Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Managing Directors of Marriott Securities, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Marriott Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2021, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the financial statement). In our opinion, the statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Marriott Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2021, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of Marriott Securities, LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on Marriott Securities, LLC's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to Marriott Securities, LLC in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Marriott Securities, LLC

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

Note 1—Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business: Marriott Securities, LLC (the Company) was formed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia as a single member limited liability company owned by Marriott Management, LLC (the Parent). The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). The Company brokers private placements of securities and offers merger and acquisition advisory services.

The Company is governed by the Operating Agreement of Marriott Securities, LLC. According to the terms of the Operating Agreement, after the initial contributions are made, the member has no further obligation to contribute additional amounts of capital to the Company. In addition, the liability of the member of the Company is limited to the member's equity.

A summary of the Company's significant accounting policies is as follows:

Basis of accounting: The Company's financial statement is prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (US GAAP).

Cash and cash equivalents: The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Such amounts are valued at cost, which approximates fair value.

Income taxes: The Company is a single member limited liability company and is not a tax filing or paying entity for income tax purposes.

Use of estimates: The preparation of a financial statement in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2—Notes Receivable from Clients

Receivable from clients consist of amounts earned from providing consulting services. As of December 31, 2021, there is $29,854 in receivables from clients due to the company. This amount is included in other assets on the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2021.

The Company determines an allowance for doubtful accounts by regularly evaluating individual client notes receivables, underlying agreements, client financial condition and current economic conditions. No allowance for doubtful accounts is included on the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2021.

Marriott Securities, LLC

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

Note 3—Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash distributions paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. As of December 31, 2021, the Company had net capital and required net capital of $653,312 and $5,000, respectively. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio as of December 31, 2021 was .05 to 1.

Note 4—Related Party Transactions

The Company participates in a Management Services Agreement with Marriott & Co., LLC, a limited liability company wholly owned by Marriott Management, LLC. Under the terms of this agreement, the Company is provided with office space, furnishings, administrative personnel, and access to the equipment and supplies necessary to operate the business on a cost-reimbursement basis. The expenses incurred by Marriott & Co., LLC were allocated at cost, in proportion to the Company's utilization. $32,889 is due from Marriott & Co., LLC as of December 31, 2021.

Note 5—Exemption from Rule 15c3-3

The Company is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. The Company does not hold customer's cash or securities and therefore, has no obligations under SEC Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934.

Note 6—Subsequent Events

The World Health Organization has declared the outbreak of COVID-19, a novel strain of coronavirus, a pandemic. The coronavirus outbreak is disrupting supply chains and affecting production and sales across a range of industries. The extent of the impact of the outbreak on the Company's operational and financial performance will depend on certain developments, including the duration and spread of the outbreak, impacts on the Company's employees and vendors, and governmental, regulatory, and private sector responses. The financial statements do not reflect any adjustments as a result of the subsequent increase in economic uncertainty.

In preparing these financial statements, the Company has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through February 25, 2022, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
