Re: Pay Ratio Disclosure, File No. S7-07-13

Dear Ms. Murphy,

I strongly support regulations that would require publicly-traded companies to disclose CEO-to-median worker pay ratios. As income inequality reaches unprecedented heights, the public has the right to know which corporations are fueling the yawning gap between rich and poor.

Disclosure of CEO-to-worker pay ratios are also crucial for investors. This information is important for determining whether corporations are diverting resources to executives at the expense of long-term investments and workforce development. Additionally, investors need to be able to gauge whether executives' compensation is falling in line with their performance. while there are good & honest ceos, there are enough dishoinest & greedy ones who need to be put on notice, the people have a right to know. these ceos & other corp. officers dont own these businesses even though they act as if they do. stop their theivery by making what they take public knowledge. thank you.

Sincerely,

martin garon
