Rapid Execution Services, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2020

1. Organization and Business

Rapid Execution Services, LLC (the “Firm”, “Company” or “RapidEx”) is a broker-dealer that is exclusively a member of FINRA, its Designated Examining Authority (“DEA”). The Firm is approved to only provide value-added services to broker dealers in exchange for transaction-based compensation. Therefore, it does not conduct any proprietary or other trading activities or execution services. The Firm was formed as a Limited Liability Company under Illinois law on May 19, 2014. The Firm does not hold customer funds or safe keep any customer securities as defined in SEA Rule 15c3-3. Further, the Firm maintains no securities, clearing, error or any type of account with any broker dealer.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Securities Valuation and Revenue Recognition: The Firm does not trade or hold any securities, and, therefore does not have any reason to book or otherwise value them or have any corresponding income and expenses to record.

Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with United States Generally Accepted Accounting Principals (“US GAAP”) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Income Taxes: The Firm has elected to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter K of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal income taxes as the taxable income or loss of the Firm is included in the respective income tax returns of its members.

In accordance with US GAAP, the Firm is required to determine whether its tax positions are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, based on the technical merits of the position. Generally, the Firm is subject to income tax examinations by major taxing authorities for 2017-2020. Based on its analysis, there were no tax positions identified by management which did not meet the “more likely than not” standard as and for the year ended December 31, 2020.

Rapid Execution Services, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2020

Cash and Cash Equivalents: The Company considers cash deposits in a business checking account to be cash equivalents.

Leases: The Company did not have any leases that had an initial term greater than twelve months, consequently, the Company has not recorded a right of use asset and corresponding lease liability under the FASB ASC 842 guidelines.

3. Revenue Recognition

The Company has adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Update 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASU 2014-09"). The Company considers revenue to be generated when the Company satisfies a performance obligation. Revenue is considered earned when a) Evidence of an arrangement exists; b) The fee is fixed or able to be determinable; c) Performance has occurred; d) Collectability is reasonably assured. The Company believes the performance obligation is satisfied when the services are performed, and the commissions are earned by the executing broker. For the year 2020 the Company booked $302,764 in revenue. The firm also booked $535 in cash back rewards from credit card incentives.

4. Clearing Agreement

The Firm maintains no accounts of any sort with any broker dealer.

5. Credit Concentration

The Firm's primary allowable asset permitted to qualify as regulatory net capital pursuant to SEA Rule 15c3-1 is cash maintained in business checking accounts at the Wheaton Bank & Trust. Management does not consider any credit risk associated with this account to be significant.

6. Receivable from Broker Dealer(s)

Generally, receivables from an executing broker dealer are exclusively commissions owed to the Firm pursuant to a Commission Sharing Agreement ("CSA"). They are invoiced the month following when the execution services were performed and not payable until the client for which the execution serves were performed has paid the commissions owed for those services to the executing broker. There were none as of December 31, 2020.

Rapid Execution Services, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2020

7. Off-Balance Sheet Risk

The Firm has no off-balance sheet risk. It has no obligations or credit risk from any financial instruments and all of its cash balances are maintained in a checking account at a US bank in amounts below the federally insured limits. It maintains cash balances substantially in excess of any amounts it may owe to its vendors and the Firm has no creditors.

8. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEA Rule 15c3-1). Under this rule, the Company is required to maintain “net capital” equivalent to $5,000 or 6 2/3% of “aggregate indebtedness”, whichever is greater, as these terms are defined. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness change from day to day, but at December 31, 2020 the Company had net capital and a net capital requirement of $86,409 and $5,000, respectively. The net capital rule may effectively restrict the payment of member distributions.

9. Customer Protection Requirements

The Firm does not claim any exemption under SEA Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i), but relies on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 as the Firm’s business activities are limited to value-added services to broker dealers.

10. Fair Value Disclosures

ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures require enhanced disclosures about investments that are measured and reported at fair value. Fair value is defined as the price would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Since the Firm’s only asset that qualifies as permitted regulatory is cash maintained in a business checking account, there are no required Fair Value Disclosure Statements.

Rapid Execution Services, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2020

11. Guarantees

Accounting Standards Codification Topic 460, Guarantees, requires the Firm to disclose information about its obligations under certain guarantee arrangements. ASC defines guarantees as contracts and indemnification agreements that contingently require a guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on changes in an underlying (such as interest or foreign exchange rate, security or commodity price, an index or the occurrence or nonoccurrence of a specified event) related to an assets, liability or equity security of a guaranteed party. This guidance also defines guarantees as contracts that contingently require the guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on another entity's failure to perform under an agreement, as well as indirect guarantees of the indebtedness of others. The Firm did not enter into any guarantee arrangements during the year ended December 31, 2020.

12. Commitments

The Firm operates out of an "office hotel" pursuant to a month-to-month office agreement with Regus Management Group, LLC. The firm did not have a lease arrangement in 2020.

The firm did enter into an option of exclusivity to sell the Broker Dealer for a $10,000, non-refundable deposit, which is reflected on the liability side.

13. Subsequent Events

The Firm's management has evaluated events and transactions through February 22, 2021, the date these financial statements were issued. The company that has the option to buy the Firm has not acted on the option as of this date. There were no other material events requiring disclosure in the Firm's financial statements.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Members of Rapid Execution Services, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Rule 15c3-3 Exemption Report, in which (1) Rapid Execution Services, LLC (the "Company") stated that the Company does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3, and (2) the Company is filing this Exemption Report relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. §240-17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to value-added services to broker dealers and the Company (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, (other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of Rule 15c2-4 and/or funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company; (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 without exception.

The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, therefore, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the Company's business activities contemplated by Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. §240-17a-5, and related SEC Staff Frequently Asked Questions.
