Subject: Climate Disclosure From: Samuel Livingston Affiliation:

Jun. 09, 2021

CAUTION: This email originated from outside of the organization. Do not click links or open attachments unless you recognize the sender and know the content is safe.

Chair Gary Gensler,
The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) should require companies and banks to reveal information about their contribution to climate change (including total direct and indirect greenhouse gas emissions), and their political spending. This information will enable consumers and investors to make decisions consistent with their values when they spend or invest their money.
Samuel Livingston