Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Member of Standard Chartered Securities (North America) LLC and the Board of Directors of Standard Chartered Holdings

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Standard Chartered Securities (North America) LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2023, and the related statements of income, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company, as of December 31, 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Supplemental Information

The information contained in Schedule I through II (the "supplemental information") has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2018.

Standard Chartered Securities (North America) LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
Year Ended December 31, 2023

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Standard Chartered Securities (North America) LLC (the “Company”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Standard Chartered Holdings (the “Parent”), is a Delaware corporation and a registered broker with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) that is regulated by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”).

The Company, originally owned by Standard Chartered Bank of the United Kingdom (“Standard Chartered Bank”), was formed upon receiving substantially all the assets, liabilities, and operations of SCB Securities Limited, a UK company, and simultaneously acquiring and merging its operations into a United States (“U.S.”) based broker-dealer. On April 30, 2017, Standard Chartered Bank contributed to the Parent all its shares of the Company. As part of the transaction, the Company converted from a corporation to a limited liability company (“an LLC”) on May 17, 2017.

The Company focuses primarily on sales of Asia, Africa, and the Middle East debt products to U.S. investors.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The Company is a registered broker-dealer in the United States of America and the accompanying financial statements and notes have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”).

Accounts Receivable

The Company provides for doubtful accounts when current market conditions indicate that collection of an account is doubtful. The receivables as of December 31, 2023, are considered collectible and therefore no allowance for doubtful accounts was considered necessary.

Credit Losses on Financial Instruments

The Company recognizes and measures credit losses in accordance with FASB ASC 326, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (“ASC 326”). The FASB issued Accounting Standard Update (“ASU”) No. 2016-13, “Financial Instruments — Credit Losses (Topic 326) — Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments.” This ASU amends several aspects of the measurement of credit losses on certain financial instruments, including replacing the existing incurred credit loss model and other models with the Current Expected Credit Losses (“CECL”) model. Under CECL, the allowance for credit losses on financial assets that are measured at amortized cost reflects management’s estimate of credit losses over the remaining expected life of such assets. Expected credit losses for newly recognized financial assets, as well as changes to expected credit losses during the period, are recognized in earnings.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Revenue and Expense Recognition from Securities Transactions

The FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), requiring an entity to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers. Securities transactions and the related revenues and expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur. The Company believes that the performance obligation is satisfied on the trade date as that is when the underlying financial instrument or purchaser is identified, the pricing agreed upon and the risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the customer.

Advisory Fee

The Company provides advisory services on mergers and acquisitions. Revenue for advisory arrangements is generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed (the closing date of the transaction) or the contract is cancelled. However, for certain contracts, revenue is recognized over time for advisory arrangements in which the performance obligations are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the customer. In some circumstances, significant judgement is needed to determine the timing and measure of progress appropriate for revenue recognition under a specific contract.

Underwriting Fee

From time to time, the Company is included as a direct subscriber in syndications which are executed at Standard Chartered Bank. The Company recognizes revenue at consummation of a deal and believes that is when the performance obligation is satisfied. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had receivables relating to these deals of approximately $1,065,000 compared to approximately $701,000 as of December 31, 2022, which were unrelated to current receivables.

Cash

As of December 31, 2023, the Company maintained a cash balance of approximately $51,715,000 with a financial institution which exceeded the Federal Deposit Insurance Company ("FDIC") insurance limits. In addition, the Company maintained a cash balance of approximately $573,000 with an affiliated bank which is not FDIC insured. The Company has not experienced any losses and does not believe it is subject to any significant credit risk on these balances.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. Federal, state and local income tax purposes. The Company's financial results are included in the Parent's tax filings, and its share of income taxes is included in the income tax expense section of the income statement, and any related payables or receivables will be reflected in related party transactions utilizing a separate company return method to record income taxes.

The Company provided all income taxes in accordance with the asset and liability method and recognizes deferred income taxes for the expected future tax consequences of differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred taxes of a change in tax rates is recognized as income in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company has adopted ASU019-12 ("Topic 740") to simplify the accounting for income taxes. The adoption of the ASU did not have a material impact on its financial statements and related disclosures.

3. Related Party Transactions

For the year ended December 31, 2023, commission income earned from related parties was approximately $15,997,000 and the receivables due from these related parties are approximately $4,548,000 as of December 31, 2023. The receivables due from related parties was approximately $3,415,000 as of December 31, 2022.

As of December 31, 2023, the Company maintained a $1,500,000 cash deposit with a related party as collateral for covered transactions under Reg W.

The Company's December 31, 2023, due to related parties balance of approximately $72,000 is primarily related to tax sharing arrangements with related parties. The payables due to related parties was approximately $2,302,000 as of December 31, 2022.

The Company has an expense sharing agreement with subsidiaries of the Parent. Under the agreement, the related companies provide the Company with office facilities and other general and administrative support in exchange for monthly fees. The monthly fees are based on an allocation of the related companies' expenses. Total costs under the agreement for the year ended December 31, 2023, was approximately $13,132,000 of which approximately $12,092,000 relates to compensation and benefits, approximately $480,000 was included in occupancy and equipment and approximately $560,000 of operational cost included in other expenses in the accompanying statement of income.

3. Related Party Transactions (continued)

The Company maintains its insurance coverage with a related entity, at a cost of approximately $11,000 per annum, and is included in other expenses in the accompanying statement of income.

4. Regulatory Net Capital Requirement

As a registered broker-dealer and a member of FINRA, the Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 (the "Rule") of the Securities and Exchange Commission which requires a broker-dealer to have at all times sufficient liquid assets to cover current indebtedness. The Company has elected to use the alternative method, as permitted by the Rule, which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of $250,000 or 2% of aggregate debit items arising from customer transactions, as defined. At December 31, 2023, the Company's net capital under the Rule was $51,417,374, which exceeded the minimum requirements of $250,000 by $51,167,374. The net capital rule may effectively restrict distributions to the Parent.

5. Income Taxes

Provision for income taxes consists of the following:

Current
Federal	$ 1,741,439
State and local	113,848
Adjust prior year tax position	(7,329)
	$ 1,847,958

For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company has determined that there were no material uncertain tax positions. At December 31, 2023, the Company's income tax returns for the years ended 2020, 2021 and 2022 are subject to examination by tax authorities. The current income tax expense (net) represents U.S. federal, state, local income taxes, currently payable.

Standard Chartered Securities (North America) LLC

5. Income Taxes (continued)

The Company adopted the general accounting principle regarding uncertain tax positions. This standard prescribes a more-likely-than-not threshold for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken by the Company.

Income taxes net payable (receivable)

Balance at January 1, 2023	$ -
Provision for current taxes	1,855,287

Income taxes net payable (receivable) at December 31, 2023	$ 65,485

6. Financial Instruments with Off-Balance-Sheet Risk

In the normal course of business, the Company executes, as agent, securities transactions on behalf of customers. If the agency transactions do not settle because of failure to perform by either the customer or the counterparty, the Company may be obligated to discharge the obligations of the nonperforming party and, as a result, may sustain a loss if the value of the security is different from the contract amount of the transaction.

7. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date the financial statements were issued. No subsequent events were noted through the report date.
