HODES WEILL SECURITIES, LLC
(a wholly-owned subsidiary of Hodes Weill & Associates, LP)
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2023

Note 1. Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Hodes Weill Securities, LLC (the “Company”) is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Hodes Weill & Associates, LP (“HW&A”). The Company’s business activities include the private placement of securities and certain financial advisory services (including mergers and acquisitions). The Company follows the accounting and reporting requirements of broker-dealers. The Company was organized as a limited liability company in the state of Utah in December 1999.

A summary of significant accounting policies follows:

Cash and Cash Equivalents – Cash and cash equivalents includes all regular checking and savings accounts with maturity dates of less than 90 days. At December 31, 2023, the carrying amount and bank balance of deposits with financial institutions was $3,352,888, of which $250,000 was covered by federal depository insurance.

Income Taxes – As a single-member limited liability company, the Company’s activities are disregarded and reported with its owner for tax purposes. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded as the income tax effects of the Company’s activities flow directly to its member.

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Under FASB ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position includes an entity’s status and the decision not to file a return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that it has no uncertain tax positions for which a provision or liability for income taxes is necessary.

Use of Estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition – The Company adheres to ASU 2014-09 Revenue from Contracts with Customers and all subsequent amendments to the ASU (collectively, “ASC 606”). ASC 606 created a single framework for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers that fall within its scope. Under ASC 606 revenue is recognized upon satisfaction of performance obligations by transferring control over goods or service to a customer. Services within the scope of ASC 606 include advisory fees from fundraising activities and investment banking/merger & acquisition advisory services. Refer to Revenue Recognition Note: Revenue from Contracts with Customers for further discussion on the Company’s accounting policies for revenue sources within the scope of ASC 606.

Revenue from Contracts with Customers: Advisory Fees from Fundraising Activities and Investment Banking/Merger and Acquisition (M&A) Services - These services include agreements to provide advisory services to customers for which the Company charges the customers fees. The Company provides fundraising and investment banking/merger & acquisition advisory services.

The agreements with customers generally contain a non-refundable retainer or other form of upfront fee, as well as a success fee, which may be a fixed amount or represent a percentage of value that the customer receives, if and when the activity is completed ("success fee"). The retainer or other form of upfront fee often reduces any success fee subsequently invoiced upon the completion of the Company's services. The Company has evaluated its nonrefundable retainers or other form of upfront fee payments, to ensure that its fee relates to the transfer of a good or service, as a distinct performance obligation, in exchange for the retainer or other form of upfront fee. If a promised good or service is not distinct, the Company combines that good or service with other promised goods or services until it identifies a bundle of goods or services that is distinct or until completion of the Company's services. In some cases, that would result in the broker-dealer accounting for all the services promised in a contract as a single performance obligation and the retainer or other form of upfront fee classified as deferred revenue on the Statement of Financial Condition. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had $0 of deferred revenues.

Fair Value - The Company's financial instruments consist principally of cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses. The Company believes that the carrying amounts of all of its assets and liabilities approximate their current fair values.

Basis of Accounting - The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual basis of accounting for financial statement purposes, which is in accordance with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and is required by the SEC and FINRA.

Accounts Receivable - The accounts receivable shown on the Company's Statement of Financial Condition consists of trade accounts receivable from clients of the Company and is stated at the amount the Company expects to collect from such clients. In addition, the Company may charge interest to its clients on outstanding accounts receivable. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company charged interest in the amount of $627,353 on outstanding accounts receivable, which is included in the interest income amount on the Statement of Income and Changes in Member's Equity.

The Company considers whether estimated losses will occur as a result of the inability of its clients to make required payments and makes an assessment as to whether an allowance for doubtful account should be established. Management considers the following factors when determining the collectability of specific client accounts: credit-worthiness, past transaction history and changes in customer payment terms. If the Company becomes aware of a deterioration of a major customer's credit-worthiness, or if actual defaults are higher than the historical experience, management's estimates of the recoverability of amounts due the Company could be adversely affected. As of December 31, 2023, all of the Company's trade accounts receivable are deemed collectible. The terms of accounts receivable generally provide for payment over a 3 year period of time, with interest charged at a rate ranging from 0-6%.

The Company considers losses from accounts receivable in foreign currency and does not believe the risk is material to the financial statements. Accounts receivable at December 31, 2023 and 2022 were $25,745,874 and $28,232,957, respectively.

Commitments and Contingencies - The Company does not expect that any contractual obligations, legal proceedings, or any other contingent obligations incurred in the normal course of business will have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial statements, except for a transaction with respect to which the Company has had discussions with a client over approximately $1,250,000 of fees. The Company believes the full amount recorded in accounts receivable is in compliance with its engagement letter and will be collected, and accordingly, these financial statements are unchanged in regard to this matter. The amount is material to these financial statements.

The Company is evaluating new accounting standards and will implement as required.

Note 2. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2023, the Company had net capital of $2,408,991, which was $2,346,065 in excess of its required net capital equal to the greater of (i) 6-2/3% of aggregate indebtedness or (ii) $5,000. At December 31, 2023, the Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was .3918 to 1.

Note 3. Related Party Transactions

Effective July 1, 2022, the Company entered into a revised expense sharing agreement with HW&A which increased the monthly payment from $840,000 to $875,000 to cover facilities, personnel and operational costs incurred by HW&A. The payment is based on the percentage of HW&A's revenue and clients compared to those of the Company for 2021, as adjusted. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company reported total expenses of $10,872,000 under the agreement, which is included in the Statement of Income and Changes in Member's Equity, and includes an additional amount charged to the Company in the amount of $372,000 for an increase in non-recoverable travel expenses incurred by HW&A during 2023. Excluding the expense sharing agreement, the Company is responsible for paying its own expenses directly attributable to its business and regulatory obligations, such as registration or licensing fees, annual audit and SIPC assessments.

At December 31, 2023, the Company owed HW&A $362,335, which is included on the Statement of Financial Condition.

Note 4. Foreign Sub-Agent Fees

In instances where the Company is required due to foreign regulatory rules, or otherwise feels it is prudent to use a foreign sub-agent to assist in marketing private placement offerings to non-US investors, the Company will engage a foreign sub-agent licensed under applicable foreign law, if applicable, to provide such services. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company incurred $369,616 of foreign sub-agent fees related to foreign sub-agents who successfully raised capital in connection with the Company's private placement offerings. These amounts are included in the Statement of Income and Changes in Member's Equity.

Note 5. Concentration

During the year ended December 31, 2023, four clients of the Company comprised approximately 58% of the Company's revenues, in the amounts of 22%, 14%, 11% and 11%, respectively.

Note 6. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 28, 2024, the date the financial statements were issued. The Company has identified no events that require disclosure under Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic 855, Subsequent Events.
