Any records administered by or on behalf of the company in the regular course of its business, including its membership ledger, books of account, and minute books, may be maintained on any information storage device, method, or one or more electronic networks or databases (including one or more distributed electronic networks or databases); provided that the records so kept can be converted into clearly legible paper form within a reasonable time, and, with respect to the membership ledger, the records so kept comply with the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act. The company shall so convert any records so kept upon the request of any person entitled to inspect such records pursuant to applicable law.

ARTICLE II
The LLC Member

2.1 The Sole LLC Member. The “LLC Member” shall mean any person who maintains a direct ownership interest in the company. The sole LLC Member of the company shall be Miami International Holdings, Inc.

2.2 Annual Meeting; Election of Directors and Other Matters. The annual meeting of the LLC Member shall be held at such place and time as determined by the Board of Directors for the purpose of electing Directors, and for conducting such other business as may properly come before the meeting. Written notice of the annual meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to the LLC Member not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting.

2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the LLC Member, for any purpose or purposes, may be called by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer or the President, and shall be called by the Secretary at the request in writing of the LLC Member. Written notice of a special meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given to the LLC Member not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting. Business transacted at any special meeting of the LLC Member shall be limited to the purpose(s) stated in the notice of the meeting.

2.4 Action in Lieu of Meeting. Any action upon which a vote of the LLC Member is required or permitted, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the LLC Member.

ARTICLE III Board of Directors

3.1 General Powers. The business and affairs of the company shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who may exercise all of the powers of the company except as otherwise provided by law or the Certificate of Formation. In the event of a vacancy in the Board of Directors, the remaining directors, except as otherwise provided by law, may exercise the powers of the full Board of Directors until the vacancy is filled.

3.2 Number and Term of Office. The number of directors shall initially be one (1) and thereafter shall be fixed from time to time exclusively by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of authorized directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board for adoption). All directors shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which elected and until their respective successors are elected, except in the case of the death, resignation or removal of any director.

3.3 Vacancies and Newly Created Directorships. Newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors or any vacancies in the Board of Directors resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or other cause (other than removal from office by a vote of the LLC Member) may be filled only by a majority vote of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director, and directors so chosen shall hold office for a term expiring at the next annual meeting of the LLC Member. No decrease in the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

3.4 Resignation. Any director may resign by delivering notice in writing or by electronic transmission to the Chief Executive Officer, Chairman of the Board or Secretary. Such resignation shall be effective upon receipt unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the happening of some other event.

3.5 Removal. Any director, or the entire Board of Directors, may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by the LLC Member. Vacancies in the Board of Directors resulting from such removal may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, by the sole remaining director, or by the LLC Member at the next annual meeting or at a special meeting called in accordance with Section 2.3 above. Directors so chosen shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the LLC Member.

3.6 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and place, either within or without the State of Delaware, as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; provided that any director who is absent when such a determination is made shall be given notice of the determination. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors may be held without notice immediately after and at the same place as the annual meeting of the LLC Member.

3.7 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the Secretary or any director and may be held at any time and place, within or without the State of Delaware.

3.8 Notice of Special Meetings. Notice of any special meeting of directors shall be given to each director by the Secretary or by the officer or one of the directors calling the meeting. Notice shall be duly given to each director by (i) giving notice to such director in person or by telephone, electronic transmission or voice message system at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting, (ii) sending a facsimile, or delivering written notice by hand, to his last known business or home address at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting, or (iii) mailing written notice to his last known business or home address at least three days in advance of the meeting. A notice or waiver of notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors need not specify the purposes of the meeting. Unless otherwise indicated in the notice thereof, any and all business may be transacted at a special meeting.

3.9 Participation in Meetings by Telephone Conference Calls or Other Methods of Communication. Directors or any members of any committee designated by the directors may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

3.10 Quorum. A majority of the total number of directors then in office shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors; provided that in the event that less than a majority of the total authorized directors are then serving, then a majority of the directors then serving, shall constitute a quorum. In the event one or more of the directors shall be disqualified to vote at any meeting, then the required quorum shall be reduced by one for each such director so disqualified; provided, however, that in no case shall less than 1/3 of the number of all authorized directors so fixed constitute a quorum. In the absence of a quorum at any such meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present. Interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or at a meeting of a committee which authorizes a particular contract or transaction.

3.11 Action at Meeting. At any meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present, the vote of a majority of those present shall be sufficient to take any action, unless a different vote is specified by law, the Certificate of Formation, the LLC Agreement or these By-Laws.

3.12 Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board or committee, as the case may be, consent to the action in writing or by electronic transmission, and the writings or electronic transmissions are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee. Such filing shall be in paper form if the minutes are maintained in paper form and shall be in electronic form if the minutes are maintained in electronic form.

3.13 Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the company, with such lawfully delegated powers and duties as it therefor confers, to serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members of the committee present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he, she or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors and subject to the provisions of the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the company and may authorize the seal of the company to be affixed to all papers which may require it. Each such committee shall keep minutes and make such reports as the Board of Directors may from time to time request. Except as the Board of Directors may otherwise determine, any committee may make rules for the conduct of its business, but unless otherwise provided by such rules, its business shall be conducted as nearly as possible in the same manner as is provided in these By-Laws for the Board of Directors.

3.14 Compensation of Directors. Directors may be paid such compensation for their services and such reimbursement for expenses of attendance at meetings as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the company or any of its parent or subsidiary companies in any other capacity and receiving compensation for such service.

3.15 Nomination of Director Candidates. Nominations for the election of Directors may be made by (i) the Board of Directors or a duly authorized committee thereof or (ii) the LLC Member.

ARTICLE IV Officers

4.1 Enumeration. The officers of the company shall consist of a Chief Executive Officer, a Chief Financial Officer, a Secretary and such other officers with such other titles as the Board of Directors shall determine, including, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, a Chairman of the Board. The Board of Directors may appoint such other officers as it may deem appropriate.

4.5 Resignation and Removal. Any officer may resign by delivering his written resignation to the company at its principal office or to the Chief Executive Officer or Secretary. Such resignation shall be effective upon receipt unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the happening of some other event. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the Board of Directors.

4.6 Chairman of the Board. The Board of Directors may appoint a Chairman of the Board. If the Board of Directors appoints a Chairman of the Board, he or she shall perform such duties and possess such powers as are assigned to him by the Board of Directors. Unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors, if the Chairman of the Board is a director, he or she shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors.

4.7 Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer shall, subject to the direction of the Board of Directors, have responsibility for the general management of the business and affairs of the company and shall perform all duties and have all powers which are commonly incident to the office of Chief Executive Officer, or which are delegated to him or her by the Board of Directors. Unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, if he or she is a director, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. The Chief Executive Officer shall ensure that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. He or she shall have power to sign contracts and other instruments of the company which are authorized and shall have general supervision and direction of all of the other officers, employees and agents of the company other than the Chairman of the Board. The Chief Executive Officer shall perform such other duties and shall have such other powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe.

In addition, the Secretary shall perform such duties and have such powers as are incident to the office of the Secretary, including, without limitation, the duty and power to give notices of all meetings of the LLC Member and special meetings of the Board of Directors, to keep a record of the proceedings of all meetings of the LLC Member and the Board of Directors, to maintain a membership ledger and prepare lists of members and their addresses as required, to be custodian of corporate records and the company seal and to affix and attest to the same on documents.

4.9 Chief Financial Officer. The Chief Financial Officer shall perform such duties and have such powers as are incident to the office of the Chief Financial Officer, including without limitation, the duty and power to keep and be responsible for all funds and securities of the company, to maintain the financial records of the company, to deposit funds of the company in depositories as authorized, to disburse such funds as authorized, to make proper accounts of such funds, and to render as required by the Board of Directors accounts of all such transactions and of the financial condition of the company.

4.10 Salaries. Officers of the company shall be entitled to such salaries, compensation or reimbursement as shall be fixed or allowed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

4.11 Delegation of Authority. The Board of Directors may from time to time delegate the powers or duties of any officer to any other officers or agents, notwithstanding any provision hereof.

ARTICLE V General Provisions

5.1 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the company shall be as fixed by the Board of Directors.

5.2 Company Seal. The company seal, if any, shall be in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

5.3 Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice whatsoever is required to be given by law, by the Certificate of Formation or by these By-Laws, a waiver of such notice either in writing signed by the person entitled to such notice or such person's duly authorized attorney, or by electronic transmission or any other method permitted under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, whether before, at or after the time stated in such waiver, or the appearance of such person or persons at such meeting in person or by proxy, shall be deemed equivalent to such notice.

5.4 Actions with Respect to Securities of Other Corporations. Except as the Board of Directors may otherwise designate, the Chief Executive Officer or any officer of the company authorized by the Chief Executive Officer shall have the power to vote and otherwise act on behalf of the company, in person or proxy, and may waive notice of, and act as, or appoint any person or persons to act as, proxy or attorney-in-fact to this company (with or without power of substitution) at any meeting of stockholders or shareholders (or with respect to any action of stockholders) of any other corporation or organization, the securities of which may be held by this company and otherwise to exercise any and all rights and powers which this company may possess by reason of this company's ownership of securities in such other corporation or other organization.

5.5 Evidence of Authority. A certificate by the Secretary as to any action taken by the LLC Member, directors, a committee or any officer or representative of the company shall as to all persons who rely on the certificate in good faith be conclusive evidence of such action.

5.7 LLC Agreement. All references in these By-Laws to the LLC Agreement shall be deemed to refer to the Limited Liability Company Agreement of the company as amended and in effect from time to time. In the event of any inconsistency between the LLC Agreement and these By-Laws, the provision of the LLC Agreement shall control.

5.8 Severability. Any determination that any provision of these By-Laws is for any reason inapplicable, illegal or ineffective shall not affect or invalidate any other provision of these By-Laws.

5.9 Pronouns. All pronouns used in these By-Laws shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

Any such notice shall be addressed to such LLC Member, director, officer, employee or agent at his or her last known address as the same appears on the books of the company. The time when such notice shall be deemed to be given shall be the time such notice is received by such LLC Member, director, officer, employee or agent, or by any person accepting such notice on behalf of such person, if delivered by hand, facsimile, other electronic transmission or commercial courier service, or the time such notice is dispatched, if delivered through the mails.

5.11 Reliance Upon Books, Reports and Records. Each director, each member of any committee designated by the Board of Directors, and each officer of the company shall, in the performance of his duties, be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the books of account or other records of the company, including reports made to the company by any of its officers, by an independent certified public accountant, or by an appraiser selected with reasonable care.

5.12 Time Periods. 5.13 Facsimile Signatures and Electronic Transmission. In addition to the provisions for use of facsimile signatures elsewhere specifically authorized in these By-Laws, facsimile signatures or signature by electronic transmission (such as DocuSign) of any officer or director of the company may be used whenever and as authorized by the Board of Directors or a committee thereof.

ARTICLE VI Amendments

6.1 By LLC Member and Board of Directors. Except as is otherwise set forth in these By-Laws, these By-Laws may be altered, amended, or repealed, or new By-Laws may be adopted, (i) by the written consent of the LLC Member, or (ii) at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors by a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII
Indemnification of Directors and Officers

7.1 Right to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (each a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that he or she or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the company or is or was serving at the request of the company as a director or officer of another corporation, or as a controlling person of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer, or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the company to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the company to provide broader indemnification rights than said Act permitted the company to provide prior to such amendment) against all expenses, liability and loss reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in Section 7.2 of this Article VII, the company shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnity in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if (a) such indemnification is expressly required to be made by law, (b) the proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the company, (c) such indemnification is provided by the company, in its sole discretion, pursuant to the powers vested in the company under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, or (d) the proceeding (or part thereof) is brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under an indemnity agreement or any other statute or law or otherwise as required under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act. The rights hereunder shall be contract rights and shall include the right to be paid expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that, unless the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act then so prohibits, the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer of the company in his or her capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is tendered by such person while a director or officer, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the company of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it should be determined ultimately that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Section or otherwise.

7.2 Right of Claimant to Bring Suit. If a claim under Section 7.1 is not paid in full by the company within 90 days after a written claim has been received by the company, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the company to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if such suit is not frivolous or brought in bad faith, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking, if any, has been tendered to this company) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act for the company to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed. Neither the failure of the company (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or the LLC Member) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, nor an actual determination by the company (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel or the LLC Member) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

7.3 Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The company may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification, and to the advancement of related expenses, to any employee or agent of the company to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article VII with respect to the indemnification of and advancement of expenses to directors and officers of the company.

7.4 Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights conferred on any person in Sections 7.1 and 7.2 shall not be exclusive of any other right which such persons may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Formation, these By-Laws, LLC Agreement, vote of the LLC Member or disinterested directors or otherwise.

7.5 Indemnification Contracts. The Board of Directors is authorized to enter into a contract with any director, officer, employee or agent of the company, or any person serving at the request of the company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including employee benefit plans, providing for indemnification rights equivalent to or, if the Board of Directors so determines, greater than, those provided for in this Article VII.

7.6 Insurance. The company may maintain insurance to the extent reasonably available, at its expense, to protect itself and any such director, officer, employee or agent of the company or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any such expense, liability or loss, whether or not the company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act

7.7 Effect of Amendment. Any amendment, repeal or modification of any provision of this Article VII by the LLC Member and the directors of the company shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the company existing at the time of such amendment, repeal or modification.

Effective Date: December 9, 2022
