File No. 3-17857

In the Matter of

EDWARD RICHARDSON JR., CPA and
EDWARD RICHARDSON JR.

SCHEDULING ORDER

The Securities and Exchange Commission instituted this proceeding in February 2017. A telephonic prehearing conference was held on March 29, 2017. During the conference, Respondents waived their right to a hearing between thirty and sixty days after service of the order instituting proceedings (OIP). See 15 U.S.C. § 78u-3(b). In addition, the Division of Enforcement represented that it had produced the entire investigatory file, and Respondents confirmed that they had received those materials. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.230.

I ORDER the following schedule:

- June 30, 2017: Parties exchange and file expert reports, if any.
- July 10, 2017: Requests under Rule of Practice 232 for deposition subpoenas and for subpoenas to produce documents are due. Such subpoenas shall specify a date no later than July 24, 2017, for the deposition or document production.
- July 24, 2017: Production under Rule of Practice 230 of any previously undisclosed materials in the investigatory file.
- Depositions under Rule of Practice 233 to be completed.
- July 31, 2017: Parties exchange and file witness and exhibit lists.
- Motions for summary disposition, if any, under Rule 250(c) are due. A motion under Rule 250(c) for leave to file a motion for summary disposition should be filed in conjunction with the motion for summary disposition.

- August 7, 2017: Motions in limine, including objections to witnesses and exhibits are due.
- August 14, 2017: Oppositions to motions filed under Rule 250(c), to motions in limine, and to objections to exhibits and witnesses are due.
- August 21, 2017: Replies to oppositions to motions filed under Rule 250(c) are due.
- August 28, 2017: Prehearing briefs, if any, are due.<sup>1</sup>
- August 29, 2017: Requests under Rule 232 for subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of a witness at the hearing are due.<sup>2</sup> Requests for such subpoenas submitted after this date will be permitted only upon a showing of good cause.
- September 5, 2017: The parties will participate in a telephonic prehearing conference, at 3:00 p.m. Eastern.
- September 11, 2017: Parties exchange but do not file premarked exhibits.

Stipulations, requests for official notice, and admissions of fact, and amendments to witness lists are due.
- September 12, 2017: The hearing will begin at 9:30 a.m. Eastern in Detroit, Michigan, at a location to be determined. The hearing will be scheduled to last three days, through September 14, 2017.

The parties are reminded that all filings must be filed in hard copy with the Office of the Secretary. See 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.151, .152. They are asked to email courtesy copies of filings to alj@sec.gov in Word and in PDF text-searchable format. Electronic copies of exhibits should not be combined into a single PDF file, but sent as separate attachments, and should be provided in text-searchable format whenever practicable.

<sup>1</sup> Prehearing briefs are optional. The parties should note, however, that I do not normally entertain opening statements and that a prehearing brief serves as the party's opening statement.

<sup>2</sup> Although August 29, 2017, is the deadline for requesting such subpoenas, in order to minimize inconvenience and provide adequate notice to third parties, the parties are encouraged not to wait to submit requests for such subpoenas.

Hearing Guidelines

I will follow the general guidelines described below during these proceedings. The parties should review what follows and promptly raise any objections they may have to the application of these guidelines in this matter.

1. Subpoenas. A party's motion to quash a subpoena will be due within five business days of the submission of the subpoena for signing. Any opposition to the motion to quash will be due within five business days thereafter.
2. Exhibits. The parties should confer and attempt to stipulate to the admissibility of exhibits. In order to avoid duplication of exhibits, the parties should identify joint exhibits. Exhibits are not filed with the Office of the Secretary until the close of the hearing at my instruction.
3. Exhibit lists. A comprehensive exhibit list prevents other parties from being surprised in the middle of the hearing. Given this fact, exhibit lists shall be exchanged among the parties and should include all documents that a party expects to use in the hearing for any purpose. This includes documents that are relevant only for impeachment purposes or which are presumptively inadmissible. The parties should serve their opponents with any amendments to their individual exhibit list. Because I rely on the parties' exhibit lists, the parties should provide me with a paper copy of their final exhibit lists at the beginning of the hearing. After filing the initial exhibit list, there is no need in the interim to submit amendments to my office. Following the hearing, I will issue a separate order directing the parties to file a list of all exhibits, admitted and offered but not admitted, together with citations to the record indicating when each exhibit was admitted.
4. Expert reports and testimony. Expert witness disclosures must comply with Rule of Practice 222(b)(1). Because this Rule is modeled on Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2)(B), the parties should look to Rule 26(a)(2)(B) and cases interpreting it for guidance. Failure to comply with the requirements of Rule 222(b) may result in the striking of an expert's report. Cf. Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(c). The filing of the expert's report according to the prehearing schedule essentially constitutes the filing of the expert's direct testimony. During the hearing, the expert will not be subject to direct examination, and will simply be sworn in and proffered for cross-examination. On request, however, a party may conduct a brief direct examination of the party's expert.
5. Hearing schedule. The first day of the proceeding will begin at 9:30 a.m. Unless circumstances require a different schedule, we will begin each subsequent day at 9:00 a.m. Each day of the proceeding should last until at least 5:15 p.m. I generally take one break in the morning, lasting about fifteen minutes, and at least one break in the afternoon. I generally break for lunch between noon and 12:30 p.m., for about one hour.

6. Hearing issues.

A. Examination.

i) In general, the Division of Enforcement presents its case first because it has the burden of proof. Respondents then present their case. If necessary, the parties may agree to proceed in some other order and may take witnesses out of order.

ii) If the Division calls a non-party witness that Respondents also wish to call as a witness, Respondents should cross-examine the witness as if they were calling the witness in their own case. This means that Respondents' cross-examination of the witness in this circumstance may exceed the scope of what was covered by Division's direct examination of that same witness. This will avoid the need to recall a witness just so the witness can testify for Respondents' case.

iii) I am flexible regarding the manner of presenting the testimony of Respondents, so long as the parties agree on it. By way of example, if the Division calls Respondent Edward Richardson Jr. as its last witness, the parties may agree that Respondents will conduct the direct examination, followed by the Division's cross-examination, which may exceed the scope of Respondents' direct examination of that witness. In the absence of any agreement, Respondent Richardson's testimony will proceed in the usual manner, i.e., Respondent Richardson will be called as a witness and examined potentially multiple times. If the Division calls Respondent Richardson as a witness and he later testifies as part of his own case, the Division's cross-examination during Respondents' case will be limited to the scope of the Respondents' direct examination.

iv) In general, cross-examination may be conducted by leading questions, even as to Division witnesses that Respondents wish to call in their own case. If Respondents' retain counsel, that counsel may not lead his or her client, however. As a result, if Respondent Richardson is called as a witness in the Division's case, his counsel may not ask leading questions on cross-examination. Similarly, if a Commission employee is called as a witness for Respondents, the Division may not ask leading questions on cross-examination.

v) Avoid leading questions on direct examination. Leading questions during direct examination of a non-hostile witness are objectionable. Repeatedly having to rephrase leading questions slows down the hearing.

7. Pleadings. Prehearing and post-hearing briefs are limited to 14,000 words. Cf. 17 C.F.R. § 201.450(c) (imposing a word-limit for briefs filed before the Commission). Parties may seek leave to exceed this limit through a motion filed seven days in advance of the relevant briefing deadline. To enhance the readability of pleadings, I urge counsel to limit the use of acronyms to those that are widely known. See Antonin Scalia & Bryan A. Garner, Making Your Case: The Art of Persuading Judges 120-22 (2008); see also Del. Riverkeeper Network v. FERC, 753 F.3d

1304, 1320-21 (D.C. Cir. 2014) (Silberman, J., concurring). For the same reason, I ask that counsel use the same font size in footnotes as that used in the body of a pleading.
