Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage:
Records filed before January 1, 2001 and paper records filed after January 1, 2001 in the SEC's custody are maintained on paper, microfilm, or magnetic tape and in a computer system. Form ADV applications for registration, Form ADV amendments and Form ADV-W notices of withdrawal filed electronically on the IARD after January 1, 2001 in the NASDR's custody are maintained in electronic format (IARD).

Retrievability:
These records are retrievable by the name of, or a file number assigned to, the registrant. Individual name access to these records is available through the SEC's Name-Relationship Search Index.

Safeguards:
Non-computer records in the SEC's custody are maintained in a central records facility that only authorized individuals may access. The facility is locked, with security cameras and a 24-hour security guard. Computer records, which are subject to data integrity controls, require passcodes for database access.

Retention and disposal:
The records in the SEC's custody are transferred to the Federal Records Center periodically for storage. They are controlled by file number and retained under 17 CFR 200.80f.
