assets to be held and used are recognized based on the fair value of the asset. Long-lived assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less the cost to sell. There was no impairment loss noted as of December 31, 2019.

Revenue Recognition - Contracts with Customers - Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur. Interest income received from clearing broker relates to interest earned on the Company's deposit balance and is recorded monthly as reflected on the clearing broker statement.

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Codification 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"). The new accounting standard, along with its related amendments, replaces the current rules-based GAAP governing revenue recognition with a principles-based approach. The Company adopted the new standard on January 1, 2019 using the modified retrospective approach, which requires the Firm to apply the new revenue standard to (i) all new revenue contracts entered into after January 1, 2019 and (ii) all existing revenue contracts as of January 1, 2019 through a cumulative adjustment to equity. The adoption of ASC 606 resulted in no material effect on the Company's 2019 financial statements.

The core principle in the new guidance is that a company should recognize revenue in a manner that depicts the transfer of goods or services to customers in amounts that reflect the consideration the company expects to receive for those goods or services. The Company applies the following five steps in determining the amount of revenues to recognize: (i) identify the contract; (ii) identify the performance obligations in the contract; (iii) determine the transaction price; (iv) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract; and (v) recognize revenue when (or as) the performance obligation is satisfied. Each of these steps involves management's judgment and an analysis of the material terms and conditions of the contract.

The Company provides option execution services on the floor of an exchange on behalf of registered broker-dealers. The Company is paid a fee by the broker-dealers based on the number of transactions executed and the number of option contracts in each transaction. Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on the trade date (the date that the Company fills the trade order by finding and contracting with a counterparty and confirms the trade with the customer). The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied on the trade date because that is when the underlying financial instrument or purchaser is identified, the pricing is agreed upon and the risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to/from the customer. The Company invoices its clients monthly in arrears and accrues the fee revenue as commissions in the month in which the transactions were executed on a trade date basis.

The Company also directs equity order flow to certain stock exchanges for which it earns rebate revenue. The Company does not maintain contracts with the exchanges delineating the rebate arrangement. Rebate revenue is recognized when the orders are executed by the exchange on a trade date basis.

D&D SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements

Revenue Recognition - Contracts with Customers (Continued) - Disaggregation of revenue can be found on the Statement of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2019 by type of revenue stream. For the year ended December 31, 2019, the Company recorded commissions receivable of $1,079,117. Payments are due upon receipt of invoice.

Although total revenues may not be materially impacted by the new guidance, management notes changes to the disclosures based on the additional requirements prescribed by ASC 606. There were no contract assets or contract liabilities at January 1, 2019 and December 31, 2019.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments - The carrying amounts for cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, deposits with clearing organizations, prepaid expenses, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate their fair value because of their short-term maturity.

Income Taxes - The stockholder of the Corporation has elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be taxed individually for the profits of the S Corporation. Therefore no provision for income taxes are presented in these financial statements.

The Company has evaluated the effects of the Income Taxes Topic of FASB Accounting Standards Codification No. 740 ("FASB ASC 740") and has concluded that the Company recognizes tax benefits only to the extent that the Company believes it is "more likely than not" that its tax positions will be sustained upon a taxing authorities examination. The Company is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Company's management believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2016.

NOTE 3 - New Accounting Pronouncements - ASC 842 Leases

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") published Accounting Standards Update No. 2016-02, Leases ("ASC 842"), which requires substantially all leases (with the exception of leases with a term of one year or less) to be recorded on the balance sheet using a method referred to as the right-of-use ("ROU") asset approach. The new standard was adopted on January 1, 2019 using the modified retrospective method described within ASC 842. The new standard introduces two lease accounting models, which result in a lease being classified as either a "finance" or "operating" lease on the basis of whether the lessee effectively obtains control of the underlying asset during the lease term. A lease would be classified as a finance lease if it meets one of five classification criteria, four of which are generally consistent with current lease accounting guidance. By default, a lease that does not meet the criteria to be classified as a finance lease will be deemed an operating lease. Regardless of classification, the initial measurement of both lease types will result in the balance sheet recognition of a ROU asset representing a company's right to use the underlying asset for a specified period of time and a corresponding lease liability. The lease liability is recognized at the present value of the future lease payments, and the ROU asset is equal the lease liability adjusted for any prepaid rent, lease incentives provided by the lessor, and any indirect costs. The subsequent measurement of each type of lease varies. Leases classified as a finance lease will be accounted for using the effective interest method. Under this approach, a lessee amortizes the ROU asset (generally on a straight-line basis in a manner similar to depreciation) and the discount on the lease liability (as a component of interest expense). Leases classified as an operating lease will result in the recognition of a single lease expense amount that is recorded on a straight-line basis (or another systematic basis, if more appropriate).

D&D SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2019

NOTE 3 - New Accounting Pronouncements - ASC 842 Leases (Continued)

The new lease guidance has caused significant changes to the way leases are recorded, presented and disclosed in our financial statements. Upon adoption, the Company recognized a lease liability of $43,722, with an offsetting ROU asset of $43,316.

As a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), the Company is subject to SEC Rule 15c3-1, the Net Capital rule, under which the lease asset would be recorded as a non-allowable asset and the associated liability would be recorded as aggregate indebtedness, both of which could have a materially negative effect on Net Capital computed under SEC Rule 15c3-1. On May 31, 2016, the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association ("SIFMA") requested relief from the SEC from the net capital impact of the lease capitalization required under ASC 842. On November 8, 2016, the SEC issued a "no action" letter permitting broker-dealers to add back to Net Capital the operating lease asset to the extent of the associated operating lease liability. If the value of the operating lease liability exceeds the value of the associated operating lease asset, the amount by which the liability's value exceeds the associated lease asset must be deducted for net capital purposes. The Company believes that the relief provided by the SEC "no action" letter will substantially negate the effect of the application of ASC 842 on the Company's Net Capital position.

NOTE 4 - Property and Equipment

Property and equipment at December 31, 2019 were as follows:

Equipment	$ 141,454
Furniture	58,577
Leasehold Improvements	63,616
Total Property and Equipment	263,647
Less: Accumulated Depreciation	250,376
Net Property and Equipment	$ 13,271

Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2019 was $8,551.

NOTE 5 - Accrued Expenses

Accrued expenses at December 31, 2019 were as follows:

Commissions Payable	$ 613,514
Accrued Expenses	675,284
Accounts Payable	199,008
TOTAL ACCRUED EXPENSES	$ 1,487,806

NOTE 6 - Lease Commitments

The Company leases space under a non-cancelable operating lease with monthly minimum payments plus common operating expenses, which will expire July 2020. Rental expense for the space for the year ended December 31, 2019 was $87,216. The minimum payments remaining on the operating lease total $43,722.

D&D SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2019

NOTE 7 - Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

NOTE 8 - Commitments and Contingencies

The Company can be subject to regulatory inquiries that could result in the assessment of fines or other sanctions. Management has determined that as of the date of this Financial Statement, no assessment of fines or other sanctions are imposed.

NOTE 9 - Net Capital Requirement

The Company has elected not to be subject to the Aggregate Indebtedness Standard of paragraph (a)(1)(i) of the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1). Based on this election, the Company shall not permit its net capital to be less than the greater of $100,000 or 6 2/3% percent of aggregate debit items computed in accordance with the Formula for Determination of Reserve Requirements for Brokers and Dealers. At December 31, 2019, the Company had net capital of $287,363 which was $187,363 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was 5.18 to 1.

NOTE 10 - Exempt Provisions of Rule 15c3-3

The Company operates under the provision of paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and accordingly, is exempt from the remaining provisions of that rule.

The Company is subject to the exemptive requirements of SEC Rule 15c3-3 and did not maintain possession or control any customer funds or securities at December 31, 2019.

NOTE 11 - Off Balance Sheet Risk

Pursuant to a clearance agreement, the Company introduces all of its securities transactions to a clearing broker on a fully disclosed basis. In accordance with the clearance agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker for losses, if any, which the clearing broker may sustain from clearing securities transactions introduced by the Company. The Deposits with Clearing Organization collateralize the transactions cleared through the clearing broker.

NOTE 12 - Financial Instruments with Off-Balance-Sheet-Risk

In the normal course of business, the Company's customer activities include the execution, settlement, and financing of various customer securities transactions. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet-risk in the event the customer or other broker is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and the Company has to purchase or sell the financial instrument underlying the contract at a loss.

NOTE 13 - Subsequent Events

In accordance with the Subsequent Events Topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification No. 855 ("FASB ASC 855"), the Company has evaluated those events and transactions that occurred from January 1, 2020 through February 27, 2020, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No events have been identified which require disclosure.

To The Board of Directors of:
D&D Securities, Inc.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, on which D&D Securities, Inc. identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. ~15c3-3(k) under which D&D Securities, Inc. claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. ~240.15c3-3:(2)(i). SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) and D&D Securities, Inc. stated that D&D Securities, Inc. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. D&D Securities, Inc.'s management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about D&D Securities, Inc.'s compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
