In the Matter of

Mark Feathers

Extension Order

On March 13, 2020, the Division requested an extension to set forth its review criteria and provide an estimate for how long it would take to search, review for privilege, and produce paper files responsive to Respondent's subpoena. For good cause shown, the motion is granted and the deadline with respect to paper files is extended until April 1, 2020. A further extension may be granted should additional time be needed. The Division should inform my office if additional time is needed for electronic files as well.
