In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of June 30, 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Hubble Investments LLC

Notes to Financial Statements
June 30, 2023

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Hubble Investments LLC (the "Company") was organized in the State of Delaware on May 30, 2017, and is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). It has been a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC") since April 12, 2018. The Company is a single member limited liability company whose sole member is Hubble Holdings, LLC (the "Member"). The Grandparent/Parent of Company's Member is Propel(X), Inc. ("Grandparent" or "PoCM").

The Company provides accredited investors with private placement and investment banking consulting services and is generally compensated at the closing of such transactions in the form of a success fee.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Revenue is recognized when earned, while expenses and losses are recognized when incurred.

b) Cash

The Company's cash is held principally at one financial institution and at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has placed these funds in a high quality institution in order to minimize risk relating to exceeding insured limits.

c) Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at face amount with no allowance for doubtful accounts. An allowance for doubtful accounts is not considered necessary because probable uncollectible accounts are immaterial.

d) Revenue Recognition

Investment banking fees consist of placement fee and consulting revenues. Private placement revenues are recognized at the time the deal is closed upon completion of performance obligations. Consulting revenues are recorded in the period in which they are earned. Consulting revenues may be billed a few months at a time, therefore any unearned portion of the revenues are recorded as deferred revenues on the Statement of Financial Condition. There were no open contracts for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023, the Company's consulting fees amounted to $172,916 and placement fees totaled $10,187.

e) Income Taxes

As an LLC, the Company is treated as a disregarded entity for federal and state tax purposes. Any income tax liability is reported on the tax return of the parent entity and passed along to the Grandparent. The Company is subject to the California State LLC tax, which is based upon gross receipts as well as a minimum franchise tax.

The Company is required to file tax returns in both state and city tax jurisdictions. These tax returns are subject to examination by taxing authorities in the jurisdictions in which it operates in accordance with the normal statutes of limitations in the applicable jurisdiction. The statute of limitations for state purposes is generally three years, but may exceed this limitation depending upon the jurisdiction involved. Returns that were filed within the applicable statute remain subject to examination. As of June 30, 2023, state and city taxing authorities have not proposed any adjustment to the Company's tax position.

Hubble Investments LLC

Notes to Financial Statements
June 30, 2023

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

f) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires Management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company had no commitments, no contingent liabilities and had not been named as a defendant in any lawsuit at June 30, 2023 or during the fiscal year then ended. The Company had a net loss for the year but management believes this does not affect their ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's operations have sustained losses since its inception in 2018. The sole member has committed to continue providing capital to keep operations running. Management believes the sole member will continue to maintain the Company as a going concern.

4. Income Taxes

As discussed in Note 2, no provision of liability for income taxes is included in these financial statements.

The Company had foreign taxes withheld of $11,250 for transactions that occurred during the period ended June 30, 2023.

The accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America provides accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by the Company in its returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Company is subject to examination by State tax authorities, generally for three years after they are filed.

5. Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (the "FASB") has established the Accounting Standards Codification ("Codification" or "ASC") as the authoritative source of generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") recognized by the FASB. The principles embodied in the Codification are to be applied by nongovernmental entities in the preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP in the United States. New accounting pronouncements are incorporated into the ASC through the issuance of Accounting Standards Updates ("ASUs").

For the year ending June 30, 2023, various ASUs issued by the FASB were either newly issued or had effective implementation dates that would require their provisions to be reflected in the financial statements for the year then ended. The Company has either evaluated or is currently evaluating the implications, if any, of each of these pronouncements and the possible impact they may have on the Company's financial statements. In most cases, management has determined that the pronouncement has either limited or no application to the Company and, in all cases, implementation would not have a material impact on the financial statements taken as a whole.

Hubble Investments LLC

Notes to Financial Statements
June 30, 2023

6. Guarantees

FASB ASC 460, Guarantees, requires the Company to disclose information about its obligations under certain guarantee arrangements. FASB ASC 460 defines guarantees as contracts and indemnification agreements that contingently require a guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on changes in an underlying factor (such as an interest or foreign exchange rate, security or commodity price, an index or the occurrence or nonoccurrence of a specified event) related to an asset, liability or equity security of a guaranteed party. This guidance also defines guarantees as contracts that contingently require the guarantor to make payments to the guaranteed party based on another entity's failure to perform under an agreement as well as indirect guarantees of indebtedness of others.

The Company has issued no guarantees at June 30, 2023 or during the fiscal year ended.

7. Related Parties

The PoCM provides a web based service that matches investors to science and technology startups. The Company serves as the placement agent for these transactions, and all of the Company's placement fees of $10,187 were earned from this relationship. The Company is compensated by the startups at the closing of each placement.

The Company has an affiliated fund, that is managed by the sister company of its PoCM. This fund participated in many of the private placements as an investor.

The PoCM entered into an agreement with one of its investors, whereby the investor has agreed to provide office space for the PoCM for three years at no charge. The PoCM currently provides a portion of this space to the Company at no charge. And ASC 842 does not apply.

8. Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Uniform Net Capital Rule (15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 1500%. At June 30, 2023, the Company had net capital of $59,899 which was $54,899 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital percentage was 10%.

9. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated events subsequent to the statement of financial condition date for items requiring recording or disclosure in the financial statements. The evaluation was performed through the date the financial statements were available to be issued. Based upon this review, the Company has determined that there were no events which took place that would have a material impact on its financial statements.

10. 401K Plan

The Company implemented and operates an employer sponsored 401k plan. No employer contributions have been made to the plan during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Hubble Investments LLC does not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3, and (2) Hubble Investments LLC's other business activities contemplated by Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 ("Non-Covered Firm") and that the Company did not identify any exceptions to this assertion throughout the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023.
