

From: Russ Iuculano
To: IA-BDStudy@sec.gov
Cc: McHugh, Jennifer B.
Sent: Mon Oct 04 15:54:19 2010
Subject: Duquesne Law Review Article on Fiduciary Duty
Jennifer:

As a follow up to Pennsylvania Securities Commissioner Steve Irwin's comments at our September 24 meeting with you and the members of your Section 913 study team, attached is the law review article, "Wasn't My Broker Always Looking Out For My Best Interests? The Road to Become a Fiduciary" that he, Carolyn Mendelson and Scott Lane wrote for the Duquesne Business Law Journal in the Winter 2009 edition. I am writing to formally request that it be submitted for inclusion in the SEC's public comment file.

Thank you,

Russ
Russ Iuculano
Executive Director
NASAA
750 First Street, NE, Suite 1140
Washington, DC 20002
Ph: (202) 737-0900 ext. 123
Fax: (202) 783-3571

Copyrighted material redacted. Author cites the following: Steven D. Irwin, Scott A. Lane, and Carolyn W. Mendelson, "Wasn't My Broker Always Looking Out For My Best Interests? The Road to Becoming a Fiduciary," in Duquesne Business Law Journal, Winter 2009, PP. 41-61.