Subject: Reinstatement of the Uptick Rule

Dear Mary Schapiro

It is my understanding that the SEC has the 5 Uptick Rule proposals on the table. I want to go on record as requesting the SEC reinstate the 5 Uptick Rule proposals.

1. Reinstate the original Uptick Rule that was struck down in 2007.
2. Require a bid of at least a penny more than the previous sale (versus a sale above the current previous sale).
3. Ban short selling for the day on a security that has experienced a 10% decline.
4. Reinstate the previous Uptick Rule for the day on a security that has experienced a 10% decline.
5. Allow a short sale only at a price higher than the highest available bid on a security that has experienced a 10% decline.

Sincerely

L.A. Kridle
A concerned consumer
