Re: Comments on proposed rule 34-89290

To whom it may concern:

Americans should be encouraged to participate in the stock market. It is one of the greatest vehicles to grow savings and personal wealth. One of the main reasons Americans do not take initiative to become informed investors is the perceived lack of tools and education on how to manage their own portfolio. Many simply believe that they are incapable of managing their own money. This is a shame and our society should be doing everything possible to give the average American a chance to be successful.

I am a very small investor. One of the tools that I use to make informed investing decisions is the filings of small institutional investors. If the threshold for reporting is increased as proposed, I, along with every other American, will lose a vital source of information.

Thank you for considering this request. Should you have any questions, you may contact me at 405-202-9496 or via mail at the address above right or via email to bayonnebridgecapital@gmail.com.
