Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of TLS Financial Services, Inc. as of December 31, 2019, and related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of TLS Financial Services, Inc. as of December 31, 2019 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis of Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board ("PCAOB") (United States) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the United States federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, appropriate evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit to provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Company's auditor consecutively since 2004.

The supplemental information has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the standards of the PCAOB. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Review Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) TLS Financial Services, Inc. identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) under which TLS Financial Services, Inc. claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (k)(2)(i) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) TLS Financial Services, Inc. stated that TLS Financial Services, Inc. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year ended December 31, 2019 without exception. TLS Financial Services, Inc. management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about TLS Financial Services, Inc. compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the conditions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

1. Line of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business and Reporting Entity

TLS Financial Services, Inc. was incorporated in Maryland in 1986. The Company advises investors in the Mid-Atlantic region, in the purchase of mutual fund investments and acts as an agent, receiving commissions from mutual fund families when their clients purchase mutual fund investments. The Company's business is limited to mutual funds.

Revenue and Cost Recognition

Revenues are derived primarily from brokerage commissions. They are recorded on the accrual basis.

Cash and Equivalents

For the purposes of the cash flow presentation, the Company considers all cash on deposit and money market funds as cash and equivalents.

Income Taxes

The stockholder of the Company has elected to be taxed in accordance with the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Under those provisions, in lieu of corporate income taxes, the individual shareholder is taxed on his proportionate share of the taxable income of the Company. Therefore, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

Use of Estimates in Preparing Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The accompanying financial statements contain no significant estimates.

2. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission uniform net capital rule (Rule 15c3-1) which requires the maintenance of a minimum amount of net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1.

At December 31, 2019, the Company had net capital requirements of approximately $30,104. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was .01 to 1.

3. Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to significant concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash.

The Company maintains cash with one financial institution but is within the FDIC limits. As part of its cash management process, the Company performs periodic evaluations of its credit standing of the financial institution.

4. Related Party Transactions

TLS Advisory Services, Inc. a related party through common ownership maintains office space used by the Company. During the year, the Company paid TLS Advisory Services, Inc. $250 per month under a month-to-month arrangement as a management fee for their use of office space and supplies. The management fee for the year ended December 31, 2019 was $3,000.

The Company paid commissions in the amount of $9,835 to the sole stockholder during the year ended December 31, 2019.
