(A Wholly-Owned Subsidiary of Foreside Financial Group, LLC (d/b/a ACA Group))
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT
DECEMBER 31, 2024

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION

Quasar Distributors, LLC (the “Company”), a limited liability company, is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Foreside Financial Group, LLC (“Foreside”) and a direct subsidiary of Foreside Distributors, LLC (the “Parent”). The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as a broker dealer and is a member of both the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”).

The limited liability company operating agreement provides for the Company to exist into perpetuity.

The Company serves as the distributor for various investment companies (the “Funds”). Substantially all of the Company's revenues are earned from the Funds or from the Funds' advisors (collectively, the “Advisors”). In accordance with the structure of the Company, sales of the Funds' shares are executed by unaffiliated third party broker dealers. The Company is also engaged in registered representative services.

The Company has identified the President as the chief operating decision maker, who uses net income to evaluate the results of the business, predominantly in the forecasting process, to manage the Company. Additionally, the chief operating decision maker uses excess net capital, which is not a measure of profit and loss, to make operational decisions while maintaining capital adequacy, such as whether to reinvest profits or pay distributions. The Company's operations constitute a single operating segment and therefore, a single reportable segment, because the chief operating decision maker manages the business activities using information of the Company as a whole. The measure of segment assets is reported on the Statement of Financial Condition as total assets.

The accompanying financial statement has been prepared from the separate records maintained by the Company and, due to certain transactions and agreements with affiliated entities, may not necessarily be indicative of the financial condition that would have existed, had the Company operated as an unaffiliated entity.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of the financial statement in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement. Actual results could differ from those amounts.

CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid temporary cash investments with an original maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

At December 31, 2024, the Company had no cash equivalents.

RECEIVABLES

The Company extends unsecured credit in the normal course of business to its clients. The Company accounts for estimated credit losses on financial assets measured at an amortized cost basis in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 326-20, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses. FASB ASC 326-20 requires the Company to estimate expected credit losses over the life of its financial assets as of the reporting date based on relevant information about past events, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. The Company records the estimate of expected credit losses as an allowance for credit losses. For financial assets measured at an amortized cost basis, the allowance for credit losses is reported as a valuation account on the balance sheet that adjusts the asset’s amortized cost basis. Changes in the allowance for credit losses are reported as credit loss expense in earnings. As of December 31, 2024, the Company did not have an allowance for credit losses established since, based on the Company’s analysis, the Company does not expect any credit losses over the life of its financial assets. Past due accounts are written off by management when deemed uncollectible on a case-by-case basis.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

INCOME TAXES

The Company is organized as a limited liability company (“LLC”) with Foreside as the only member, and as a single member LLC is treated as a disregarded entity under the Internal Revenue Code. As such, income, losses, and other tax attributes are primarily passed through to Foreside. Foreside is organized as an LLC that has elected to be treated as a corporation under the Internal Revenue Code. As such, income, losses, and other tax attributes are taxed at the entity level.

NOTE 3 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The financial statement has been prepared from the separate records maintained by the Company. The Company shares office space and equipment with affiliates, which are under common control of Foreside. Accordingly, the Company has been allocated a portion of such shared costs. Also, designated Foreside personnel provided services specifically to the Company and the Company received all these associated personnel costs. The Parent provides administrative, legal, human resource and other general support services, the costs of which are allocated to the Company. During the year ended December 31, 2024, these allocated expenses totaled $4,174,177. At December 31, 2024, amounts due to the Parent totaled $371,754, which is included in “Due to related parties” in the Statement of Financial Condition.

At December 31, 2024, "Due to related parties" also included $63,215, which resulted from expenses paid on behalf of the Company by its affiliates.

The Parent agrees to financially assist the Company and is committed to provide such funds, as needed, to operate the business.

During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company made capital distributions to the Parent totaling $8,045,000.

NOTE 4 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENT

The Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital of the greater of $25,000 or 6-2/3% of aggregate indebtedness and the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital not to exceed 15 to 1. The rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn, or cash distributions paid, if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2024, the Company had net capital of $775,876, which was $572,262 in excess of its minimum required net capital of $203,614. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital at December 31, 2024 was 3.94 to 1.

The Company is a fund member of the NSCC which requires registered broker dealers to have $50,000 in excess net capital over the minimum net capital requirement imposed by the SEC.

NOTE 5 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

INDEMNIFICATIONS

The Company provides representations and warranties to counterparties in connection with a variety of commercial transactions and occasionally indemnifies them against potential losses caused by the breach of those representations and warranties. These indemnifications generally are standard contractual terms and are entered into in the normal course of business. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements cannot be known; however, the Company expects any risk of loss to be remote.

CREDIT RISK

The Company maintains checking accounts in a financial institution. The accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). At times, cash may be uninsured or in deposit accounts that exceed the FDIC insurance limit. The Company has not experienced any losses in the accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant risk on cash. Management periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that any potential credit loss is minimal.

NOTE 5 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES (CONTINUED)

LITIGATION

In the normal course of business, the Company may be involved in legal proceedings, claims and assessments arising from the ordinary course of business. Such matters are subject to many uncertainties, and outcomes are not predictable with assurance.

The Company is currently involved in ongoing legal proceedings related to an investment company for which the Company served as distributor. Amounts to be paid by the Company, if any, to settle these matters cannot be reasonably estimated at this time.

NOTE 6 - AGREEMENTS

The Company may enter into Dealer, Distribution, Networking, Service or similar type Selling Agreements with the Funds' various intermediaries (including third party broker dealers, banks and third party administrators) related to the sale of the shares of the Funds and the servicing of the Funds' shareholders. The Company may pay these intermediaries 12b-1 fees and shareholder services fees or commissions as outlined in their respective agreements provided that the Company first receives such payments from the Funds.

NOTE 7 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated the impact of all events and transactions occurring after the balance sheet date through the date this financial statement was issued, and has determined that there were no subsequent events requiring recognition or disclosure.
