In the Matter of Mark Feathers

Order Setting New Deadline for Document Subpoenas

On March 17, 2020, Respondent Mark Feathers submitted a motion seeking leave to submit to my office new subpoena requests seeking documents from four state and federal agencies.

Leave to submit specific subpoena requests is not required as long as those requests are submitted within the ordered deadlines. See 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.111(b) & (d), 221(e), 232(a). But it is appropriate at this point to set a new deadline for subpoenas seeking the production of documents. All such requests must be submitted to my office by April 1, 2020. The parties are reminded that the scope of their requests should be reasonably tailored. See 17 C.F.R. § 201.232(b).
