Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Member of
MarshBerry Capital, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of MarshBerry Capital, LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2022, and the related notes (collectively, the financial statement). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2012.

MarshBerry Capital, LLC

Notes to Financial Statement

December 31, 2022

1. Organization

MarshBerry Capital, LLC (the "Company") was formed in February 2011 and was incorporated in the state of Ohio. On November 24, 2021 the Company converted to a Limited Liability Company. It is a subsidiary of Marsh, Berry & Company, LLC. The Company is a registered broker dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") and received its FINRA approval for membership on July 18, 2012. The Company has agreed to limit its business to providing corporate finance consulting that may from time to time include consultation regarding mergers and acquisitions. The Company may be directly affected by general economic and market conditions, such as interest rates and other factors that may impact the ability of companies in the marketplace to successfully start and complete mergers and acquisitions.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following are the significant accounting policies followed by the Company:

Revenue Recognition - In accordance with ASU No. 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" ("ASC Topic 606") revenues from contracts with customers is recognized when, or as, the Company satisfies its performance obligations by transferring the promised services to the customers. A service is transferred to a customer when, or as, the customer obtains control of that service. A performance obligation may be satisfied at a point in time or over time. Revenue from a performance obligation satisfied at a point in time is recognized at the point in time that the Company determines the customer obtains control over the promised service. Revenue from a performance obligation satisfied over time is recognized by measuring the Company's progress in satisfying the performance obligation in a manner that depicts the transfer of the services to the customer. The amount of revenue recognized reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for those promised services (i.e., the "transaction price"). In determining the transaction price, the Company considers multiple factors, including the effects of variable consideration, if any.

Under ASC 606, the Company's advisory fees from investment banking engagements are recognized at a point in time when the related transaction is completed, as the performance obligation is to successfully broker a specific transaction.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - The Company considers its investments in financial instruments with original maturities of less than ninety days when issued to be cash equivalents.

Concentration of Credit Risks - The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, which at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk related to cash and cash equivalents.

Income taxes - The Company converted to a limited liability company in 2021. As a single member limited liability company, the Company does not incur any liability for federal or state income taxes because all income, deductions and credits are reportable by its member.

The Company recognizes and discloses uncertain tax positions in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). As of, and during the year ended December 31, 2022 the Company did not have a liability for unrecognized tax benefits and was subject to examinations by tax jurisdictions for the tax years 2019 through 2021.

December 31, 2022

Use of estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U. S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates and assumptions.

Subsequent events - Management has evaluated the impact of all subsequent events through, February XX, 2023, the date the financial statements were available to be issued and has determined that there were no subsequent events requiring disclosure in these financial statements.

3. Related Party Transactions

The Company has an expense sharing agreement with its sole stockholder under which it is allocated and charged on monthly basis. The agreement includes, but is not limited to, rent, personnel expenses, utilities, office supplies, computer information service fees, bookkeeping fees and expenses, office equipment expenses, marketing and promotional materials and miscellaneous administrative expenses. For the year ended December 31, 2022 the Company had allocated expenses totaling $5,904,424. Significant expenses among the allocated expenses included compensation and benefits $5,119,728 and rent expense of $369,892. At December 31, 2022 the Company owed the related company $30,967.

4. Concentration of Revenues

The Company performs corporate finance and investment banking activities. These activities generally involve a limited number of clients and transactions that have varying realization periods and result in fluctuating revenues.

5. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is a member of the FINRA and is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1). This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2022 the Company had net capital of $5,842,422 which was $5,833,042 in excess of its required net capital of $9,380. The Company's net capital ratio was 0.02 to 1.
