ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AS TO TWO RESPONDENTS

On March 3, 2017, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting proceedings (OIP) pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, alleging that Respondents have securities registered with the Commission and are delinquent in their periodic filings. Respondents were served with the OIP, and their answers were due by March 21, 2017. CirTran Corp., Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 4682, 2017 SEC LEXIS 773 (ALJ Mar. 15, 2017). On March 27, 2017, the Commission accepted a settlement offered by Respondent CirTran Corp. and revoked its registered securities. CirTran Corp., Exchange Act Release No. 80317.

I held a prehearing conference today, at which counsel for the Division of Enforcement and an officer and attorney from Respondent Blink Technologies, Inc., appeared. No one appeared for Respondents Conolog Corp. and World Surveillance Group, Inc. (“the two Respondents”). Division counsel represented that it has not heard from the two Respondents. And to date, the two Respondents have not filed answers.

Accordingly, I ORDER the two Respondents to SHOW CAUSE by April 7, 2017, why the registrations of their securities should not be revoked by default due to their failures to file answers, appear at the scheduled prehearing conference of which they were notified, or otherwise defend this proceeding. If the two Respondents fail to respond to this order, they will be deemed in default, the proceeding will be determined against them, and the registration of their securities will be revoked. OIP at 3; 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155(a), .220(f), .221(f).

A separate order will issue addressing the situation of Respondent Blink Technologies, Inc.
