Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To: The Members'
Crewe Capital, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statements

I have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Crewe Capital, LLC as of December 31, 2022, and the related statements of income, changes in members' equity and cash flows for the year then ended, that are filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the related notes and schedules (collectively referred to as the financial statements). In my opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Crewe Capital, LLC as of December 31, 2022 and its results of operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of Crewe Capital, LLC's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on Crewe Capital, LLC's financial statements based on my audit. I am a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and I am required to be independent with respect to Crewe Capital, LLC in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

I conducted my audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. My audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. My audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

Supplemental Information

The Schedule I, Computation of Net Capital Under SEC Rule 15c3-1, Schedule II, Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements and Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements Under SEC Rule 15c3-3 (exemption) has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Crewe Capital, LLC's financial statements.

The supplemental information is the responsibility of Crewe Capital, LLC's management. My audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming my opinion on the supplemental information, I evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In my opinion, the Schedule I, Computation of Net Capital Under SEC Rule 15c3-1, Schedule II, Computation for Identification of Reserve Requirements and Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements Under SEC Rule 15c3-3 (exemption) is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Michael T. Remus

I have served as Crewe Capital, LLC's auditor since 2018.

Crewe Capital, LLC
Notes To Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

1 Organization and Nature of Business

Crewe Capital, LLC (the Company, formerly Five Prime Advisors, LLC, is a privately held partnership formed in New York in 2003 for the purpose of providing investment banking, securities, valuation, and mergers & acquisitions services to a diversified client base. In September 2011, the Company obtained from the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) approval to conduct a securities business as broker-dealer (“BD”).

2 Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The financial statements and accompanying notes are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”) unless otherwise disclosed.

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(c) Statement of Cash Flows

For purposes of the statement of cash flows the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with original maturities of less than three months, that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business. The company has adopted the indirect method of presenting the statement of cash flows in accordance with current authoritative pronouncements. There were no cash equivalents at December 31, 2022. Cash is held at a financial institution and is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000.

(d) Fixed Asset

Fixed assets are stated at cost, and are depreciated on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life. Maintenance, repairs and renewals that neither materially add to the value of the property nor appreciably prolong its life are charged to expense as incurred. Gains and losses on disposition of assets (if any) are included in income.

The following is a summary of fixed assets as of December 31, 2022

Automobile	$ 141,327
Office equipment	69,204
	210,531
Less: Accumulated depreciation	(54,286)
	$ 156,245

Crewe Capital, LLC
Notes To Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

(e) Revenue Recognition - Contracts with Customers

The Company provides securities and consulting services and recognizes revenue from those services in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 606 Revenue from Contracts with Customers that is when the contracts identified performance obligations have been satisfied. The guidance requires that an entity recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance requires an entity to follow a five-step model to (a) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation. In determining the transaction price, an entity may include variable consideration only to the extent that it is probable that a significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognized would not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved.

Significant judgments:

Revenue from contracts with customers includes consulting and fees from investment banking services as discussed in Note 1 above. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment may be required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Success fees:

The Company earns revenue by way of transaction success fees that are recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed generally the closing date. The Company has determined that this date is the appropriate point in time to recognize revenue for success fees as the performance obligation has been satisfied, there are no significant actions which the Company needs to take subsequent to this date and the purchaser obtains the control and benefit of the proceeds at that point. Payment for all services is due upon closing in accordance with the terms of the Agreements.

Consulting fees:

The Company provides consulting services on mergers and acquisitions. Revenue for consulting arrangements is recognized over the time in which the performance obligations are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the customer. In some circumstances, significant judgment is needed to determine the timing and measure of progress appropriate for revenue recognition under a specific contract.

There were no unsatisfied performance obligations at December 31, 2022.

Crewe Capital, LLC
Notes To Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

(f) Income Taxes

The Company is treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes. Therefore, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes has been included in the financial statements. The Company's tax returns and the amount of income or loss allocable to the members are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities. In the event of an examination of the Company's tax return, the tax liability of the members could be changed if an adjustment in the Company's income or loss is ultimately determined by the taxing authorities.

Certain transactions may be subject to accounting methods for federal and state income tax purposes which differ from the accounting methods used in preparing the financial statements. Accordingly, the net income or loss of the member and the resulting balances in the members' capital account reported for federal and state income tax purposes may differ from the balances reported for those same items in these financial statements.

The Company recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes. Under that guidance the Company assesses the likelihood, based on their technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of the financial reporting period. The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available, or when an event occurs that requires a change.

Management has determined that the Company has no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition at December 31, 2022. This determination will always be subject to ongoing evaluation as facts and circumstances may require. The Company remains subject to U.S. federal and state income tax audits for all years subsequent to 2018.

In addition, no income tax related penalties or interest have been recorded for the year ended December 31, 2022.

(g) Advertising and Marketing

Advertising and marketing costs are expensed as incurred.

(h) General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative costs are expensed as incurred.

(i) Fair Value Hierarchy

FASB ASC 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach, as specified by FASB ASC 820, are used to measure fair value.

Crewe Capital, LLC
Notes To Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

(i) Fair Value Hierarchy - continued

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

Level 1. Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access at the measurement date.

Level 2. Inputs other than quoted prices included in level 1 that are observable for the assets or liability either directly or indirectly.

Level 3. Inputs are unobservable for the assets or liability.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent the valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining the fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

For further discussion of fair value, see “Note 6 Fair Value”

(j) Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

Management has assessed the potential impact of accounting standards that have been issued, but are yet effective, and have determined that no such standards are expected to have a material impact to the financial statements.

3 Net Capital Requirements

The Company, as a registered broker-dealer in securities is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1). The Company has elected to operate under that portion of the Rule which requires the Company maintain “net capital” equal to the greater of $5,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, as those terms are defined in the Rule. At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $152,047 which was $141,283 in excess of its required minimum net capital of $10,764. The Company had an AI/NC ratio of 1.016 to 1.

Advances to affiliates, contributions, distributions and other withdrawals are subject to certain notification and other requirements of Rule 15c3-1 and other regulatory rules. The Company is exempt from the provisions of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 pursuant Footnote 74 of SEC Release 34-70073.

Crewe Capital, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

4 Leasing Activity

The Company was committed to a non-cancellable sub-lease for office space in Salt Lake City, Utah with Crewe Capital Advisors LLC a related party. The lease expired and was not renewed.

The Company also rents an office in New York City, New York on a month-to-month basis.

5 Concentrations and Economic Dependency

The Company's revenues are related to consulting and/or investment banking fees as discussed in Note 2 above. There is no assurance of future revenues from such fees. However, management believes it has sufficient contacts in place to support operations for the foreseeable future.

The first and second largest customers accounted for approximately 29.4% and 14.2% of 2022 revenue, respectively.

The Company maintains its cash at a financial institutions in amounts that at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts through December 31, 2022 and does not believe there is any significant credit risk with respect to these deposits. As of December 31, 2022 there was an uninsured cash balance of $63,700.

6 Fair Value

Cash, receivables, accounts payable and other current liabilities are reflected in the financial statements at carrying value which approximates fair value because of the short-term maturity of these instruments.

7 Commitments and Contingencies

Pursuant to Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-1(e)(2) the Company may not authorize distributions to its members if such distributions cause the Company's net capital to fall below 120% of the Company's minimum net capital requirement. As of December 31, 2022 the Company was not in violation of this requirement.

The Company had no lease or equipment rental commitments (other than as disclosed in Note 4 above), no underwriting commitments, no contingent liabilities, and had not been named as a defendant in any lawsuit at December 31, 2022 or during the year then ended.

8 Related Party Transactions

Crewe Holdings, LLC, the majority member of Crewe Capital, LLC ("Capital") owns 8.9% of Crewe Advisors, LLC ("Advisors"), an SEC registered investment advisor. At times Capital may receive fees from Advisors for referrals that result in a placement fee relationship with Advisors. There were no significant transactions between Advisors and Capital during the year.

9 Anti-Money Laundering Policies and Procedures

The Company is required to implement policies and procedures relating to anti-money laundering, compliance, suspicious activities, and currency transaction reporting and due diligence on customers who open accounts with the Company. At December 31, 2022 the Company had implemented such policies and procedures.

10 Subsequent Events

The Company has performed an evaluation of events that have occurred subsequent to December 31, 2022, and through March 27, 2023 the date the financial statements were available to be issued. There have been no material subsequent events that occurred during such period that would require disclosure in this report or would be required to be recognized in the financial statements as of December 31, 2022.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To: The Members
Crewe Capital, LLC

I have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Rule 15c3-3 Exemption Statement, in which (1) Crewe Capital, LLC (the "Company") stated that the Company does not hold customers' cash or securities on behalf of customers and limits its business to effecting securities transactions via subscriptions (private placements) on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company and receiving transaction-based compensation for identifying potential merger and acquisition opportunities for clients and, therefore has no obligations under Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 pursuant to Footnote 74 of SEC Release 34-70073. In addition, as a result of the Company's having no obligations under SEC Rule 15c3-3, it may file an Exemption Report and (2) the Company stated that it had no exceptions under SEC Rule 15c3-3 throughout the year ended December 31, 2022. The Company did not directly or indirectly receive, hold or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, did not carry accounts of or for customers, and did not carry PAB accounts as defined in Rule 15c3-3. Management is responsible for compliance with 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 and its statements. My review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion. Based on my review, I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Crewe Capital, LLC Exemption Statement

Crewe Capital, LLC (the "Company") is a registered broker-dealer subject to Rule 17a-5 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5, "Reports to be made by certain brokers and dealers"). This Exemption Report was prepared as required by 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5(d)(1) and (4). To the best of its knowledge and belief, the Company states the following:

1. The Company does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3, and
2. The Company is filing this Exemption Report relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 because the Company limits its business activities exclusively to: effecting securities transactions via subscriptions (private placements) on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company and receiving transaction-based compensation for identifying potential merger and acquisition opportunities for clients, and the Company (1) did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, (other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of Rule 15c2-4 and/or funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company); (2) did not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

Crewe Capital, LLC

I, Robert S. King, swear (or affirm) that, to my best knowledge and belief, this Exemption Statement is true and correct.
