Notice to Parties and Order
Setting New Procedural
Schedule

The parties are notified of the Securities and Exchange Commission's order issued November 30, 2017. Pending Admin. Proc., Securities Act of 1933 Release No. 10440, 2017 SEC LEXIS 3724, <https://www.sec.gov/litigation/opinions/2017/33-10440.pdf>. In that order, the Commission ratified the appointment of its administrative law judges and directed each judge to reconsider the record, including all substantive and procedural actions, in pending proceedings for which no initial decision has been issued and in those that are pending before the Commission following an initial decision.

Accordingly, each party may submit by January 5, 2018, any new evidence it deems relevant to reexamination of the record. Each party may submit a brief explaining the relevance of its new evidence and identifying any challenged rulings, findings, or conclusions. If any party chooses to submit a brief by January 5, all other parties will have until January 16, 2018, to file a responsive brief.

I previously ordered Respondents to show cause by December 11, 2017, why they should not be found in default and this proceeding determined against them due to their failure to file answers, attend the prehearing conference, or otherwise defend the proceeding. Hui Feng, Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 5244, 2017 SEC LEXIS 3714, at *1-2 (Nov. 29, 2017). I also ordered the Division of Enforcement to submit a motion for default and sanctions against Respondents by January 8, 2018, if Respondents did not show cause. Id. at *2.

In light of the Commission's order requiring reconsideration of the record, the prior schedule is VACATED. Instead, I ORDER Respondents to show cause for their failures to participate in the proceeding by January 5, 2018. If Respondents do not show cause and no party asks for reconsideration of my prior actions by that date, I will ratify my prior actions, and the Division shall file a motion for default and sanctions by January 16, 2018.

An electronic courtesy copy of all filings should be emailed to ALJ@sec.gov in PDF text-searchable format. Exhibits should be emailed as separate attachments, not as a combined PDF file.
