

Submitted: 2009-05-04

INVESTOR INFORMATION

Name: benjamin l groves

The up tic rule protected the public for 30yrs but special interest groups were able to get the SEC to do away with it allowing legalized stealing. The rule needs to be put back in place and not in a watered down version. It is your responsibility to protect the general public not the special interest groups