Mr. Brent Fields, Secretary,
Securities and Exchange Commission
100 F Street, NE
Washington, DC 20549-1090

Dear Mr. Fields:

I am writing to you today to encourage the SEC to continue to require all financial institutions to send all statements and legal documents via hard copy through the USPS. As an investor in mutual funds, I appreciate the safety, privacy, and reliability afforded me by the Postal Service. After the massive hacking of our government and loss of confidential information we have witnessed this year, having that kind of private financial information sent over the internet worries me greatly. The loss of paper copies would also prove to be a hardship to all citizens that have no access to a computer or the internet and could prove to be a massive challenge to the elderly who may be uncomfortable using a computer.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely:
