REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Directors and Members
of Allaria Securities, LLC.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Allaria Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2022, the related statements of operations, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes and schedules (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Allaria Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of Allaria Securities, LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on Allaria Securities, LLC's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to Allaria Securities, LLC in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Auditor's Report on Supplemental Information

The Schedule of the Computation of Net Capital under Rule 15c3-1, Schedule II, Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 and Schedule III, Information Relating to the Possession or Control Requirements under Rule 15c3-3 have been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Allaria Securities, LLC's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Allaria Securities, LLC's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information.

ALLARIA SECURITIES LLC.
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the year ended December 31, 2022

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

Allaria Securities LLC. (The "Company") is a Florida registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Allaria LATAM Investments Inc. ("ALIS" or "Parent Company"). The Company acts as an intermediary or agent between its customers and other financial institutions in the purchase and sale of various U.S. and foreign fixed-income investments products, U.S. government securities, government agency securities, and other securities investments. The Company is a member of the Financial Regulatory Authority ("FINRA").

NOTE 2 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation: The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Revenue Recognition: All revenues are recorded in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 606 Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Revenues are recognized when: i) a contract with a client has been identified, ii) the performance obligations in the contract(s) have been identified, iii) the transaction price has been determined, iv) the transaction price has been allocated to each performance obligation in the contract, and v) the Company has satisfied the applicable performance obligation over time.

The Company's revenues from contract with customers are recognized when the performance obligations are satisfied at an amount that reflects the consideration expected to be received for such services. The majority of the Company's performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time and are typically collected from the customer by debiting the customer brokerage account with the Company. The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied on trade date because that is when the underlying financial instrument for sale or purchase is identified, the pricing is agreed upon, and the risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to or from the customer.

Commission and trading income is earned by providing trade facilitation, execution, clearance and settlement, custody, and trade administration services to customers, and includes amounts for the securities price differential between what the Company buys from and sells to customers and/or counterparties. Acting as an Agent, commission income is generated by the trade execution from the customer purchase and sale of securities on exchanges or over-the-counter, and through the purchase of various investment products, such as mutual funds, options, and commodity transactions. Revenue recognized under commissions and trading income consist of one performance obligation which is satisfied on trade date. Trade execution performance obligation is satisfied at a point in time. As of December 31, 2022 the revenues for commissions and trading income was $2,713,089.

12b-1 fees represent mutual funds fee revenue which is a residual commission and is recorded overtime as earned. Such trailing commission revenue is generally based as a percentage of the average current market value of the customer's investment holdings in such trailer eligible funds. As the trailing commissions revenue is based on the current market value of the customer holdings, this variable consideration is constrained until the market value is determinable. As of December 31, 2022 the revenues for 12b-1 fees was $1,248,210.

The Company offers customers the ability to utilize their cash and securities as collateral for margin and non-purpose loans. Margin loans permit the customer to trade on leverage, executing larger trades than permitted with a normal cash account. Non-purpose loans are exclusively for non-securities investments external to customer accounts.

In both cases the Company's custodian collects a base interest rate on the average debit balance held per month, and the Company earns any additional amount above that which is charged to each customer. The performance obligation is satisfied during the interest period in which the customer held a debit balance. As of December 31, 2022, the margin interest earned was $122,606.

ALLARIA SECURITIES LLC.

Sweep fees are assessed to customer accounts related to customer cash funds moved into a money market fund in their account at the close each business day. The fee is variable and is based on a percentage of the management fee of the money market fund at which time the performance obligation has been fulfilled. The structure is viewed as an at-will agreement under ASC 606, the revenues of which are recognized immediately. As of December 31, 2022, the revenues for sweep fees was $347,342 and it is included in the commissions and trading revenue.

The company assesses an annual administrative charge to all its customer accounts. This fee is charged directly by the clearing broker to each customer account and credited to the Company's firm own account.

Cash and cash equivalents: Cash and cash equivalents include cash and deposits with other financial institutions with maturities of ninety days or less from the date of acquisition.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments: Fair value of financial instruments are estimated using relevant market information and other assumptions, as more fully disclosed in Note 6. Fair value estimates involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment regarding interest rates, credit risk, prepayments, and other factors, especially in the absence of broad markets for particular items. Changes in assumptions or in market conditions could significantly affect these estimates. Assets, including cash and certain receivables, are carried at fair value or at contracted amounts, which approximate fair value.

Concentration of Credit Risk: The Company can be exposed, during the course of its operations, to concentrations of credit risk with depository institutions of the United States in the form of bank accounts with balances in excess of the insurance limit amount covered by the Federal Depository Institution Corporation (or FDIC).

The Company also engages in trading activities with various counterparties, mostly financial institutions in the United States. Management believes there is no significant risk of loss or counterparty risks on these balances or transactions.

Transfers of Financial Assets: Transfers of financial assets, such as sales of securities, are accounted for as sales, when control over the assets has been relinquished. Control over transferred assets is deemed to be surrendered when the assets have been isolated from the Company, the transferee obtains the right (free of conditions that constrain it from taking advantage of that right) to pledge or exchange the transferred assets, and the Company does not maintain effective control over the transferred assets through an agreement to repurchase them before their maturity.

Receivables and Payables to Brokers and Dealers: In accordance with ASC 326-20 Financial Instruments—Credit Losses Current expected credit loss standard, the Company's receivable from clearing organizations include amounts receivable for unsettled trades, cash, deposits, and other balances executed on behalf of customers. The Company's trades and contracts are cleared through its clearing organization and settled daily between the clearing organization and the Company. As of December 31, 2022 the Company held a deposit of $261,725 in favor of its clearing organization, which is included in its due from brokers and clearing organizations balance of $1,899,947. As of January 1, 2022 the Company held a deposit of $257,434 in favor of its clearing organization, which is included in its due from brokers and clearing organizations balance of $2,584,768. The firm has no allowance or expense for uncollectability of its receivables in 2022 or 2021 as it considers the event of default unlikely.

Because of this daily settlement, the amount of unsettled daily credit exposures the company owes to the clearing organization is limited to a very short period of time. The Company continually reviews the credit quality of its counterparties when trading. Based on the Company's evaluation the adoption of ASC 326-20 Financial Instruments—Credit Losses did not have a material effect in its financial position and results of operation.

ALLARIA SECURITIES LLC.

Income Taxes: The Company is treated as a partnership for Federal income tax purposes and accordingly, generally would not incur income taxes or have any unrecognized tax benefits. Instead, its earnings and losses are included in the tax return of its member and taxed depending on the member's tax situation. As a result, the financial statements do not reflect a provision for income taxes. In addition, the firm evaluated ASC740 and determined that it had no financial impact from its implementation.

The Company recognizes and measures tax positions based on their technical merit and assesses the likelihood that the positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances, and information available at the end of each period. Interest and penalties on tax liabilities, if any, would be recorded in expenses.

The U.S. Federal jurisdiction and Florida are the major tax jurisdictions where the Company files income tax returns. The Company is generally subject to U.S. Federal or State examinations by tax authorities since its inception.

Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results may differ significantly from those estimates.

Commitments and Contingencies: In accordance to ASC 842-10-55-23 the Company has a cancelable (upon notice) lease commitment for office space that expires on August 31, 2025. Future lease obligations under such commitment total $192,390. As of December 31, 2022, the Company rent expense totaled $62,655, and is included as part of the occupancy expense in the statement of operations. As of December 31, 2022, the Company deferred rent liability totaled $932, and is included in the accrued expense and other liabilities in the statement of financial condition.

The Company can be exposed to various asserted and unasserted potential claims encountered in the normal course of business. Loss contingencies, including claims, legal or regulatory actions arising in the ordinary course of business, are recorded as liabilities when the likelihood of loss is probable, and an amount or range of loss can be reasonably estimated. All legal fees are expensed as incurred. As of December 31, 2022, no such liabilities or claims were recorded or threatened.

NOTE 3 - RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Operations of the Company are conducted in facilities and by some personnel shared with ALIS and one of its affiliates. As such, the Company can get reimbursed for expenses and/or pay for resources used while conducting its business activities. At December 31, 2022, the receivable from ALIS and its affiliate for operating expenses amounted to $8,700 and the 2022 reimbursed expenses totaled $34,588.

The company maintains a sub broker agreement with a related foreign entity and as such may have a receivable or a payable, and a corresponding revenue or expense, dependent on the volume and type of activity. As of December 31, 2022, the related payable for such agreement totaled $45,717 and the related net expense totaled $1,666,968.

In addition, the company maintains Service Level Agreements with two related foreign entities for various consulting services. As of December 31, 2022, the related net expense totaled $140,000.

ALLARIA SECURITIES LLC.
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the year ended December 31, 2022

NOTE 4 – FIXED ASSETS

Fixed assets are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from 2 to 3 years dependent on the asset type. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance are charged to expense as incurred and are reflected as part of occupancy expenses in the Statement of Operations.

The Company's management reviews fixed assets for impairments whenever events or changes in circumstances may indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. If asset impairment is identified, the asset is written down to its fair value. As of December 31, 2022 no fixed assets have been deemed impaired.

For assets sold or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts on occurrence, and any related gain or loss is reflected in income for the period.

As of December 31, 2022, fixed assets consisted of the following:

Furniture & fixtures	$19,438
Computer equipment	14,391
Total fixed assets	33,829
Accumulated depreciation	(33,390)
Fixed assets, net	$438

For the year ended December 31, 2022, depreciation expense totaled $2,655, reflected as part of occupancy expenses in the Statement of Operations.

NOTE 5 – FULLY DISCLOSED CLEARING AGREEMENT

The Company clears its securities transactions on a fully disclosed basis through its clearing broker, a major New York-based financial institution. The Company initiated activity under such agreement with the clearing broker in October 2018. As of December 31, 2022, the Company had a total of $1,899,947 in cash & deposits due from its clearing broker. The amount includes a $250,000 interest bearing restricted deposit in benefit of the clearing broker. Such deposit will be returned to the Company within 30 days after the termination of the clearing agreement.

NOTE 6 – FAIR VALUE

Fair value is the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date.

There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair values:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the entity has the ability to access as of the measurement date.

Level 2: Significant other observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs that reflect a reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability.

As of December 31, 2022, the Company's assets, including cash and certain receivables, are carried at fair value or at contracted amounts, which approximate fair value. There were no assets or liabilities measured on a non-recurring basis as of December 31, 2022.

ALLARIA SECURITIES LLC.
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the year ended December 31, 2022

NOTE 7 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

As a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Company is subject to the SEC's net capital rule (Rule 15c3-1). This Rule prohibits a broker-dealer from engaging in any securities transaction at a time when its net capital is less than the greater of 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, as those terms are defined by the Rule, or its minimum net capital required of $250,000, and requires that the ratio of aggregated indebtedness to net capital shall not exceed 15 to 1.

At December 31, 2022, the Company's net capital was $1,894,810 which was in excess by $1,644,810 of its required net capital of $250,000, and its ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.0550 to 1. Advances to affiliates and other equity withdrawals are subject to certain notifications and other provisions of the net capital rule of the SEC and other regulatory bodies.

NOTE 8 - CUSTOMER PROTECTION REQUIREMENTS

As a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Company is subject to the SEC's customer protection rule requirements regarding reserves and custody of securities (Rule 15c3-3). Due to its fully disclosed clearing agreement the Company is exempt from the reserve requirement computations and reserve maintenance according to the provisions of the SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) and 3(k)(2)(ii). In addition, the Company is exempt from the securities possession and control requirements of the rule under the same 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) and 3(k)(2)(ii) exemptive provision.

NOTE 9 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In accordance with the Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 855, the Company has evaluated subsequent events and transactions for potential recognitions and/or disclosure through February 28, 2023, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued and determined that there were no significant items affecting the accompanying financial statements that required such recognition or disclosure.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Directors and Members
of Allaria Securities, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Allaria Securities, LLC identified the following provision of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which Allaria Securities, LLC claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3 (k)(2)(i) and (k)(2)(ii) (exemption provisions) and (2) Allaria Securities, LLC stated that Allaria Securities, LLC met the identified exemption provision throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Allaria Securities, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provision and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Austin Atlantic Capital, Inc.'s compliance with the exemption provision. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provision set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) and (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM ON APPLYING AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES

To the Directors and Members of
of Allaria Securities, LLC

We have performed the procedures included in Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and in the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) Series 600 Rules, which are enumerated below on the accompanying General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7) for the year ended December 31, 2022. Management of Allaria Securities, LLC (the Company) is responsible for its Form SIPC-7 and for its compliance with the applicable instructions on Form SIPC-7.

Management of the Company has agreed to and acknowledged that the procedures performed are appropriate to meet the intended purpose of assisting you and SIPC in evaluating the Company's compliance with the applicable instructions on Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2022. Additionally, SIPC has agreed to and acknowledged that the procedures performed are appropriate for their intended purpose. This report may not be suitable for any other purpose. The procedures performed may not address all the items of interest to a user of this report and may not meet the needs of all users of this report and, as such, users are responsible for determining whether the procedures performed are appropriate for their purposes. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed, and our associated findings are as follows:

- 1) Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursement records entries, noting no differences;
- 2) Compared the Total Revenue amounts reported on the Annual Audited Report Form X-17A-5 Part III for the year ended December 31, 2022 with the Total Revenue amount reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2022, noting no differences;
- 3) Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers, noting no differences;
- 4) Recalculated the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers supporting the adjustments, noting no differences; and
- 5) Compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed, noting no differences.

We were engaged by the Company to perform this agreed-upon procedures engagement and conducted our engagement in accordance with attestation standards established by the AICPA and in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). We were not engaged to and did not conduct an examination or a review engagement, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion or conclusion, respectively, on the Company's Form SIPC-7 and for its compliance with the applicable instructions on Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2022. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion or conclusion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements related to our agreed-upon procedures engagement.
