Re: Pay Ratio Disclosure, File No. S7-07-13

Dear Ms. Murphy,

I am an investor.

I strongly support regulations that would require publicly-traded companies to disclose CEO-to-median worker pay ratios. As income inequality reaches unprecedented heights, the public has the right to know which corporations are fueling the yawning gap between rich and poor.

I am an investor with an IRA and am concerned that the rich continue to get richer and spend their profits attempting to blind the rest of the world to their dealings. Let's call them out. Many believe their lowest paid workers are being paid too much, and resent giving them health insurance and sick leave. I think workers should know what their employers make. And myself as an investor would like to know what these CEO's make. It might make a difference in what I invest in.

Sincerely,

Susan McDougal
