Re: Pay Ratio Disclosure, File No. S7-07-13

Dear Ms. Murphy,

I AM FURIOUS; AT 81, I AM LIVING THROUGH THE GILDED AGE THAT MARK TWAIN WROTE ABOUT. EXCEPT THIS ONE IS PROBABLY WORSE THAN THE FIRST.

LET WALL STREET AND THE REST OF THE CORPORATIONS HAVE IT. We need Glass-Steagall ramped up again plus another handful of reforms.

Perhaps Congress by lottery would help us get our needed reforms.

I strongly support regulations that would require publicly-traded companies to disclose CEO-to-median worker pay ratios. As income inequality reaches unprecedented heights, the public has the right to know which corporations are fueling the yawning gap between rich and poor.

Disclosure of CEO-to-worker pay ratios are also crucial for investors. This information is important for determining whether corporations are diverting resources to executives at the expense of long-term investments and workforce development. Additionally, investors need to be able to gauge whether executives' compensation is falling in line with their performance.

Sincerely,

Jacqui Goeldner
