Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024

1. Description of Business

Skyway Capital Markets, LLC (the “Company”) is a Florida limited liability company. The Company is a broker dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company was formed to provide several classes of services including investment banking, debt financing, private placements and financial advisory services. The Company provides such services to companies throughout the continental United States of America. The corporate headquarters is located in Tampa, Florida. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Caymus Capital Holdings, LLC (“Caymus”).

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Company are prepared under the accrual basis of accounting, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

b. Use of Management Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing these financial statements in accordance with GAAP. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

c. Cash

Cash is maintained at major financial institutions and, at times, balances may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has never experienced any losses related to these balances. As of December 31, 2024, the Company had cash deposits of $1,331,853 in excess of federally insured limits.

d. Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are billed based on the terms of the individual contracts with the Company’s customers or amounts due for expense reimbursement. Receivables for success fees are considered past due two business days after the transaction closing, unless other payment arrangements have been agreed to. Other receivables are generally considered past due if not paid within 30 days of the invoice date.

Interest is not typically charged on past due receivables.

Skyway Capital Markets, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

e. Allowance for Credit Losses

The Company recognizes an expected allowance for credit losses with respect to its accounts receivable. In addition, also at each reporting date, this estimate is updated to reflect any changes in credit risk since the receivable was initially recorded. The estimate is calculated on a pooled basis where similar risk characteristics exist. Accounts receivable are evaluated individually when they do not share similar risk characteristics which could exist in circumstances where amounts are considered at risk or uncollectible. This estimate is adjusted for management's assessment of current conditions, reasonable and supportable forecasts regarding future events, and any other factors deemed relevant by the Company. The Company believes historical loss information is a reasonable starting point in which to calculate the expected allowance for credit losses. The Company writes off receivables when there is information that indicates the debtor is facing significant financial difficulty and there is no possibility of recovery. If any recoveries are made from any accounts previously written off, they will be recognized in income or an offset to credit loss expense in the year of recovery, in accordance with the entity's accounting policy election. The total amount of write-offs was $52,500 for the year ending December 31, 2024. No allowance for credit losses was considered necessary at December 31, 2024.

f. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is calculated by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, generally three to five years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to income when incurred. Betterments and renewals are capitalized. When property and equipment are sold or otherwise disposed of, the asset account and related accumulated depreciation account are relieved, and any gain or loss is included in income.

g. Revenues

Revenue Recognition. The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") ASU 2014-09 Revenue from Contracts with Customers and all subsequent amendments to the ASU (collectively, "ASC 606"). The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the individual contract terms.

Skyway Capital Markets, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Private placement fees. The Company underwrites securities for business entities that want to raise funds through a sale of securities. Revenues are earned from fees arising from securities offerings in which the Company acts as an underwriter. Revenue is recognized on the trade date (the date on which the Company places the securities from the issuer). The Company believes that the trade date is the appropriate point in time to recognize revenue for securities underwriting transactions as there are no significant actions which the Company needs to take subsequent to this date and the issuer obtains the control and benefit of the capital markets offering at that point. Underwriting costs are recognized in expense at the time the related revenues are recorded. In the event that transactions are not completed, and the securities are not issued, the Company immediately expenses those costs.

Merger and acquisition advisory fees. The Company provides advisory services on mergers and acquisitions. Revenue for advisory arrangements is generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed (the closing date of the transaction) or the contract is cancelled. However, for certain contracts, revenue is recognized over time for advisory arrangements in which the performance obligations are simultaneously provided by the Company and consumed by the customer. In some circumstances, significant judgment is needed to determine the timing and measure of progress appropriate for revenue recognition under a specific contract.

For the year ended December 31, 2024 investment banking and advisory services consists of the following:

Private placement fees	$ 39,278,869
Merger and acquisition advisory fees	7,595,528
Total	$ 46,874,397

Other Income. Other income consists of reimbursed expenses and is recognized when the underlying expense is incurred.

h. Income Taxes

The Company is treated as a partnership for income tax purposes. As a result, the member will report the entire taxable income on their income tax returns. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in these financial statements.

Skyway Capital Markets, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

The Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic 740, "Income Taxes," requires an entity to recognize the financial statement impact of a tax position when it is more likely than not that the position will not be sustained upon examination. If the tax position meets the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold, the tax effect is recognized at the largest amount of the benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Any difference between the tax position taken in the tax return and the tax position recognized in the financial statements using the criteria above results in the recognition of a liability in the financial statements for the unrecognized benefit. Similarly, if a tax position fails to meet the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold, the benefit taken in the tax return will also result in the recognition of a liability in the financial statements for the full amount of the unrecognized benefit. The Company has evaluated its tax positions and determined that there are none that need to be recognized as of December 31, 2024. The Company's income tax returns are no longer subject to examination by U.S. taxing authorities for years prior to 2021.

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15-to-1 (and the rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10-to-1). At December 31, 2024, the Company had net capital of $940,993, which was $890,993 in excess of its required minimum net capital of $50,000. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was 67.57%.

4. Leases

On November 30, 2016, the Company entered into an eighty-four-month lease agreement commencing March 1, 2017, for its main office facility. The lease, as amended, has a term lasting through July 2029 and provides for the payment of common area maintenance as well as an allocable share of increases in property taxes. The lease was collateralized by a $350,000 letter of credit which was terminated in December 2024.

On January 31, 2023, the Company entered into a forty-month lease agreement commencing March 1, 2023, for additional office facilities in Atlanta, GA.

Right of use assets and lease liabilities are disclosed as separate line items in the statement of financial position and are valued based on the present value of the future minimum lease payments at the commencement date. As our lease does not provide an implicit rate, we used our incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at the adoption date in determining the present value of future payments. Lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Skyway Capital Markets, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements

4. Leases (continued)

The Company's operating lease obligations are for the Company's office facilities. The Leases are fully net leases, with the Company separately paying real and personal property taxes, all third-party assessments, common area maintenance charges, maintenance costs and insurance expenses.

The components of lease expense and other lease information as of and during the year ended December 31, 2024 are as follows:

Operating leases cost:	$326,450
Cash paid for amount included in the measurement of lease liabilities operating cash flows from operating leases:	$331,947
At December 31, 2024:
Operating leases right of use assets:	$1,453,373
Operating leases liabilities:	$1,518,021
Weighted average remaining lease term-operating leases:	3.9 years
Weighted average discount rate:	5.50%

Future minimum lease payments under non-cancellable leases as of December 31, 2024, reconciled to our operating lease liability presented on the statement of financial position are as follows:

Year Ended December 31	Amount
2025	$ 407,075
2026	376,942
2027	350,739
2028	366,033
2029	217,223
Total future minimum lease payments	1,718,012
Less interest	(199,991)
Total operating leases liability	$1,518,021

5. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company can be subject to litigation, arbitration settlements, and regulatory assessments which arise in the ordinary course of business as a registered broker-dealer. The Company recognizes a liability and expense for any such matters at the time exposure to loss is more than remote and an amount of the loss is reasonably determinable. In the opinion of management, there are no outstanding matters at December 31, 2024 requiring contingent loss recognition.

Skyway Capital Markets, LLC
Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024

6. Segment Reporting

The Company is engaged in a single line of business as a securities broker-dealer, which is comprised of several classes of services, including investment banking merger and acquisition advisory fees and private placement fees. The Company has identified its Chief Executive Officer as the chief operating decision maker (“CODM”), who uses net income to evaluate the results of the business, predominantly in the forecasting process, to manage the Company. Additionally, the CODM uses excess net capital (see Note 3), which is not a measure of profit and loss, to make operational decisions while maintaining capital adequacy, such as whether to reinvest profits or pay dividends. The Company’s operations constitute a single operating segment and therefore, a single reportable segment, because the CODM manages the business activities using information of the Company as a whole. The accounting policies used to measure the profit and loss of the segment are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies.

7. Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events occurring subsequent to the Statement of Financial Condition date through March 10, 2025 (Financial Statement issuance date) determining no events require additional disclosure.

on Exemption Report

To the Member
Skyway Capital Markets, LLC
Tampa, Florida:

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Skyway Capital Markets, LLC (the "Company") identified that it is considered a "Non-Covered Firm" exempt from the provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3 and is filing its Exemption Report relying on footnote 74 to SEC Release 34-70073, and as discussed in Q&A 8 of the related FAQ issued by the SEC staff. In the accompanying Exemption report, the Company's management stated that the identified exemption provisions have been met through the most recent fiscal year without exception.

The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the provisions contemplated by Footnote 74 of SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 and related SEC Staff Frequently Asked Questions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
