Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021

1. Description of Business

Harbor Funds Distributors, Inc. (the Company) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Harbor Capital Advisors, Inc. (Harbor Capital). The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company serves as the principal distributor of Harbor Funds, a series of publicly offered U.S. mutual funds, where Harbor Capital serves as the investment adviser. The Company's business activities may also include (1) Distributor for collective investment trusts ("CITs") and (2) Distributor on a best efforts basis for exchange traded funds ("ETFs"). The Company does not receive any revenue for services performed on behalf of CITs or ETFs.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company's cash consists of deposits with banks and considers all short-term investments with a maturity of three months or less at the date of purchase and investments in money market mutual funds to be cash equivalents. Money market mutual funds are carried at market value based on the reported net asset value per share of the respective fund. U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) require the Company to disclose the level of its investments (i.e. Level 1, 2, or 3) based on the observability of inputs into the valuation. Accordingly, the investment in the Harbor Money Market Fund is a Level 1 investment. At December 31, 2021, cash and cash equivalents included $4,578,612 invested in the Harbor Money Market Fund.

Due To Affiliates

The Company's due to affiliates balance is primarily related to amounts owed to Harbor Capital for certain direct expenses paid on the Company's behalf.

Harbor Funds Distributors, Inc.

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Revenue Recognition and Related Expenses

12b-1 fee revenue is earned from the Administrative and Investor share classes of the Harbor Funds to cover allowable distribution, marketing, recordkeeping and shareholder servicing expenses. The Company has one performance obligation, as distribution, marketing, recordkeeping and shareholder servicing expenses are not separately identifiable in the Company's distribution agreement and, therefore, not distinct. The performance obligation is satisfied when a shareholder makes an investment into the Administrative or Investor share classes of the Harbor Funds. The 12b-1 fees are variable as they are calculated using average daily net assets of the Harbor Funds in periods after the initial investment. Due to this constraint, the Company recognizes 12b-1 fees when the net asset values of the Harbor Funds are known and are recognized over time. Consequently, 12b-1 fees recognized in the current period primarily relate to performance obligations that were satisfied in prior periods.

The fee is 25 basis points on average daily net assets in the Administrative and Investor share classes of Harbor Funds, where applicable.

Substantially all of the 12b-1 fees earned from Harbor Funds are paid to third-party broker-dealers who provide distribution, shareholder servicing, and/or sub-accounting and record-keeping services to Harbor Funds' shareholders. Payments to third-party broker-dealers are subject to contractual rates agreed to by the Company and the third-party broker-dealers. Such expenses are recognized when incurred. The Company presents its 12b-1 fees on a gross basis in the statement of operations as it is deemed to be the principal in such transactions.

Dividend income on money market mutual fund investments is recorded when earned.

Income Taxes

The consolidated results of Harbor Capital, including those of the Company, are included in the consolidated federal income tax return of OCE U.S. Holding, Inc. (OCE USHI), formerly known as RUSHI, the parent of Harbor Capital, along with certain other direct subsidiaries of OCE USHI. Harbor Capital and OCE USHI have entered into a tax-sharing agreement whereby Harbor Capital recognizes tax expense based on the contribution of Harbor Capital to the consolidated taxable income or loss of OCE USHI. Amounts accrued are remitted to OCE USHI periodically. For financial reporting purposes, the Company calculates its income tax provision or benefit on a stand-alone basis consistent with the terms of the tax-sharing agreement.

Harbor Funds Distributors, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

State income tax returns are filed by the Company on a stand-alone basis or on a unitary basis with Harbor Capital depending upon the rules in each state a return is filed.

Deferred income taxes are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax basis of assets and liabilities and are measured using the tax rates and laws that are expected to be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management of the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results may differ from those estimates, at which time the Company would revise its estimates accordingly.

3. Related Parties

During the year, the Company earned 12b-1 fees of $6,631,489 from Harbor Funds, of which $537,783 is receivable at December 31, 2021. In addition, the Company earned $1,609 of dividend income from the Harbor Money Market Fund.

The Company has been party to an expense-sharing agreement with Harbor Capital since 2004. The agreement calls for the Company to pay direct expenditures (regulatory filing fees, professional fees, insurance, memberships, etc.) related to the Company. Operating expenses of the Company (postage, telephone, photocopy, salaries of Harbor Capital employees who perform work for the Company, etc.) are paid by Harbor Capital. Harbor Capital is liable for all such expense amounts paid for by Harbor Capital, and such expenses will not be apportioned back to the Company at any time. Such expenses are not reflected in the accompanying financial statements.

The Company made federal tax payments of $1,000 to OCE USHI during 2021 and has recorded a current federal income tax receivable from OCE USHI of $14,000 as of December 31, 2021, under the terms of its tax-sharing agreement.

Harbor Funds Distributors, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021

4. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule, SEC Rule 15c3-1 ("the Rule"), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital of $25,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregated indebtedness, and requires that the ratio of aggregated indebtedness to net capital, both as defined in the Rule, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The Rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2021, the Company's minimum required net capital was $41,447, resulting in the Company having excess net capital of $3,847,657 under the Rule. At December 31, 2021, the Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.16 to 1.

5. Income Taxes

The deferred tax asset of $14,000 relates to accrued professional fees.

The effective income tax rate of 24.5% consists of 21% statutory US federal income tax rate and 3.5% state income tax rate (net of federal benefit) in 2021. The Company evaluated tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are more-likely-than-not to be sustained by the applicable tax authority. No tax expense related to uncertain tax positions was recorded in 2021 and no adjustments were made to prior periods. Further, the Company does not believe it reasonably possible that any material uncertain tax positions will be recorded within the next 12 months.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions within the statements of operations. Prior tax years remain subject to examination by various state, local and federal tax authorities in the U.S.

6. Subsequent Events

The Company determined that no subsequent events or transactions have occurred through February 14, 2022, the date the financial statements were issued, that would have materially affected the financial statements or disclosures as of December 31, 2021.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors
Harbor Funds Distributors, Inc.:

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and with the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) Series 600 Rules, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Certification of Exclusion From Membership (Form SIPC-3) of Harbor Funds Distributors, Inc. (the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2021. The Company's management is responsible for its Form SIPC-3 and for its compliance with the applicable instructions on Form SIPC-3.

Management of the Company has agreed to and acknowledged that the procedures performed are appropriate to meet the intended purpose of assisting you and the SIPC in evaluating the Company's compliance with the exclusion requirements from membership in SIPC under section 78ccc(a)(2)(A) of the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 during the year ended December 31, 2021 as noted on the accompanying Form SIPC-3. Additionally, the SIPC has agreed to and acknowledged that the procedures performed are appropriate for their intended purpose. This report may not be suitable for any other purpose. No other parties have agreed to or acknowledged the appropriateness of these procedures for the intended purpose or any other purpose.

The procedures performed may not address all the items of interest to a user of this report and may not meet the needs of all users of this report and, as such, users are responsible for determining whether the procedures performed are appropriate for their purposes. The sufficiency of these procedures for the intended purpose is solely the responsibility of the Company and we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the intended purpose or for any other purpose.

The procedures we performed and the associated findings are as follows:

1. Compared the Total Revenues amount included in the accompanying Schedule of Form SIPC-3 Revenues prepared by the Company for the year ended December 31, 2021 to the total revenues in the Company's audited financial statements included in the Annual Audited Report Form X-17A-5 Part III for the year ended December 31, 2021, and noted a difference of $1,609. This difference related to dividend income, which the Company has indicated is not revenue from the distribution of shares of registered open end investment companies or unit investment trusts.
2. Compared the amount in each revenue classification reported in the accompanying Schedule of Form SIPC-3 Revenues prepared by the Company for the year ended December 31, 2021 to supporting schedules and working papers, and noted no differences; and
3. Recalculated the arithmetical accuracy of the Total Revenues amount reflected in the Schedule of Form SIPC-3 Revenues prepared by the Company for the year ended December 31, 2021 and in the related schedules and working papers, and noted no differences.

We were engaged by the Company to perform this agreed-upon procedures engagement and conducted our engagement in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). We were not engaged to, and did not, conduct an examination or a review engagement, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion or conclusion, respectively, on the Company's Form SIPC-3 and for its compliance with the applicable instructions on Form SIPC-3 for the year ended December 31, 2021. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion or conclusion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements related to our agreed-upon procedures engagement.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Company and the SIPC and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
