On January 26, 2011, I met with representatives of Bloomberg L.P., including George Harrington, George Baker, Nathan Jenner, Joe Zangri, Greg Dumark and Greg Babyak. The meeting took place at SEC headquarters. The Bloomberg representatives were in Washington, D.C. to meet with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) and stopped by prior to their CFTC meeting. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss their views on the CFTC's proposing release on swap execution facilities (SEFs).
