Order Denying Stay

An individual claiming to be a “major shareholder” of Mecklermedia Corporation has emailed my office requesting “6 months to update filings” so that another entity can purchase Mecklermedia. I have caused a copy of the email chain to be filed with the Office of the Secretary.

Construing the emails as a motion for a stay or extension of time, I DENY the shareholder’s request. Shareholders may not participate in administrative proceedings on behalf of corporations, such as Mecklermedia. Corporations may be represented before the hearing officer only by an attorney or “a bona fide officer” of the corporation. 17 C.F.R. § 201.102(b).

As a reminder, motions and all other submissions should be properly filed with the Secretary and served on all parties. See 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.150-.153. Direct correspondence to my office on substantive matters—especially when all of the parties are not copied—is improper absent exigent circumstances.
