NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2022

1. Nature of business and summary of significant accounting policies

Nature of Business

Sage Partners Securities, LLC (the "Company"), a California Limited Liability Company, located in Los Angeles, California, was formed in June 2000 as a wholly owned subsidiary of The Sage Group, LLC (the "Parent" and, collectively with the Company, "Sage"). The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA").

The Company is an investment banking firm that provides a variety of corporate finance and financial advisory services to middle market and emerging growth clients throughout the United States. Such services include advisory on mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, management buyouts, and restructurings, as well as providing valuation services, fairness opinions and other related services in connection with client transactions. Sage may also participate in private equity placements, private debt, or mezzanine placements.

The Company does not accept customer funds in the name of Sage Partners Securities, LLC. In addition, the Company does not currently engage in the purchase or sale of listed, over the counter equities, options or futures; does not plan to be a securities market maker; and will generally not hold any security positions.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Valuation of Investments in Securities and Securities at Fair Value - Definition and Hierarchy

In accordance with GAAP, fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (i.e., the "exit price") in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

In determining fair value, the Company uses various valuation approaches. In accordance with GAAP, a fair value hierarchy for inputs is used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are those that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs reflect the Company's assumptions about the inputs market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. The fair value hierarchy is categorized into three levels based on the inputs as follows:

1. Nature of business and summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Valuation of Investments in Securities and Securities at Fair Value - Definition and Hierarchy (continued)

Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access. Valuation adjustments and block discounts are not applied to Level 1 securities. Since valuations are based on quoted prices that are readily and regularly available in an active market, valuation of these securities does not entail a significant degree of judgment.

Level 2 - Valuations based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement.

Valuation Techniques

The Company values its investment in the certificate of deposit at cost, plus accrued interest earned.

Revenue Recognition

The Company principally generates revenue from investment banking and advisory services. Investment banking fees are recognized as revenue upon closing of a client transaction. All associated revenue is due in full on the closing date. A transaction is deemed closed when the funds have been received in full from the client. The transaction price includes variable consideration as investment banking pricing is based on outcomes of the transaction. The amount of revenue recognized as investment banking fees is the total amount received upon closing of a client transaction. The Company believes that the point in time at which the Company performs its obligation is the transaction completion date, as the customer has control of the service and the Company's obligation to the customer has been completed. At that point, the Company has a present right to payment, the customer has accepted the service and the uncertainty of variable consideration is resolved.

Advisory service revenues are non-refundable retainer fees collected in advance and are deferred and amortized over the period the services are provided by the Company. The Company believes that advisory service revenues satisfy the criteria for being recognized over time since advisory fees are non-refundable retainer fees collected in advance and services are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the client as the Company performs the service. The service period is the length of time stipulated in the signed engagement letter that the agreement is valid for. The service time period is typically between three and twelve months. The retainers received from customers before the end of the service period are reflected as deferred revenue. Retainer revenue is recorded as income ratably over the course of the engagement service time period.

The Company had $106,340 of deferred revenue at December 31, 2021, the entire balance of which has been recognized as advisory services revenue in 2022. The Company has $266,456 of deferred revenue at December 31, 2022, $204,998 of which will be recognized as advisory services revenue in 2023.

December 31, 2022

1. Nature of business and summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Costs to Obtain a Client

The Company incurs minimal costs that are directly allocable to the revenue contracts. The majority of contracts include a provision for the reimbursement of reasonable, documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the engagement such as travel and document production costs. The Company does not incur any incremental costs, such as commissions, for obtaining new clients, and therefore all expenses related to obtaining new clients are expensed when incurred.

Certificate of Deposit

The Company records the investment in certificates of deposit at cost which approximates fair market value. The balance invested in the certificate of deposit is $538,869 at December 31, 2022. As per the fair value hierarchy discussed earlier in Note 1, Valuation of Investments in Securities and Securities at Fair Value - Definition and Hierarchy, the Company considers the certificate of deposit as Level 2 inputs.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company, and treated as a partnership for income tax reporting purposes. The Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") provides that any income or loss is passed through to the members for federal and state income tax purposes. Accordingly, the Company has not provided for federal or state income taxes.

At December 31, 2022, management has determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition. This determination will always be subject to ongoing reevaluation as facts and circumstances may require. The Company remains subject to U.S. federal and state income tax audits for all periods subsequent to 2019.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires the Company's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts disclosed in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Assets (at fair value)
Certificate of deposit	$ -	$ 538,869	$ -	$ 538,869

3. Cash Concentration

The Company maintains its cash balances in various financial institutions. These balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000 per institution. At times, the Company's cash balances may be in excess of the insured limits. The Company has a Due to Parent balance of $250,000 as of December 31, 2022, due immediately, in connection with the above services.

(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of The Sage Group, LLC)

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2022

6. Litigation

The Company is subject to legal claims and lawsuits that arise in the ordinary course of business. It is the opinion of management that the disposition or ultimate resolution of such claims and lawsuits will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of the Company.

7. Net capital requirement

The Company, as a member of FINRA, is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 and that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2022, the Company's net capital was $1,038,831 which was $1,003,887 in excess of its minimum requirement of $34,944.

8. Exemption from Rule 15c3-3

The Company is exempt from the Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3 and is relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073, adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to providing merger and acquisition advisory services, private placement of securities, and other consulting services.

9. Subsequent events

Management of the Company has evaluated all subsequent transactions through February 28, 2023, the date the financial statements were issued. It has been determined that there are no subsequent events that require disclosure.
