Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

Note 1 – Organization and Nature of Business

Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc. (the "Company") is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cigna Investments, Inc. ("CII"), which is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Cigna Corporation ("Cigna"). The Company, formed in 2010, is a broker-dealer company incorporated in the State of Delaware. The Company is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). CII provided an initial capital funding of $25 thousand on May 18, 2010. A second capital funding of $975 thousand, requested by FINRA as a condition of membership approval, was provided by CII on October 19, 2010. After receiving FINRA membership approval, the Company commenced operations on January 14, 2011.

The business of the Company consists of supervising the sale and servicing of variable life insurance policies issued by its affiliate, Connecticut General Life Insurance Company ("CGLIC"), and its revenue consists solely of revenue from CGLIC.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Basis of Presentation

The Financial Statements of the Company were prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company is included in the consolidated United States federal income tax return filed by Cigna Corporation, the Company's ultimate parent. Pursuant to the Tax Sharing Agreement with Cigna Corporation, the provision for federal income taxes is computed as if it were filing on a separate return basis, except that benefits arising from credits and net operating losses are allocated to those subsidiaries producing such attributes only to the extent they have been utilized in the consolidated federal income tax provision. Note 5 contains additional information about the Company's income taxes.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when a performance obligation is satisfied and reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled for the services rendered. In accordance with the Expense Sharing and Servicing Agreement with its affiliates, CGLIC and Cigna Health & Life Insurance Company ("CHLIC"), the Company recognizes a fixed monthly fee for its sole performance obligation to service the variable life policies issued by CGLIC. In 2022, CGLIC paid the Company $1,253 thousand for its services.

Other Assets

Other assets consist of software licenses and subscriptions that have been paid in advance and are amortized into expense over the contractual term of the agreement.

Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc.
(a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cigna Investments, Inc.)

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

Note 3 – Related Party Transactions

The Company has an Expense Sharing and Servicing Agreement with its affiliates, CGLIC and CHLIC. The Company reimburses CHLIC on a monthly basis for all incurred expenses, including employee compensation and benefits, rent and other general expenses. In 2022, the Company reimbursed CHLIC $1,231 thousand and received servicing fees of $1,253 thousand from CGLIC. It is possible that the terms of the transactions mentioned above are not the same as those that would result from transactions among wholly unrelated parties.

Note 4 – Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1). Under the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule, a broker/dealer that does not receive or hold funds or securities for customers nor does it carry accounts for customers is required to maintain net capital of $5 thousand or 6.67% of aggregate indebtedness, whichever is greater. The Company maintained the required minimum net capital at all times during 2022. At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $179 thousand, which was $172 thousand in excess of its required net capital of $7 thousand. The Company had aggregate indebtedness of $105 thousand at December 31, 2022, and its percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 58.9 at December 31, 2022.

The Company claimed exemption throughout the year ended December 31, 2022 relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendment to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to the sale and servicing of variable life insurance policies and private placement of securities where the funds are payable to the life insurance company and not to the Company, and the Company (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

Note 5 – Income Taxes

The components of income taxes for the year ended December 31 was as follows (in thousands):

(In 000's)	2022
Current Federal and State Taxes	$1
Deferred Taxes	-
Total Income Tax Expense	$1

Total income taxes for the year ended December 31, 2022 were different from the amount computed using the nominal federal income tax rate for the following reasons:

	2022	Effective Tax Rate
Tax expense at nominal rate	$2	21.00%
State income tax (net of federal income tax benefit)	($1)	-9.93%
Total income taxes	$1	11.07%

Note 6 – Commitments and Contingencies

The Company has committed to reimburse CHLIC for the expenses incurred under the Expense Sharing and Servicing Agreement on its behalf within 30 days following the close of the month, as specified in the Agreement.

The Company, in its capacity as a broker-dealer, is subject to examination by regulatory agencies and can be subject to litigation and various claims. The Company's management is not aware of any matters that could have a material effect on the Company's results of operations or financial position.

Note 7 – Subsequent Events

The Company is not aware of any events that occurred subsequent to the close of the books or accounts which had a material effect on the financial condition of the Company. In preparing these financial statements, the Company has evaluated events that occurred between the balance sheet date and February 24, 2023, the financial statements issuance date.

The Company claimed exemption throughout the year ended December 31, 2022, relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendment to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to the sale and servicing of variable life insurance policies and private placement of securities where the funds are payable to the life insurance company and not to the Company, and the Company (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

Report of Independent Accountants

To the Board of Directors of Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc.

We have performed the procedures included in Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and in the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC") Series 600 Rules, which are enumerated below, on the accompanying Certification of Exclusion From Membership (Form SIPC-3) of Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc. (the "Company") for the year ended December 31, 2022. Management of Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc. is responsible for its Form SIPC-3 and for its compliance with the applicable instructions on Form SIPC-3.

In an agreed-upon procedures engagement, we perform specific procedures that the Company has agreed to and acknowledged to be appropriate for the intended purpose of the engagement and we report on findings based on the procedures performed. Management of the Company has agreed to and acknowledged that the procedures performed are appropriate to meet the intended purpose of assisting you and SIPC in evaluating the Company's compliance with the exclusion requirements from membership in SIPC under section 78ccc(a)(2)(A) of the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 for the year ended December 31, 2022, as noted on the accompanying Form SIPC-3. Additionally, SIPC has agreed to and acknowledged that the procedures performed are appropriate for their intended purpose. This report may not be suitable for any other purpose. The procedures performed may not address all the items of interest to a user of this report and may not meet the needs of all users of this report and, as such, users are responsible for determining whether the procedures performed are appropriate for their purposes. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

The procedures we performed and the associated findings are as follows:

1. Compared the Total Revenues amount reported in the accompanying Schedule of Form SIPC-3 Revenues prepared by the Company for the year ended December 31, 2022 to the Total Revenues amount reported on page 4 of the Annual Audited Report Form X-17A-5 Part III for the year ended December 31, 2022, noting no differences
2. Compared any amount of Business activities through which revenue was earned reported in the accompanying Schedule of Form SIPC-3 Revenues prepared by the Company for the year ended December 31, 2022 with the supporting schedules and working papers, as follows:
 - a. Compared the distribution of shares of registered open end investment companies or unit investment trusts amount of $1,252,920 to the Company's 2022 Trial Balance dated January 12, 2023, 14:37:58, account number and description "40917 MISC INC FROM AFF COMPANY 01055 CGLIC – CBFI" provided by Lee Foley, Chief Financial Officer, Finance Department, noting no differences.
3. Recalculated the arithmetical accuracy of the Total Revenues amount reflected in the accompanying Schedule of Form SIPC-3 Revenues prepared by the Company for the year ended December 31, 2022 and in the related schedules and working papers obtained in procedure 2, as follows:

- a. Recalculated the mathematical accuracy of the Total Revenues amount reflected in the accompanying Schedule of Form SIPC-3 Revenues of $1,252,920 by summing the individual business activities through which revenue was earned, noting no differences.

We were engaged by the Company to perform this agreed-upon procedures engagement and conducted our engagement in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination or review engagement, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion or conclusion, respectively, on the Company's Form SIPC-3 and on its compliance with the applicable instructions on Form SIPC-3 for the year ended December 31, 2022. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion or conclusion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements related to our agreed-upon procedures engagement.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors of Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc. and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors of Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc.

We have reviewed Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc.'s assertions, included in the accompanying Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc. Exemption Report, in which the Company stated that:

- (1) The Company does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3, and
- (2) The Company is filing its Exemption Report relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to the sale and servicing of variable life insurance policies and private placement of securities where the funds are payable to the life insurance company and not to the Company, and the Company (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers; (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the year ended December 31, 2022 without exception.

The Company's management is responsible for the assertions and for compliance with the provisions of Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 throughout the year ended December 31, 2022.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the provisions of Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's assertions. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's assertions referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Shareholder of Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Cigna Benefits Financing, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2022, and the related statements of income, of changes in shareholder's equity and of cash flows for the year then ended, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit of these financial statements in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as, evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplemental Information

The accompanying Computation of Net Capital Under Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission and Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission as of December 31, 2022 (collectively, the "supplemental information") have been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 . In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.
