Re: Pay Ratio Disclosure, File No. S7-07-13

Dear Ms. Murphy,

I am an investor.

I strongly support regulations that would require publicly-traded companies to disclose CEO-to-median worker pay ratios. As income inequality reaches unprecedented heights, the public has the right to know which corporations are fueling the yawning gap between rich and poor.

Disclosure of CEO-to-worker pay ratios are also crucial for investors. This information is important for determining whether corporations are diverting resources to executives at the expense of long-term investments and workforce development. Additionally, investors need to be able to gauge whether executives' compensation is falling in line with their performance.

We are always told corporations must benefit their stock holders. We have learned in recent years that they mostly benefit the 1% in executive positions. Nobody cared about my stock investments as a retiree when the economy crashed. CEOs continued to care about their salaries and bonuses.

Sincerely,

Pamela Ruggieri
