Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Member
Dunn Securities, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Dunn Securities, LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2023, the related statements of operations income, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements (collectively, the financial statements). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplemental Information

The supplementary information contained in The Schedule I, Computation of Net Capital Under SEC Rule 15c3-1, Schedule II, Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements Under Rule SEC 15c3-3 and Schedule III, Information Relating to the Possession or Control Requirements Under SEC Rule 15c3-3 have been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2023

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

DUNN Securities, LLC (the "Company") is a broker-dealer in securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company is considered exempt under 15c3-3(k)(1) as the Company does not receive customer funds or securities to complete transactions. The Company is a Delaware limited liability company, engaged in the wholesaling of mutual funds. The Company will not hold customer funds or safekeep customer securities.

Revenue Recognition

The Company has entered into a Consulting Agreement ("Consulting Agreement") with an affiliated company, DUNN Capital Management, LLC ("DUNN"). Under the terms of the Consulting Agreement the Company receives monthly compensation in return for services provided. Services provided by the Company include making Registered Investment Advisors and family offices aware of a mutual fund which DUNN provides trading services for and assisting DUNN establish its brand within the financial services industry with a focus on Registered Advisors and family offices. Amounts received under the Consulting Agreement are classified as consulting income on the Statement of Operations.

Expense Sharing Agreement

The Company has also entered into an Expense Sharing Agreement ("Expense Sharing Agreement") with DUNN whereas DUNN wishes to provide services for the benefit of the Company and the Company agrees to reimburse DUNN monthly for the fair value of those services. The Company is charged for time devoted by DUNN employees to activities of the Company inclusive of all costs of employment, both salary and benefits. In addition, the Company is charged an allocation of DUNN's overhead, including rent, insurance, phones for general usage and general office and utilities expense. Amounts paid under the Expense Sharing Agreement are classified as overhead and payroll cost sharing expense on the Statement of Operations.

Income Taxes

As the Company is a limited liability company, no provision for income taxes has been made in these financial statements because each member is individually liable for reporting income or loss based on his respective share of the Company's income and expenses as reported for income tax purposes.

Company management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Company, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2023, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require an adjustment to taxable income or disclosure in the financial statements. The Company's open tax years 2021 through 2023 remain subject to examination by tax authorities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Member
Dunn Securities, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (a) Dunn Securities, LLC identified the following:

1. The Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 under the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3(k)(1).
2. The Company met the identified exemption provisions in 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3(k) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Dunn Securities, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(1) of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3.
