REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Members of:
Arcview Capital, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Arcview Capital, LLC (the "Company"), as of December 31, 2020, and the related statements of operations, changes in members' equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes and supplementary information (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2020, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2020, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Auditor's Report on Supplementary Information

The supplementary information, the Computation of Net Capital under Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements and Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission OR contained in schedules I and II, has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements. The supplementary information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplementary information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplementary information. In forming our opinion on the supplementary information, we evaluated whether the supplementary information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplementary information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2021.

ARCVIEW CAPITAL, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
DECEMBER 31, 2020

1. Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Business

Arcview Capital, LLC. ("the Company") is a Limited Liability Company formed on in the State of Delaware. Effective June 10, 2020 the Company commenced operations when it became registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") as a securities broker-dealer and received approval from and became a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA").

As a limited liability company, the member is not liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, unless the member has signed a specific guarantee.

Basis of Presentation

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP"). Revenue is recognized when earned, while expenses and losses are recognized when incurred.

Cash

The Company maintains its bank accounts in high credit quality institutions. Balances at times may exceed federally insured limits. The company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant risk.

Revenue Recognition

The Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") has issued a comprehensive new revenue recognition standard that supersedes most existing revenue recognition guidance under U.S. GAAP FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606").

The core principle of ASC 606 is that a company should recognize revenue when it transfers goods or services to customers in amounts that reflect the consideration the Company expects to receive for those goods or services. ASC 606 prescribes a five-step process to accomplish this core principle, including:

- (i) Identification of the contract with the customer;
- (ii) Identification of the performance obligations in the contract;
- (iii) Determination of the transaction price;
- (iv) Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract;
- (v) Recognition of revenue when (or as) the performance obligation is satisfied.

ARCVIEW CAPITAL, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements

Although total revenues may not be materially impacted by the new guidance, management notes changes to the disclosures based on the additional requirements prescribed by ASC 606. These new disclosures include information regarding the judgments used in evaluating when and how revenue is recognized and disclosures related to contract assets and liabilities.

The Company provides advisory services in connection with the terms of its contracts with customers. Revenue for advisory arrangements is generally recognized based on the services provided or when the transaction is consummated. However, for certain contracts, revenue is recognized over time for advisory arrangements in which the performance obligations are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the customer. Retainers and other fees received from customers prior to recognizing revenue would be reflected as contract liabilities (deferred revenue in the statement of financial condition).

Income Taxes

As a limited liability company, U.S. Federal tax law provides that the Company's taxable income or loss is allocated to its member in accordance with the operating agreement, whereby the Company is not subject to income tax. Therefore, no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

The Company applies ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes. A component of this standard prescribes a recognition and measurement threshold of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. There was no material impact on the Company's financial position or operations as a result of the application of this standard. The Company's policy is to recognize interest and penalties associated with tax positions under this standard as a component of income tax expense, and none were recognized as there was no material impact of the overall application of this standard.

Use of Estimates

The process of preparing financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Such estimates primarily relate to transactions in process and events as of the date of the financial statements. Accordingly, upon completion, actual results may differ from estimated amounts.

2. Indemnification

In the normal course of its business, the Company indemnifies and guarantees certain service providers against specified potential losses in connection with their acting as an agent of, or providing services to, the Company. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the Company could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated. However, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for these indemnifications.

The Company provides representations and warranties to counterparties in connection with a variety of commercial transactions and occasionally indemnifies them against potential losses caused by the breach of those representations and warranties. These indemnifications generally are standard contractual terms and are entered into in the normal course of business. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the Company could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated. However, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for these indemnifications.

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2020, the Company had net capital of $6,347 which was $1,347 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio percentage was 202.65%.

4. COVID-19

In March 2020, the World Health Organization has declared COVID-19 to constitute a "Public Health Emergency of International Concern." This pandemic has disrupted economic markets and the economic impact, duration, and spread of the COVID-19 virus remains uncertain at this time. This may have an effect on the Company's business, but it cannot be estimated at this time.

5. Subsequent Events

Events of the Company subsequent to December 31, 2020 have been evaluated through March 25, 2021 which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued, for the purpose of identifying events that would require recording or disclosures in the financial statements in the year ended December 31, 2020. No subsequent events were identified that require disclosure.

Exemption Report Review

To the Members of:
Arcview Capital, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, on which Arcview Capital, LLC identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. ~15c3-3 under which Arcview Capital, LLC claimed no obligations under 17 C.F.R. ~240.15c3-3. Arcview Capital, LLC stated that Arcview Capital, LLC had no obligations throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Arcview Capital, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Arcview Capital, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph 17 C.F.R. of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Management Report Regarding Exemption from Rule 15c3-3

Arcview Capital, LLC, Inc. (the “Company”) is a registered broker-dealer subject to Rule 17a-5 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5, “Reports to be made by certain brokers and dealers”). This Exemption Report was prepared as required by 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5(d)(1) and (4). To the best of its knowledge and belief, the Company confirms the following:

- (1) The Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 under the provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 (k)(2)(i)
- (2) The Company met the identified exemption provisions in 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3(k)(2)(i) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

Arcview Capital, LLC, Inc.

I, Philip Ciantro, swear (or affirm) that, to my best knowledge and belief, this Exemption Report is true and correct.
