Revised Scheduling Order

Respondents filed an unopposed motion to modify the scheduling order I previously entered. That motion is granted in part as follows:

March 25, 2019: Respondents' financial affidavits and supporting documentation are due. Respondents may make a motion for the issuance of a protective order against disclosure of the information. See 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.322, .630(c).

April 19, 2019: Motions for summary disposition are due.

May 3, 2019: Opposition briefs are due.

May 10, 2019: Reply briefs are due.

The parties have agreed that the remaining issues in this proceeding should be determined on the basis of the written record without a hearing. I will reserve my decision on whether a hearing is necessary until after I have reviewed the parties' summary disposition briefing.
