MUTUAL OF OMAHA INVESTOR SERVICES, INC.
(A wholly owned subsidiary of Mutual of Omaha Holdings, Inc.)

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2022

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Mutual of Omaha Investor Services, Inc. (the “Company”) is a registered securities broker-dealer organized in 1993 and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Mutual of Omaha Holdings, Inc., (“Holdings”), which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company (“Mutual”). The Company is engaged in a single line of business as a securities broker-dealer, which comprises several classes of services, including principal transactions, agency transactions, and investment advisory to consumers directly through Mutual’s sales force. The Company is also the principal underwriter for variable products registered by Mutual subsidiaries: United of Omaha Life Insurance Company (“United”) and Companion Life Insurance Company (“Companion”). The Company operates on a fully-disclosed basis and executes and clears trades through an unaffiliated broker-dealer, Pershing LLC, or directly through the product sponsor. The Company is exempt from the provisions of Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Rule 15c3-3 under paragraph (k)(2)(ii).

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates — The preparation of the statement of financial condition in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the statement of financial condition. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Contract Balances — The Company has receivables from contracts with customers within dealer concessions & other commissions, advisory fees, and service fees as reported on the Statement of Financial Condition. There were no impairments of these receivables during the 12 months ending December 31, 2022.

The Company had contract liabilities related to advisory fee revenue with a carrying amount of $25,696 and $42,941 as of January 1, 2022 and December 31, 2022, respectively, included in accrued expenses and other liabilities.

Receivables — The Company’s receivables include service fees from fund families and insurance carriers for the sale products; dealer concessions and other commissions from fund distributors and insurance companies; advisory fees from third-party money managers for servicing customer accounts; credit card receivables for annual agent registration fees and other amounts receivable from third-party service providers that settle within thirty days. The Company does not consider these receivables to be a source of significant credit risk.

The Company’s agent accounts represent receivables from its registered representatives for expenses it pays on their behalf and commission chargebacks. The company recovers amounts in the agent accounts from future commission payments. Credit risk exists to the extent future commissions are insufficient to cover the receivable balance.

The Company generally collects or writes off agent accounts within two years. The Company estimates credit losses by applying a three-year average write-off rate to outstanding agent accounts. The Company may adjust that rate for current conditions that differ from the three-year calculation period. The allowance for credit losses for receivables from agent accounts and related activity were immaterial for all periods presented.

Income Taxes — Deferred tax liabilities and assets are determined based on the differences between financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. Primary differences relate to accrued vacation, bonus payments, prepaid assets, and unpaid client settlement costs. The effect of a change in tax rates on deferred tax assets and liabilities is recognized in the period that includes the enactment date.

Cash and Cash Equivalents — The Company considers money market funds to be cash equivalents. The carrying amounts for the money market funds equals their fair value. The money market mutual funds are classified as level 1 of the fair value hierarchy as the fair values are based on quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Total money market mutual funds included in cash and cash equivalents at December 31, 2022 were $3,448,758.

Concentrations — A significant portion of the Company’s business is with a limited number of fund companies, insurance carriers, variable product carriers, and fee-based money managers.

Subsequent Events — The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date the Statement of Financial Condition was issued and has determined that there are no significant events that require adjustment to or disclosure in the statement of financial condition.

3. NET CAPITAL

The Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires maintenance of minimum net capital, as defined in the rule. Under the rule, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital of the greater of $50,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, and not allow the ratio of “aggregate indebtedness” to “net capital” to exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2022, net capital was $2,062,892. Required net capital was $168,273 based on aggregate indebtedness of $2,524,091 and the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 1.22 to 1.

4. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Mutual and its subsidiaries provided data processing services, printing, group insurance, payable processing, promotional, and other services based upon written management agreements. Amounts payable to Mutual and its subsidiaries were $915,818 as of December 31, 2022 which includes amounts payable to Mutual and its subsidiaries for expenses and administrative services paid by Mutual on the Company’s behalf and indirect allocated expenses from Mutual.

Under an expense sharing agreement, the Company provides supervisory services to Mutual and its subsidiaries resulting in payments received of $238,150 for the year ended December 31, 2022. The company receives revenue for training, oversight, and other operational support to Mutual to promote the strategic growth and development of the agent sales force and division offices. During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company received fee revenues of $532,500 from Mutual. The Company settles all payables due to and from Mutual on a monthly basis.

The Company acts as the underwriter of individual variable annuities and variable universal life products for United and Companion. The block of business was fully reinsured to Security Benefit of Topeka, Kansas in 2004 and no new policies are being solicited. The Company receives retail and administrative compensation for United and Companion group variable annuities. During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company recorded a service fees receivable of $196,136, a dealer concessions receivable of $2,476, and an advisory fees receivable of $2,500 related to United and Companion.

Transactions with related parties may not be indicative of amounts which would have occurred had the parties not been related.

5. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

The Company participates in three plans sponsored by its ultimate parent, Mutual. These plans are a qualified, noncontributory defined benefit pension plan, a 401(k) defined contribution plan, and a postretirement benefit plan that provides certain health care and life insurance benefits for retirees. Substantially all employees are eligible for the 401(k) plan, while only employees hired before 1995 are eligible for the postretirement benefit plan. Effective January 1, 2005 the defined benefit plan was amended to freeze plan benefits for participants 40 years and under. No benefits are available under the defined benefit plan for employees hired on or after January 1, 2005. Employees meeting certain minimum requirements are eligible for participation in the pension plan. The Company has no legal obligation for benefits under these plans. Mutual of Omaha allocates expense amounts for these plans to the Company based on various cost allocation ratios.

6. INCOME TAXES

The Company is included in a consolidated U.S. Corporate Income Tax Return with Mutual and certain affiliates and files state income tax returns in various jurisdictions. The Company has a federal tax-sharing agreement whereby it pays to or receives from Mutual an amount equal to the federal income tax expense which the Company would have incurred had it filed a separate return. The tax sharing agreement contains no provision for state taxes and the Company is not required to settle amounts related to consolidated state filings.

As of December 31, 2022, the Company recorded a deferred tax asset of $340,445 included in other assets. The Company has a current state income tax receivable of $7,258 included in other receivables as of December 31, 2022.

The components of deferred income taxes as of December 31, 2022 were as follows:

Expenses deductible in subsequent periods	$ 72,227
State deferred tax assets	$ 8,827
Net Operating Loss Carryover	310,197
Deferred tax assets	$ 391,251
Prepaid assets	(50,806)
Deferred tax liabilities	(50,806)
Net deferred income tax asset	$ 340,445

As of December 31, 2022, the Company has a net operating loss carryforward of $1,477,125 that does not expire.

The Company classifies all interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions as income tax expense. As of December 31, 2022, there were no accrued uncertain tax positions recorded as an income tax liability in the statements of financial condition or as income tax expense in the statements of operations.

The statute of limitations remains open for the current and three preceding calendar years. The Internal Revenue Service has initiated an audit of Mutual of Omaha and subsidiaries' 2014-2018 federal income tax returns related to losses incurred and carried back to earlier years.

7. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company has provided guarantees to its clearing broker. Under the guarantees, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker for customers introduced by the Company that are unable to satisfy the terms of their contracts. Management believes the potential for the Company to be required to make payments under these agreements is remote. Accordingly, no amounts are recorded on the Statements of Financial Condition for these contingent liabilities. If the Company had unsecured amounts, they would be deducted from its net capital in accordance with Rule 15c3-1.

Various lawsuits have arisen in the ordinary course of the Company's business. The Company believes that its defenses in these various lawsuits are meritorious and the eventual outcome will not have a material effect on the Company's statement of financial condition.
