143 Notices of Covered Action (See Appendix A)

PRELIMINARY DETERMINATION OF THE CLAIMS REVIEW STAFF

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) received whistleblower award claims from ██████████ in response to the Notices of Covered Action set forth in Appendix A hereto. Pursuant to Section 21F of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) and Rule 21F-10 promulgated thereunder, the Claims Review Staff (“CRS”) has evaluated these claims in accordance with the criteria set forth in Rules 21F-1 through 21F-17 promulgated under the Exchange Act. For the reasons discussed below, the CRS has preliminarily determined that ██████████ is ineligible for an award in these matters or in any future covered or related actions.

Rule 21F-8 of the Exchange Act sets forth criteria a claimant must meet to be eligible for a whistleblower award. In particular, Rule 21F-8(c)(7) states that “you are not eligible” for an award under either of two conditions:

In your whistleblower submission, your other dealings with the Commission, or your dealings with another authority in connection with a related action, you [i] knowingly and willfully make any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation, or [ii] use any false writing or document knowing that it contains any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or entry with intent to mislead or otherwise hinder the Commission or another authority.

17 C.F.R. § 240.21F-8(c)(7). See also Section 21F(i) of the Exchange Act.

The CRS preliminarily finds that ██████████ has knowingly and willfully made false, fictitious, or fraudulent statements and representations to the Commission over a course of years and continues to do so. Specifically, we preliminarily find that each of the passages set forth in Appendix B—which are taken from ██████████ TCRs, emails to Commission officials, and WB-APPs—are patently false or fictitious. We also preliminarily find that ██████████ continued submission of WB-APPs in which ██████████ declares that ██████████ is entitled to an award are patently false

given that all but one of the 196 WB-APPs that [REDACTED] has filed to date lack even a superficial factual nexus to the covered actions for which [REDACTED] is seeking an award.²

Moreover, we preliminarily find that [REDACTED] knowing and willful state of mind in making these statements is evidenced by the following: (i) the vague, unsupported, and utterly incredible nature of [REDACTED] statements in Appendix B; (ii) [REDACTED] continued submission of the WB-APPs that lack any factual nexus to the covered actions; and (iii) [REDACTED] persistent refusal to withdraw [REDACTED] numerous unsupported claims or to change [REDACTED] behavior in spite of repeated requests and explanations by the Office of the Whistleblower (“OWB”).⁴

[REDACTED] has submitted frivolous and unsupported WB-APPs of the type described above relating to almost every single Notice of Covered Action issued by the OWB to date. [REDACTED] unceasing submission of baseless claims has harmed the rights of legitimate whistleblowers and hindered the Commission’s implementation of the whistleblower program by, among other

² Even for the sole covered action that did bear a superficial factual nexus—[REDACTED]—the record demonstrates that the information that [REDACTED] claimed in [REDACTED] WB-APP led to the successful enforcement of the action was in no way relied upon—i.e., the information did not cause the staff to open the initial investigation nor did it contribute in any way to the success of the [REDACTED] action.

⁴ The OWB has engaged in numerous communications with [REDACTED] to explain the rules governing the whistleblower program and its view of the deficiencies of [REDACTED] submissions, and to give [REDACTED] the opportunity to correct [REDACTED] actions. For example, on February 1, 2013, the OWB called [REDACTED] and explained the basic premise of the Commission’s whistleblower program, and the rules pursuant to which the Commission may pay an award. During that call, the OWB explained the factual nexus that must exist between the tip [REDACTED] submits and the Notice of Covered Action for which [REDACTED] requests an award. The OWB made it clear during that call that repeatedly filing claims for whistleblower awards that have no relation to the facts in the underlying matter will not result in an award under the whistleblower program. Similarly, on February 7, 2013 and April 4, 2013, the OWB advised [REDACTED] in writing that [REDACTED] numerous submissions for whistleblower awards failed to demonstrate the factual nexus required by Rule 21F-4(c). Notwithstanding the OWB’s efforts, [REDACTED] has continued [REDACTED] bad-faith conduct.

things, delaying the Commission's ability to finalize meritorious awards to other claimants and consuming significant staff resources.⁵

For these reasons, the CRS has preliminarily determined that, pursuant to Rule 21F-8(c)(7) of the Exchange Act, [REDACTED] is not eligible to be considered for whistleblower awards in these matters or in any future covered or related actions. Accordingly, if this determination becomes the final determination of the Commission, the OWB should summarily reject all pending and future whistleblower award claims submitted by [REDACTED].⁶

By: Claims Review Staff
Dated: March 13, 2014

⁵ For example, [REDACTED] unsuccessfully requested reconsideration of the Preliminary Determination denying [REDACTED] award application in SEC v. Andrey C. Hicks and Locust Offshore Management, LLC, 1:11-cv-11888-RGS (D. Mass. 2011) (NoCA 2012-27), and as a result both consumed considerable staff effort with [REDACTED] frivolous claim and caused a delay in the Commission's ability to make a final determination to the three legitimate whistleblowers in this matter. This is to say nothing of the time and effort OWB staff expended to prepare the administrative record and other materials for an additional 51 claims that the Commission previously denied. In the Matter of the Claims for Awards by [REDACTED] (March 19, 2013).

⁶ We caution [REDACTED] that we will not entertain any attempt by [REDACTED] to withdraw [REDACTED] WB-APPs following the issuance of this Preliminary Determination given: (i) [REDACTED] previous gamesmanship with withdrawing and then seeking to reinstate a WB-APP; and (ii) [REDACTED] repeated unwillingness to withdraw these frivolous applications when [REDACTED] had a reasonable opportunity to do so, see supra note 4, and that [REDACTED] attempt now to change course would simply be a transparent effort to evade the consequences of [REDACTED] bad faith conduct.
