INVESTOR INFORMATION

Name: Mr. Frank Monaco

I'm a small investor, living on SS and my small savings.

Last year I lost about 12,000.00 due to the SEC dropping to balll on the u-tick rule. The naked short selling destroyed my positions in NYX and several other small positions. It is our, the small investor, only protection from the hedge funds who dominate with their large money volume. They don't need the protection, we do. We pay the taxes, the little people, not the large investors or corporations. give us a break.
