Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Maplewood Investments, Inc. (the "Company") is a broker-dealer in securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company operates under SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii), which provides that all the funds and securities belonging to the Company's customers would be handled by a clearing broker-dealer. The Company's customers consist primarily of individuals located in Texas.

Securities transactions (and related commission revenue and expense) are recorded on trade date basis.

Securities owned and securities sold, not yet purchased, are carried at fair market value and securities owned not readily marketable are carried at fair value as determined by management of the Company. The increase or decrease in net unrealized appreciation or depreciation of securities is credited or charged to operations. The Company's securities are being held by the clearing broker/dealer. Should the clearing broker/dealer fail to deliver the securities to the Company, the Company may be required to purchase identical securities on the open market.

Receivables from broker/dealers and clearing organizations are generally collected in full in the month following their accrual. As such, management has not recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts on these receivables. The Company advances funds to its registered representatives as determined necessary by management. The advances are generally recouped upon the following commission payment cycle. Management records an allowance for bad debts based on a collectability review of specific accounts. Any receivables deemed uncollectible are written off against the allowance. The Company had receivables of $63,536 as of September 30, 2021 all of which were collected.

The Company follows the guidance in FASB ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which requires that an entity recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance requires an entity to follow a five-step model to (a) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfied a performance obligation. In determining the transaction price, an entity may include variable consideration only to the extent that it is probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognized would not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved.

The economic factors that affect the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows are general conditions in the United States economy and capital markets.

Management Fees

The Company's affiliate provides investment advisory services on a daily basis. The Company believes the performance obligation for providing advisory services is satisfied over time because the customer is receiving and consuming the benefits as they are provided by the Company. Fee arrangements are based on a percentage applied to the customer's assets under management. Fees are received monthly and are recognized as revenue at that time as they relate specifically to the services provided in that period, which are distinct from the services provided in other periods.

Securities Commission

Commission revenue is generally recognized at a point in time upon delivery of contracted services based on a predefined contractual amount on a trade date for a trade execution services based on providing market prices and Internal and regulatory guidelines. Commission revenue consists of the sale of equity and fixed income securities and Unit investment trusts.

Mutual Funds, Insurance and Annuity Products

The Company earns revenue for selling affiliated and unaffiliated mutual funds, fixed variable annuities and insurance products. The performance obligation is satisfied at the time of each individual sale. A portion of the revenue is based on a fixed rate applied, as a percentage, to amounts invested at the time of sale. The remaining revenue is recognized over the time the client owns the investment or holds the contract and is generally earned based on a fixed rate applied, as a percentage, to the net asset value of the fund, or the value of insurance policy or annuity contract. The ongoing revenue is not recognized at the time of sale because it is variably constrained due to factors outside the Company's control including market volatility and client behavior (such as how long client hold their investment, insurance policy or annuity contract). The revenue will not be recognized until it is probably that a significant reversal will not occur.

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation on office equipment and furniture is computed using an accelerated method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Depreciation expense for the year ended September 30, 2021 was $5,492 and is reflected in occupancy and equipment costs.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due. The provision for federal income taxes differs from the expected amount using statutory rates because certain expenses included in the determination of net income are non-deductible for tax reporting purposes.

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with the Income Taxes Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC"). Deferred tax assets and liabilities arising from temporary differences between book and tax basis are recognized using the enacted statutory tax rates and laws that will be in effect when such differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are recognized for temporary differences that will result in deductible amounts in future years. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for temporary differences that will result in taxable income in future years. In the case of deferred tax assets; a reduction in deferred tax assets is recorded if it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax asset will not be realized. Any interest or penalties associated with income taxes would be included as a component of income tax expense in the period in which the assessment arises.

Management evaluates income tax positions based on whether it is more likely than not that the positions taken will be sustained on examination. Uncertain tax positions are reduced by a liability for a contingent loss that is recorded either when the threshold is no longer met or when it becomes probable that a payment will be made to the taxing authority.

Notes to Financial Statements
September 30, 2021

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued

For purposes of reporting cash flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments with original maturities of less than ninety days that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

Note 2 - Fair Value Disclosures

The Company uses various methods including market, income, and cost approaches. Based on these approaches, the Company often utilizes certain assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk and or the risks inherent in the inputs to the valuation technique.

These inputs can be readily observable, market corroborated, or generally unobservable inputs. The Company utilizes valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. Based on the observability of the inputs used in the valuation techniques, the Company is required to provide the following information according to the fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy ranks the quality and reliability of the information used to determine fair values. Financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value will be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1 - Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in active exchange markets, such as the New York Stock Exchange. Level 1 also includes money market funds and U.S. Treasury and federal agency securities and federal agency mortgage-backed securities, which are traded by dealers or brokers in active markets. Valuations are obtained from readily available pricing sources for market transactions involving identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in less active dealer or broker markets. Valuations are obtained from third party pricing services for identical or similar assets or liabilities.

Level 3 - Valuations for assets and liabilities that are derived from other valuation methodologies, including option pricing models, discounted cash flow models and similar techniques, and not based on market exchange, dealer, or broker traded transactions. Level 3 valuations incorporate certain assumptions and projections in determining the fair value assigned to such assets or liabilities.

For the year ended September 30, 2021, the application of valuation techniques applied to similar assets and liabilities has been consistent. The fair value of all securities owned are deemed to be Level 1 and Level 2 investments at September 30, 2021, and during the period then ended.

The following table presents the assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the fair value hierarchy as reported on the statement of financial condition at September 30, 2021. As required by FASB ASC Topic 820, financial assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Note 3 - Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined under such provisions. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At September 30, 2021, the Company had net capital of approximately $1,248,287 and net capital requirements of $100,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .47 to 1. The Securities and Exchange Commission permits a ratio of no greater than 15 to 1.

Note 4 - Lease Commitments

The Company determines if the arrangement is a lease at inception. The Company made an accounting policy election to not capitalize leases with an initial term of 12 months or less. The right of use (ROU) asset and corresponding liability are reported separately on the Statement of Financial Condition. The ROU asset represents the right to use the underlying asset for the lease term and the lease liability represents the obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Any future operating lease ROU assets and liabilities will be recognized at commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term. The operating lease did not provide an implicit rate, we used our incremental borrowing rate based on the estimated rate of interest for collateralized borrowing over a similar term of the lease payments at commencement date. The Company recognizes rent expense on a straight line basis and amortizes the associated lease liability over the lease.

The Company leases office space under a long-term non-cancelable lease. Minimum lease payments under the lease at September 30, 2021 are as follows:

September 30, 2022	$ 71,034
September 30, 2023	$ 72,590

	$ 185,776

Rental expense for the year ended September 30, 2021 was $79,420 and is reflected in occupancy and equipment costs.

Note 5 - Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of a deferred tax asset in the amount of $14,533 included in other assets. Management assessed the recoverability of NOLs and determined no valuation allowance was required for the year ended September 30, 2021. The provision for federal income taxes differs from the expected amount using statutory rates because certain expenses included in the determination of income are non-deductible for tax reporting purposes.

Any potential interest and penalty associated with a tax contingency, should one arise, would be included as a component of income tax expense in the period in which the assessment arises.

The Company's federal and state income tax returns are subject to examination over various statutes of limitations generally ranging from three to five years.

Note 6 - Profit Sharing Plan

The Company has a qualified profit sharing plan covering all eligible employees, as defined, with a specified period of service. Employer contributions to the plan are at the discretion of the Board of Directors, and the plan may be amended or terminated at any time. Contributions of $164,748 were paid to the plan for the year ended September 30, 2021.

Note 7 - Related Party Transactions

Note 10 - Clearing Deposit

The Company conducts substantially all business through its primary clearing firm (National Financial Services, LLC), which settles all trades for the Company, on a fully disclosed basis, on behalf of its customers. Under its agreement with National Financial Services, LLC, the Company is required to maintain a clearing deposit of $100,000, which is included on the statement of financial condition as receivable from broker-dealers and clearing organizations.

Note 11 - Commitment and Contingencies

The Company has entered into secondary clearing agreements with other FINRA member firms ("correspondents"), which provides that all the funds and securities belonging to the correspondents' customers are subject to the terms of the Company's clearing agreement.

This clause relates to instances where the customers of the Company and its correspondents fail to settle security transactions. Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Shareholders and Board of Directors of Maplewood Investments, Inc.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which Maplewood Investments, Inc. (the Company) stated that:

1. The Company identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: Paragraph (k)(2)(ii) (the exemption provisions), and the Company stated that it met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception;
2. The Company is also filing this Exemption Report because the Company's other business activities contemplated by Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 are limited to acting as a mutual fund retailer acting as a broker or dealer selling variable life insurance or annuities, solicitor of time deposits in a financial institution and providing investment advisory services; and
3. The Company (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers (other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c2-4 and/or funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription-way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company); (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry proprietary accounts of broker-dealers (as defined in 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3), throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

The Company's management is responsible for its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions and that the Company's other business activities were limited to acting as a mutual fund retailer, acting as a broker or dealer selling variable life insurance or annuities, solicitor of time deposits in a financial institution and providing investment advisory services and (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers (other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c2-4 and/or funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription-way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company); (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry proprietary accounts of broker-dealers (as defined in 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 and 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5.

Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion or conclusion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.
