Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2023

Note 1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Activities

These financial statements were prepared on the basis of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The more significant of these principles used are described as follows:

Business activity and regulation:

Tobin & Company Securities LLC (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA"), and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"). The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Tobin & Company Investment Banking Group LLC (the "Parent"). The Company is a North Carolina limited liability company licensed in Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Puerto Rico, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, United States Virgin Islands, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming. As a registered broker-dealer, the Company primarily represents clients in capital-raise related activities composed primarily of private placement transactions structured as the sale of corporate stock or other securities. The Company also represents clients in merger and acquisition related activities composed of sell-side and buy-side transactions structured as the sale or purchase of corporate stock or other securities. The Company does not maintain custody of client funds nor engage in firm trading, brokerage activities or securities underwriting.

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

The Company maintains cash deposits with financial institutions that are federally insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"), as of June 30, 2023. The Company considers all investments with an original maturity of 90 days or less to be cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable:

Accounts receivable consist of fees or reimbursable expenses due from clients. The Company has not set up an allowance for doubtful accounts because, historically, accounts receivable have been collectable.

Fees income:

The Company's revenues are generated primarily through providing private placement related advisory services. The Company receives non-refundable retainer fees to compensate for the substantial research and analysis performed as part of the engagement. The Company recognizes these non-refundable advisory fees upon billing as they are in no way tied to the completion of a transaction. The remainder of any fee revenue generated by the Company is recognized upon the closing of a transaction.

Other revenues relate primarily to providing compliance services to registered representatives who choose the Company to assist them with regulatory compliance matters. The Company charges monthly retainer fees which are typically collected upfront on an annual basis under terms of agreements in place with the representatives.

Performance obligations in the Company's engagements vary dependent on the contract. Non-refundable fees include due diligence fees and monthly retainer fees in each managing broker dealer engagement. Non-refundable fees also include monthly retainer fees which are prepaid by the registered representatives on an annual basis. Transaction fees require a performance obligation of approval individual investors in managing broker dealer offerings. These fees are recognized as revenue when the issuer is invoiced on generally monthly basis after the performance obligation is satisfied. Some revenue is not recognized until the entire offering is approved and closed.

Distributions to Registered Representatives:

The Company contracts with registered representatives who close securities transactions through the Company. Success fees are paid to the Company by the issuer of the securities and the Company distributes those fees, less its commission and related expenses, to the registered representatives.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair value of assets and liabilities:

The carrying amounts of all financial instruments approximate their estimated fair values in the accompanying statement of financial condition.

Recently issued accounting pronouncements:

Accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") or other standards-setting bodies are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows. FASB has issued guidance for the recognition of revenue from contracts and engagements with clients. The core principal of the guidance is that an entity should recognize revenue to reflect the transfer services to clients in an amount equal to the consideration that the Company receives or expects to receive. The Company believes that it complies with this guidance.

Note 2. Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-I), which requires the maintenance of a minimum net capital of $5,000 and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At June 30, 2023, the Company had net capital of $32,310 which was $27,310 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 138.33 to 1 at June 30, 2023.

Note 3. Income Tax Status

The Company is classified as a limited liability company for federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is made in the financial statements of the Company. Taxable income or loss is reported in the income tax return of its member.

Management has determined that the Company has no uncertain tax positions that would require the Company to record a liability for unrecognized tax benefits. The Company's income tax returns have not been examined. Fiscal years ending on or after December 31, 2018 remain subject to examination by federal and state tax authorities.

Note 4. Commitments, Contingencies or Guarantees

Management is not aware of any commitments, contingencies or guarantees that might result in a loss or future obligation other than the following.

The 2019 novel coronavirus (or "COVID-19") has adversely affected, and may continue to adversely affect, economic activity globally, nationally and locally. It is unknown the extent to which COVID-19 may spread, may have a destabilizing effect on financial and economic activity and may increasingly have the potential to negatively impact the Company's and its customers' costs, demand for the Company's products and services and the U.S. economy. These conditions could adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations. Further, COVID-19 may result in health or other government authorities requiring the closure of the Company's operations or other businesses of the Company's customers and suppliers, which could significantly disrupt the Company's operations and the operations of the Company's customers. The extent of the adverse impact of the COVID-19 outbreak on the Company cannot be predicted at this time.

Tobin & Company Securities LLC

Note 5. Subsequent Events

Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date but before the financial statements are issued. Recognized subsequent events are events or transactions that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheet, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing financial statements. Nonrecognized subsequent events are events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the balance sheet but arose after that date. Management has reviewed events occurring through the date of the financial statements were available to be issued and no subsequent events occurred requiring accrual or disclosure.
