Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Board of Directors
Huntleigh Securities Corporation
St. Louis, Missouri

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Huntleigh Securities Corporation (the "Company," a Missouri corporation) as of December 31, 2022, and the related notes and supplemental schedules (collectively referred to as the financial statement). In our opinion, the financial statement present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplemental Schedules

The information contained in pages 14-16 (collectively, "supplemental schedules") has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statement. The supplemental schedules are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental schedules reconcile to the financial statement or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental schedules.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

DECEMBER 31, 2022

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING & REPORTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

Huntleigh Securities Corporation (the "Company") was incorporated on May 12, 1977. The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). The Company clears security transactions on a fully disclosed basis through Wells Fargo Clearing Services, LLC (WFCS) pursuant to a contract, which expires on October 1, 2024.

Use of Estimates in Financial Statement Preparation

The preparation of the financial statement in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company's cash and cash equivalents are on deposit with a major domestic financial institution. At times, bank deposits may exceed federally insured limits.

Investments

Investments typically consist of stocks, bonds, money market, and other investments. The Company carries its investments at fair value. Securities are bought and held principally as inventory for the purpose of sales in the near term.

Securities owned are valued at fair value as determined by management in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") ASU 2016-01 (see Note 4). The resulting differences between cost and estimated fair value are reflected in current period earnings. Fair values are generally based on prices from independent sources, such as listed market prices or broker or dealer price quotations.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation. Expenditures for maintenance, repairs and minor renewals are charged to operations as incurred; expenditures for betterments and major renewals are charged to the property and equipment accounts.

Depreciation of equipment is computed using accelerated methods over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Amortization of leasehold improvements is provided on a straight-line basis over the lesser of the terms of the related lease or the useful lives of the assets.

When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related accumulated depreciation/amortization is removed from the accounts; resulting gains or losses are included in the statement of income.

Leases

The Company recognizes and measures its leases in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) ASC 842, Leases. The Company is a lessee in several noncancelable operating leases for office space, computers and other office equipment. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at inception of a contract and when the terms of an existing contract are changed. The Company recognizes a lease liability and a right of use (ROU) asset at the commencement date of the lease. The lease liability is initially and subsequently recognized based on the present value of its future lease payments. Variable payments are included in the future lease payments when those variable payments depend on an index or a rate.

The discount rate is the implicit rate if it is readily determinable and, if not readily determinable, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate. As the implicit rates of the Company’s leases are not readily determinable, the incremental borrowing rate is based on the information available at the commencement date for all leases. The Company’s incremental borrowing rate for a lease is the rate of interest it would have to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms and in a similar economic environment.

The ROU asset is subsequently measured throughout the lease term at the amount of the remeasured lease liability (i.e., present value of remaining lease payments), plus unamortized initial direct costs, plus (minus) any prepaid (accrued) lease payments, less the unamortized balance of lease incentives received, and any impairment recognized. Lease cost for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company has elected, for all underlying classes of assets, to not recognize ROU assets and lease liabilities for short-term leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less at lease commencement, and do not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Company is reasonably certain to exercise. The Company recognizes lease cost associated with short-term leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company made an accounting policy election by class of underlying asset, for computers and other office equipment, to account for each separate lease component of a contract and its associated non-lease components (e.g., lessor-provided maintenance) as a single lease component.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Management estimates that the aggregate net fair value of financial instruments recognized in the statement of financial condition approximates their carrying value (see also Note 9).

Revenue from Contracts with Customers

Revenue from contracts with customers consists primarily of commissions and fees from the distribution of mutual funds and sale of annuity products on behalf of the Company’s customers.

Each time the customer enters into a buy or sell transaction the Company charges a commission. Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on the trade date (the date that the Company fills the trade order). The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied on the trade date because that is when the risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to or from the customer. Reporting such transactions on a settlement date basis would not result in a material difference.

DECEMBER 31, 2022

The Company enters into arrangements with other pooled investment vehicles (mutual funds) to distribute shares to investors and insurance companies to distribute annuity products to investors. The Company may receive distribution fees paid up front, over time, upon the investor's sale of the fund, or a combination of the above. The receipt of any fees over time (12b-1 fees) or upon sale of certain securities (contingent deferred sales charges) are dependent upon variables outside of the Company's control (values of the funds or annuity, when customer sells the fund or annuity, etc.) such that the Company could not predict or allow for such payments until the time at which they occur. Fees recognized in the current period are tied to performance obligations which have been satisfied by services performed.

With respect to annuities, commission revenue is recognized in the month in which the transaction is completed. Fixed amounts are recognized when the transaction has been completed, and variable amounts are recognized when it is probable that such amounts will be received.

Contract assets for the Company as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 were the following:

	2022	2021
Receivables from broker-dealers and clearing organizations	$ 713,876	$ 873,389

As of December 31, 2022, management considers all commissions receivable as collectible; therefore, an allowance for uncollectible amounts is not necessary.

Investment banking revenues are primarily from providing merger-and-acquisition and financial restructuring advisory services but could be earned for underwriting securities for businesses and governmental entities that want to raise funds through the sales of securities. Investment banking revenue is recorded when a financing arrangement is completed and the related income is reasonably determinable and has been earned per the terms of the agreement. Investment banking also includes management fees and underwriting fees, net of syndicate expenses, arising from securities offerings in which the Company acts as an underwriter agent.

Income Taxes

Current income taxes are based on the taxable income for the year, as measured by the current year's tax returns. Deferred income taxes arise primarily due to differences between the basis of property and equipment, net operating loss carryforwards, compensation expense pursuant to previous issuances of stock options, employee bonus accrual and recognition of reserves against receivable balances. Deferred tax assets represent the future tax benefits of those differences, which will be deductible when the assets are recovered. Deferred tax liabilities represent the future tax consequences of those differences, which will be payable when the assets are recovered or liabilities settled.

The Company has addressed the provisions of FASB ASC 740-10, Accounting for Income Taxes. In that regard, the Company has evaluated its tax positions, expiring statutes of limitations, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law and new authoritative rulings and believes that no provision for income taxes is necessary at this time to cover any uncertain tax positions.

Equity Incentive Plan

The Company has adopted the fair value recognition provisions of FASB ASC 718, Stock Compensation, which establishes accounting and reporting standards for share-based payment transactions with employees, including equity incentive plans. Under this pronouncement, compensation expense is recognized over the associated vesting period and is based on the fair market value of the stock options on the grant date.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated the impact on the financial statement, if any, of subsequent events through February 24, 2023, the date the financial statement was available to be issued.

2. CLEARING BROKER-DEALER DEPOSITS

The Company is contractually obligated to maintain a deposit account at Wells Fargo Clearing Services, LLC as designated by the terms of the agreement, the deposit account shall at all times contain cash, qualified securities, or a combination of both having a market value of at least $250,000. This amount is included in deposits with clearing organizations in the accompanying statement of financial condition.

3. PROPERTY & EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment, net at December 31, 2022, consists of the following:

Furniture and equipment	$ 229,089
Leasehold improvements	129,097
	358,186
Less accumulated depreciation and amortization	(352,533)
	$ 5,653

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market.

Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income, or cost approach, as specified by FASB ASC 820, are used to measure fair value.

DECEMBER 31, 2022

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

- Level 1 Valuation is based on quoted prices in active markets for identical instruments in active markets.
- Level 2 Valuation is based on quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and model-derived valuations whose inputs are observable or whose significant value drivers are observable.
- Level 3 Valuation is generated from model-based techniques that use at least one significant assumption not observable in the market. These unobservable assumptions reflect estimates of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. Valuation techniques include use of option pricing models, discounted cash flow models and similar techniques.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, the liquidity of the markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that the valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

The following table presents the Company's fair value hierarchy for those assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis at December 31, 2022:

	Fair Value	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets/Liabilities (Level 1)
Trading securities:
Money market	$ 11,676	$ 11,676
Equities	98,596	98,596
Total Investments	$ 110,272	$ 110,272

5. LEASES

The Company adopted ASC Topic 842, Leases, using the optional transition method approved by FASB in 2019.

The Company has obligations as a lessee for office space, computers, and other office equipment with initial noncancelable terms exceeding one year which are classified as operating leases. The Company's leases do not include termination options for either party to the lease or restrictive financial or other covenants. Payments due under the lease contracts include fixed payments plus, for many of the Company's leases, variable payments. The Company's office space leases require it to make variable payments for the Company's proportionate share of the building's property taxes, insurance, and common area maintenance. These variable lease payments are not included in lease payments used to determine lease liability and are recognized as variable costs when incurred. Amortization of ROU asset associated with the finance lease are included in depreciation and amortization on the statement of operations.

The components of lease cost for the year ended December 31, 2022 are as follows:

Operating lease cost	$ 476,713
----------------------	-------------------

Amounts reported in the statement of financial condition as of December 31, 2022, were as follows:

Operating leases:
Operating lease ROU assets	$ 1,283,521
Operating lease liabilities	$ 1,327,610

Other information related to leases as of December 31, 2022, was as follows:

Supplemental cash flow information:

Cash paid for amounts included in the measurement of lease liabilities:

Operating cash flow for operating leases	$ 465,274

Amounts disclosed for ROU assets obtained in exchange for lease obligations and reductions to ROU assets resulting from reductions to lease obligations include amounts added to or reduced from the carrying amount of ROU assets resulting from new leases, lease modifications or reassessments.

Maturities of lease liabilities as of December 31, 2022, are as follows:

	Operating
2023	$ 432,999
2024	372,857
2025	337,823
2026	334,907
2027	-
Thereafter	-
Undiscounted Cash Flows	1,478,586
Less: Present value discount	(150,976)
Total Lease Liabilities	$ 1,327,610

6. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's (the "SEC") Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital. The Company has elected to use the alternative method, permitted by the Rule, which requires that the Company maintains minimum net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of $250,000 or 2 percent of aggregate debit balances, as defined. The Net Capital Rule of the SEC also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if resulting net capital would be less than the greater of 5 percent of aggregate debit items or 120% of the minimum net capital requirement.

At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $467,385, which was $217,385 in excess of the required minimum, and $167,385 in excess of 120% of the required minimum.

At December 31, 2022, the Company is exempt from the provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, in that the Company's activities are limited to those set forth in the conditions for exemption appearing in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of the Rule. As an introducing broker, the Company clears customer transactions on a fully disclosed basis with Wells Fargo Clearing Services, LLC.

7. STOCK OPTIONS

The Company granted certain registered representatives 404,822 non-qualified stock options to purchase shares of common stock at a future date at an exercise price of $0.001 per share. The options fully vested in previous years and expired in February 2022, ten years from the grant date of February 2012. Those options were not exercised.

Effective with the inception of the plan, the Company adopted the fair value recognition provisions of FASB ASC 718, Stock Compensation. Under ASC 718, the Company determines the fair value of the stock options using the Black-Scholes valuation model. ASC 718 requires the Company to recognize expense over the service period for options that are expected to vest and record adjustments to compensation expense at the end of the service period if actual forfeitures differ from original estimates.

In 2020, the Company granted an executive 1,500,000 non-qualified stock options to purchase shares of common stock at a future date at an exercise price of $0.00 per share. The options fully vested in 2020 and expire ten years from the grant date of March 10, 2020.

During 2022, no options were exercised. Common stock option activity during the year ended December 31, 2022, is as follows:

	Number of Units	Weighted Average Exercise Price
Balance as of January 1, 2022	1,904,822	$ 0.001
Granted	-	-
Forfeited	(404,822)	(0.001)
Balance as of December 31, 2022	1,500,000	$ -

The Company used the Black-Scholes option pricing model in calculating the fair value of options granted. The assumptions used and the weighted-average information for options granted has been summarized in the following table:

Options granted in 2020
Risk-free interest rate	0.90%
Expected dividend yield	0.00
Expiration date	10 years
Expected volatility	60.0%
Grant date fair value of stock options granted	$0.10

At December 31, 2022, the number, exercise price, weighted-average remaining contractual life of options, and number of options currently exercisable are as follows:

Year of Grant	Number of Shares	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Life in Years	Number Currently Exercisable
2020	1,500,000	$ 0.000	7.07	1,500,000

8. INCOME TAXES

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities result from future tax benefits and obligations related to the difference between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and the amounts reported in the financial statements. The deferred tax assets at December 31, 2022, are comprised of the following:

Deferred tax asset	$ 445,500
Less: valuation allowance	(260,000)
	$ 185,500

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Deferred tax assets were as follows at December 31, 2022:

Net operating loss carryforwards	$ 270,000
Reserves against receivable balances	110,000
Charitable contributions carryover	5,000
Deferred stock compensation	37,500
Basis of property and equipment	12,000
Other	11,000
	$ 445,500

Deferred tax assets were decreased by $136,500 at December 31, 2022 resulting primarily from taxable income for 2022 with the resulting decrease in net operating loss carryforwards. In 2022, the Company recognized income tax expense in the amount of $137,144.

Valuation allowances are established, based on the weight of available evidence, when it is more likely than not that some portion of or all deferred tax assets will not be realized. At December 31, 2022, the Company has available net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $1,079,000 for income tax reporting purposes, expiring during the years 2028 through 2035. The Company has a net operating loss carryforward of $311,000 which does not expire. The net operating loss carryforwards give rise to a deferred tax asset of approximately $270,000 at December 31, 2022, which has been reduced by a valuation allowance of $260,000. The valuation allowance was not adjusted in 2022.

Effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2020, including interim periods within that reporting period, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the "FASB") issued an accounting standards update on simplifying the accounting for income taxes. The Company has concluded that the new guidance does not require any significant change in its process for accounting for income taxes.

9. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS WITH OFF-BALANCE SHEET RISK

The Company's customers' accounts are carried by the carrying broker-dealer. Execution and clearing services are also performed by the carrying broker-dealer. The agreement between the Company and the carrying broker-dealer stipulates that all losses resulting from the Company's customers' inability to fulfill their contractual obligations are the responsibility of the Company. As designated by the terms of the arrangement, the Company carries a deposit with the broker-dealer in the amount of $250,000 (see Note 2).

10. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN

The Company has a 401(k) plan for all employees meeting certain eligibility requirements. The Company can elect, at its discretion, to match a certain percentage of employee compensation contributed to the plan, not to exceed the amounts as permitted under the Internal Revenue Code. During 2022, the Company made no contributions to this plan.

11. RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company provides introductory brokerage and trade services for an investment advisory firm related to the Company under common ownership. Transactions are executed and subject to all compliance rules and regulations common in the securities industry. Due to this related investment advisory firm at year end was $23,446.

The Company has advanced funds to employees and has recorded receivables in relation to certain securities trading losses. Employee and other receivables of $440,577 are reflected in the accompanying statement of financial condition, which is offset by a reserve of $440,577 for amounts deemed uncollectible at December 31, 2022. The reserve was not adjusted in 2022.

12. CLEARING AGREEMENT

The Company operates under a Fully Disclosed Clearing Agreement (the Agreement) with Wells Fargo Clearing Services, LLC (WFCS), formerly First Clearing, LLC, to govern the clearing, execution, and other services to be provided. The agreement with WFCS was renewed for five years in September 2019. As part of the contract renewal, the Company received a signing bonus of $600,000. In accordance with FASB ASC Subtopic 605-50, Customer Payments and Incentives, this amount has been recorded as an unearned discount on the statement of financial condition and is amortized over the term of the Agreement. For the year ended December 31, 2022, pursuant to the aforementioned guidance, the Company recognized $120,000 as a discount against floor brokerage, exchange, and clearance expenses on the statement of operations.

In the event that the Agreement is terminated prior to the fifth anniversary of the renewal date, the Company would be required to pay a termination fee of up to $600,000 (an amount which decreases annually) to Wells Fargo Clearing, per the termination fee schedule included in the contract renewal. At December 31, 2022, it is management's opinion that termination of the Agreement is not anticipated.
