The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued an Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings (OIP) in this proceeding, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, on September 25, 2013.

Today, this Office received an email from Troy Lyndon (Lyndon), Respondent's former Chief Executive Officer and Chairman and current controlling shareholder, asking, inter alia, that I dismiss this proceeding. I construe this request as a Motion for Summary Disposition (Motion), pursuant to Rule 250 of the Commission's Rules of Practice. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.250. The email attaches documents, which I construe as exhibits to the Motion. The Motion is denied without prejudice. Leave to file motions for summary disposition and a briefing schedule will be addressed at the prehearing conference scheduled for November 5, 2013.

As previously discussed in the October 25, 2013, Order in this proceeding, the Office of the Secretary (Secretary) provided evidence that the OIP was served on Respondent at the address listed in its last filing with the Commission by Express Mail on September 27, 2013, in accordance with Rule 141(a)(2)(ii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.141(a)(2)(ii). There was no timely Answer by Respondent, and I accordingly issued an Order to Show Cause on October 16, 2013. See Left Behind Games, Inc., Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 963 (Oct. 16, 2013). On October 21, 2013, Lyndon emailed this Office representing that he had resigned as Chief Executive Officer and Chairman in order to comply with an officer and director bar he agreed to as part of a prior civil settlement with the Commission, that Respondent had no current officers or directors, and that he retained voting control of Respondent. I construed the October 21 email as Respondent's Answer and response to the Order to Show Cause. See Left Behind Games, Inc., Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 993 (Oct. 25, 2013). It remains unclear, however, whether Lyndon is able to represent or answer for Respondent, or, if he is not, if there is anyone who can represent the company in accordance with the Commission's Rules of Practice.

The parties should be prepared to discuss the representation of Respondent at the November 5, 2013, prehearing conference. A respondent corporation presumptively must be represented by an attorney or bona fide officer. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.102(b). Because there currently appear to be no officers or directors of Respondent, Lyndon, by virtue of his shareholder control, is evidently in the best position to advocate for Respondent. The public interest strongly favors giving Lyndon the opportunity to be heard, and accordingly, pursuant to Rule 210(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, I will allow Lyndon to participate in the prehearing conference notwithstanding that he is no longer a corporate officer. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.210(f). Upon a sufficient showing of compliance with Rule 102(b), I will also allow any other representative of Respondent to participate in the prehearing conference.

There is no evidence that today's email was filed with the Secretary, so this Office sent it to the Secretary to have it entered into the record as the Motion. The parties are reminded that all filings must be made pursuant to, and in accordance with, Rules 151 and 152 of the Commission's Rules of Practice; notably, though courtesy copies may be sent electronically, filings must be made in hard copy with the Secretary. See 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.151, .152.

Respondent is also hereby on notice that a failure to appear at the telephonic prehearing conference by Lyndon or another representative, pursuant to Rule 102(b) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, will result in the immediate entry of default against Respondent. See OIP at 3; 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155(a), .221(f). A default by Respondent will result in an Initial Decision revoking each class of its securities registered with the Commission pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

SO ORDERED.
