On March 25, 2014, the Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued an Order Fixing Time and Place of Public Hearing and Instituting Proceedings Pursuant to Section 8(d) of the Securities Act of 1933 (OIP). The OIP alleges that Creative Vision Alliance Corporation (Creative Vision) filed a Form S-1 registration statement (Registration Statement) on March 12, 2014, in connection with plans to issue seven million shares of common stock at an offering price of $.25 per share. The OIP further alleges that the Registration Statement is materially deficient because it fails to: (1) contain required audited financial statements; (2) provide management’s discussion and analysis of Creative Vision’s historical and interim financial information; and (3) provide required signatures.

The OIP scheduled a public hearing to begin April 7, 2014. On April 2, 2014, I postponed the hearing to May 12, 2014, based upon a representation that Creative Vision had agreed to consent to the entry of an order suspending the effectiveness of its Registration Statement. On May 5, 2014, the Division of Enforcement advised my Office that it has recommended the settlement to the Commission and that it expects the matter to be resolved shortly.

Order

For good cause shown, and to provide time for the Commission to act on the settlement offer, I POSTPONE the public hearing scheduled to begin on May 12, 2014, until June 16, 2014, at 9:30 a.m. EDT, with the expectation that the Commission will have approved the offer of settlement and the hearing will not be necessary. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.161(b).
