Re: Pay Ratio Disclosure, File No. S7-07-13

Dear Ms. Murphy,

LET'S BRING EQUALITY TO THE WORKFORCE. WE ARE ALL EQUAL - ALL WORK SHOULD BE VALUED, BUT STATUS IS NOT WORK ACCOMPLISHED. LET'S GET REAL.....THE WEALTHIER A PERSON IS, THE MORE AFRAID HE/SHE IS THAT THERE ISN'T ENOUGH - AND THE CYCLE GOES ON. WE ARE ALL EQUAL AND THIS MUST BE REFLECTED IN MONETARY COMPENSATION!!!! WE MUST REGULATE THOSE WHO OBVIOUSLY CANNOT REGULATE THEMSELVES!

I strongly support regulations that would require publicly-traded companies to disclose CEO-to-median worker pay ratios. As income inequality reaches unprecedented heights, the public has the right to know which corporations are fueling the yawning gap between rich and poor.

Disclosure of CEO-to-worker pay ratios are also crucial for investors. This information is important for determining whether corporations are diverting resources to executives at the expense of long-term investments and workforce development. Additionally, investors need to be able to gauge whether executives' compensation is falling in line with their performance.

Sincerely,

M Daily
