Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Member
Rewire Securities, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Rewire Securities, LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2022, and the related notes (collectively, the financial statement). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Use of estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates and assumptions.

Method of accounting – The Company has prepared its financial statements using the accrual basis of accounting. Its fiscal year will correspond with the calendar year, ending on December 31.

Subsequent events - Management has evaluated the impact of all subsequent events through January 20, 2023, the date the financial statements were available to be issued and has determined that there were no subsequent events requiring disclosure in these financial statements.

3. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, which at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk related to cash. For purposes of the statements of cash and cash flows, the company considers all cash on hand and on deposit with financial institutions to be cash.

4. Concentration of Revenues

The Company performs corporate finance and investment banking activities. These activities generally involve a limited number of clients and transactions that have varying realization periods and result in fluctuating revenues.

5. Property and Equipment, Net

Property and equipment	$3,921

6. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is a member of the FINRA and is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2022 the Company had net capital and capital requirements of $18,095 which was $13,095 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000.

7. Related party transactions

Minimum Tax Distributions – Pursuant to the Parent’s Operating Agreement, the Parent’s board of managers shall cause the Parent to make distributions to each member of the Parent. Such distributions shall aggregate an amount equal to at least fifty percent of each member’s anticipated distributive share of the Parent’s estimated taxable income for such quarter to the extent such income is attributable to allocation of net profits to such member. As net capital requirements permit, the Parent may call upon the Company to fund these obligations.

8. Operating Leases

On December 31, 2022, the Company has no operating leases. Rent expense for expired leases totaled $9,640 for the year ended December 31, 2022.

9. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company does not have any commitments, guarantees or contingencies. The Company is not aware of any threats or other circumstances that may lead to the assertion of a claim at a future date.
